(7) Nothing in paragraph (4) shall affect the duty of an authority to bestow an award on a person—

- (a) in respect of his attendance at a course for the post-graduate Certificate in Education, the Art Teacher's Certificate or the Art Teacher's Diploma (or for a qualification comparable with any such certificate or diploma) unless he has previously attended such a course or successfully completed a course which—

- (a) he is a refugee, or the spouse or child of a refugee;

⁽¹⁹⁾ S.I. 1978/1096, to which there are amendments not relevant to these Regulations.

⁽²⁰⁾ S.I. 1959/364, revoked by S.I. 1982/106.

(c) he satisfies the authority that he ceased to attend the previous course, without completing it, during the four years immediately preceding his entering the United Kingdom.

(9) For the purposes of this regulation a person shall not be treated as having previously attended a course by reason only of his having attended from its beginning the course to which his application for an award relates.

(10) For the purposes of this regulation a person shall only be treated as having attended a course if he has attended either more than one course or one course for more than one term and seven weeks of a second term; and it is hereby declared that any reference to a person having attended or completed a course shall be construed as a reference to his having done so before or after the coming into operation of these Regulations.

Other exceptions

13.—(1) An authority shall not be under a duty to bestow an award in respect of a person's attendance at a course—

- (a) upon a person who has not been ordinarily resident, throughout the three years preceding the first year of the course in question, in the British Islands or, in the case of such a person as is mentioned in regulation 9(2)(b) or (c), has not been so resident in the European Community;
- (b) upon a person whose residence in the British Islands or, in the case of such a person as is mentioned in regulation 9(2)(b) or (c), in the European Community, has during any part of the period referred to in sub-paragraph (a) been wholly or mainly for the purposes of receiving full-time education; or
- (c) upon a person who has, in the opinion of the authority, shown himself by his conduct to be unfitted to receive an award.

(2) Sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of paragraph (1) shall not apply in the case of a refugee, ordinarily resident in the British Islands, who has not ceased to be so ordinarily resident since he was recognised as a refugee or was granted asylum, or in the case of the spouse or child of such a refugee.

Transfer of awards

14.—(1) An award shall be transferred by the authority at the request of a student so as to be held in respect of attendance at a course other than that in respect of which it is held in any case where—

- (a) subject to paragraph (2), on the recommendation of the academic authority the student commences to attend another course (“the new course”) at the establishment;
 - (b) subject to paragraph (2), with the written consent of the academic authorities of both establishments concerned, given on educational grounds, the student commences to attend a course (“the new course”) at another establishment;
 - (c) subject to paragraph (4), after commencing a course for the Certificate in Education, the student is, on or before the completion of that course, admitted to a course for the degree of Bachelor of Education;
 - (d) on the completion of a course for the Certificate in Education or the degree of Bachelor of Education, the student is admitted to a course of initial training for teachers of the deaf; or
 - (e) subject to paragraph (4), after commencing a course for the degree (other than an honours degree) of Bachelor of Education, the student is, on or before the completion of that course, admitted to a course for the honours degree of Bachelor of Education.
- (2) An award shall not be transferred in pursuance of paragraphs (1)(a) or (b) unless either—
- (a) the requisite recommendation or consent is given before the expiry of four months after the end of the first year of the course in respect of which the award was originally bestowed; or

- (b) the authority, after consulting the academic authority or authorities concerned, are satisfied that the period which the student in question will ordinarily require for the completion of the new course will expire not later than the period which he would now so require for the completion of the course in respect of which the award is held, ignoring—
 - (i) in each case, periods of experience which are part of a sandwich course; and
 - (ii) in the case of the course in respect of which the award is held, any period during which the student would now be required by the academic authority concerned to repeat part of the course, if the authority would not make any payment for maintenance in respect of that period under regulation 26(1).

(3) An authority may, after consulting the academic authority concerned, refuse the transfer of an award in pursuance of paragraph (1)(a) or (b) if they are satisfied that when the student applied for it he did not intend to complete the course to which his application related.

(4) An award shall not be transferred in pursuance of paragraph (1)(c) or (e) so as to be held in respect of his attendance at a course for the degree of Bachelor of Education if the period which the student in question would ordinarily require for the completion of that course, when aggregated with the period for which the student has already pursued a course in respect of which the award was held, exceeds—

- (a) five years where the award would be held in respect of a course for the honours degree of Bachelor of Education; or
- (b) four years where the award would be held in respect of a course for that degree not being an honours degree;

so, however, that where the student has pursued a part-time course, for the purposes hereof account shall only be taken of that proportion of the period for which he pursued that course which the period ordinarily required to complete the full-time course equivalent to the part-time course bears to the period so required to complete the part-time course.

“modified proportion” means the proportion which the number of weeks in the year in which there are no periods of experience for the student in question bears to 52.

(2) In the case of a student studying modern languages whose course includes periods of residence in a country whose language is a main language of the course, “periods of experience” means such periods of residence for which he is in gainful employment.

(3) For the purposes of determining the prescribed proportion or the modified proportion where the number of weeks in question is not a whole number, a day shall be reckoned as a seventh of a week.

(4) In the application of this Schedule to a student to whom Schedule 4 applies, references to Schedules 2 and 3 are to be construed as references to those Schedules as modified in accordance with Schedule 4.

(5) In the application of this Schedule to a student attending a course provided at the University of Oxford or of Cambridge the provisions thereof shall have effect as if—

- (d) if the student is a person to whom Part 4 applies, his requirements under that Part shall be the modified proportion of the amount there specified.

3. The provisions of Schedule 3 shall, as respects any sandwich year, have effect subject to the following modifications—

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations, which come into force on the 1st September 1987, supersede the Education (Mandatory Awards) Regulations 1986. They also supersede the Education (Students' Dependants Allowances) Regulations 1983 (which are revoked) and now provide for payments in respect of the maintenance of all dependants formerly covered by those Regulations.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Provisions in these Regulations which differ from the corresponding provisions of the 1986 Regulations (except as a result of minor drafting or consequential changes) are indicated by the use of heavy type. Omissions are indicated by the use of dots. The changes of substance other than the changes in rates of grant are described below.

The USSR is added to the list of countries included in the definition of high-cost countries. References to independent students now include, in the case of students who start their course after 31st August 1987, students who have been married for at least three years before the first year (as defined) of their course and not as previously, before the start of their course (regulations 2 and 3).

The children of European Community migrant workers are now eligible for awards under the Regulations wherever in the United Kingdom the parent is employed (regulation 9(2)(c)(i)).

For the purpose of regulation 12 (exceptions relating to previous study) a person is only to be treated as having attended a course if he has attended a course for more than one term and seven weeks of a second term as opposed to the previous one term (regulation 12(10)). An award may now be transferred where (other requirements remaining the same) the requisite recommendation or consent is given before the expiry of four instead of two months from the end of the first year of the original course (regulation 14(2)(a)).

Payments made to the student's spouse pursuant to an order under section 34 of the Children Act 1975 are to be disregarded in calculating the spouse's income (paragraph 17(1)(f) of Schedule 2).

Changes have been made to Part 3 of Schedule 2 to reflect the fact that the Regulations now provide for all students with dependants (paragraphs 18, 19 and 20 of Schedule 2).

The increased requirements of older students now apply (in the case of those starting their course after the 31st August 1986) not only where the student has earned in the three years before the course at least £12,000 but also where he has, in that period, earned or received by way of taxable benefit sums totalling that amount. Corresponding changes have been made to provide for the case where a student has been on a previous course and earned or received similar amounts in benefit before that previous course (paragraph 21 of Schedule 2).

The disregard for scholarship income has been increased to such an extent that there is no longer any need for the provision of a separate higher disregard for industrial scholarship income which has been omitted (paragraph 1(1)(b) of Schedule 3).

There is a revised provision for ascertaining the parental contribution when a parent whose income would be taken into account for this purpose dies before or during the year in respect of which the student's resources fall to be ascertained (paragraph 5(4) of Schedule 3).

Schedule 4, which provided for higher disregards and increased requirements in respect of dependants only in the case of independent students who had been married, now applies to all single students with dependants whether they have been married or not.
