^{F110}Normal weekly earnings of employed earners U.K.

14.—(1) Where a claimant’s income consists of earnings from employment as an employed earner, [^{F111}except where those earnings arise from employment as a director,] his normal weekly earnings from that employment shall, subject to [^{F112}paragraphs (3) to (6C)], be determined [^{F113}by taking account of his earnings from that employment which are received in the assessment period relevant to his case, whether the amount so received was earned in respect of that period or not, and in accordance with the following provisions of this regulation.]

(2) A claimant’s assessment period, subject to [^{F114}paragraphs (2A) to (6C)] , shall be, in respect of a claimant whose pay period is—

- (a) [^{F115}a week—
 - (i) except where head (ii) applies, a period of 6 consecutive weeks immediately preceding the week of claim; or

- (aa) [^{F117}a fortnight—
 - (i) except where head (ii) applies, a period of three consecutive fortnights immediately preceding the week of claim; or
 - (ii) where the [^{F118}appropriate officer] has insufficient information for the claimant’s normal weekly earnings to be determined in accordance with head (i), a period of three consecutive fortnights ending with the fortnight before the week immediately preceding the week of claim;]
- (b) four weeks or a month, a period of 12 consecutive weeks or, as the case may be, 3 consecutive months, immediately preceding the week of claim;

- (c) any period of less than one month (a shorter period), other than one to which sub-paragraph (a) or (b) refers, 6 consecutive shorter periods immediately preceding the week of claim;
- (d) any period of more than one month (a longer period), a period of one year ending immediately before the week of claim.

[^{F119}(2A) Where an [^{F120}appropriate officer] considers, on the basis of available evidence, that the claimant has elected to work fewer hours than he would otherwise have worked in the whole or part of the assessment period referred to in paragraph (2) with the result that, but for this paragraph, he would secure entitlement or increased entitlement to [^{F121}working families' tax credit], the adjudication officer may determine the claimant's normal weekly earnings by [^{F122}taking account of his earnings received] during the period equal to, and ending immediately before, the period determined in accordance with paragraph (2), unless the claimant satisfies him that the reason for reducing his hours of work was otherwise than to secure such an entitlement or increased entitlement.]

(3) Where during a claimant's assessment period his earnings are reduced because of his involvement in a trade dispute at his place of employment [^{F123}or because of his absence from work by reason of jury service], that assessment period shall be varied in that—

- (a) any pay period during which his earnings are so reduced shall be omitted from it; and
- (b) subject to sub-paragraph (c), his assessment period shall commence one pay period earlier (the extra period) for each period so omitted;

but so that his assessment period remains a period equal in length to the assessment period which would otherwise apply in his case under paragraph (2) but as if the words “consecutive” and “immediately” were omitted from that paragraph on each occasion where they appear.

(4) Where a claimant's earnings, whether during his assessment period or not, include a bonus or commission which is paid within 52 weeks preceding the week of claim and that bonus or commission is paid separately from his other earnings or is paid in respect of a period longer than the pay period relating to the other earnings with which it is paid, his normal weekly earnings shall be treated as including an amount in respect of that bonus or commission calculated in accordance with regulation 20A (calculation of bonus or commission).

(5) Where at the date of claim—

- (a) the claimant—
 - (i) has been in his employment, or
 - (ii) after a continuous period of interruption exceeding 4 weeks, has resumed his employment, or
 - (iii) has changed the number of hours for which he is contracted to work; and
- (b) the period of his employment or the period since he resumed his employment or the period since the change in the number of hours took place, as the case may be, is less than the assessment period in paragraph (2) appropriate in his case, his normal weekly earnings shall be determined in accordance with paragraph (6).

(6) In a case to which this paragraph applies, the [^{F124}the Board] shall require the claimant's employer to furnish him with an estimate of the claimant's likely earnings for the pay period for which he is or will normally be paid and the claimant's normal earnings shall be determined by [^{F125}taking account of] that estimate.
