

SCHEDULE

Regulations 3(2) and (3), 6(1) and (2) and 8(4)

ADVANCED FURTHER EDUCATION COURSES TO WHICH THE REGULATIONS APPLY

1. The courses specified in this paragraph are—

(a) any course for the further training of—

- (i) teachers (other than a course leading to a qualification of the City and Guilds of London Institute), or
- (ii) persons who are employed full-time as youth workers or community centre wardens in connection with the provision of such facilities for further education as are mentioned in section 41(b) of the Education Act 1944⁽¹⁾ and who are qualified as mentioned in paragraph 2,

and

(b) any such course as is mentioned in paragraph 3.

2. A youth worker or community centre warden shall be treated as qualified for the purpose of paragraph 1—

(a) if he has satisfactorily completed one of the following courses—

- (i) a three year degree course in youth and community work provided at the University of Ulster, or a four year degree course incorporating youth and community work training provided at Brunel University;
- (ii) a two year full-time diploma or certificate course of initial training for youth workers and/or community centre wardens provided at or sponsored by—

Aberdeen College of Education
Bradford and Ilkley Community College
Bulmershe College of Higher Education
Crewe & Alsager College of Higher Education
Derbyshire College of Higher Education
Dundee College of Education
Durham University
Goldsmiths College, London
Jordanhill College of Education, Glasgow
Leicester Polytechnic
Manchester Polytechnic
Moray House College of Education, Edinburgh
National Council of Young Men's Christian Associations, in association with North-East London Polytechnic
North-East Wales Institute
Sunderland Polytechnic
University of Ulster
Westhill College of Education, Birmingham;

(1) 1944 c. 31.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (iii) a one year full-time course of postgraduate training for youth workers and/or community centre wardens, provided at or sponsored by—

Aberdeen College of Education

Dundee College of Education

Manchester Polytechnic

Swansea, University College (the course for the Diploma in Social and Community Education, formerly known as Diploma in Adolescent Development)

Westhill College of Education, Birmingham;

- (iv) a part-time course of training for youth workers and/or community centre wardens provided at—

Avery Hill College of Education, London

University of Ulster

National Council of Young Men's Christian Associations, in association with North-East London Polytechnic

Thames Polytechnic;

- (b) if he is a qualified teacher within the meaning given by Regulation 13 of the Education (Teachers) Regulations 1982⁽²⁾;
- (c) if he possesses a qualification which has been approved jointly by the Secretary of State for Education and Science or the Secretary of State for Wales and the Joint Negotiating Committee for Youth Workers and Community Centre Wardens;
- or
- (d) if he had been recognised on or before 1st April 1984 by the Joint Negotiating Committee for Youth Workers and Community Centre Wardens as a qualified youth worker or community centre warden.

3.—(1) The courses referred to in paragraph 1(b) are—

- (a) a post-graduate course or a course comparable to such a course;
- (b) a first degree course or a course comparable to such a course;
- (c) a course for the Diploma of Higher Education;
- (d) a course for the Higher National Diploma or Certificate (including Certificate of Supplementary Study), the Higher National Diploma or Certificate of the Business & Technician Education Council, or the Diploma in Management Studies;
- (e) a course in preparation for a professional examination of a standard above that of the examinations for the National Certificate or Diploma of the Business & Technician Education Council or the examinations at advanced level for the General Certificate of Education;
- (f) a course for the Certificate in Education;
- (g) any other course in preparation for an examination of a standard above that of the National Certificate or Diploma of the Business & Technician Education Council or the examination at the advanced level for the General Certificate of Education being a course which, disregarding exceptions made in individual cases or classes of case, may be taken only by students who have attained the age of 18 years and (subject to sub-paragraph (2)) hold—

(2) S.I.1982/106.

- (i) an Ordinary National Certificate, or
- (ii) the National Certificate or Diploma of the Business & Technician Education Council, or
- (iii) a General Certificate of Education recording that the student attained grade C or above in at least five subjects in the examinations at ordinary level, or
- (iv) a General Certificate of Education recording that the student passed in at least 2 subjects in the examinations at advanced level or so passed in one subject and attained grade C in at least one other subject in the examinations at ordinary level, or
- (v) a certificate or other qualification indicative of a comparable or higher level of attainment.

(2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) any reference to a General Certificate of Education recording that a student attained grade C or above in a subject in the examinations at ordinary level shall be construed as including a reference—

- (a) to such a certificate recording that he attained at least grade C at ordinary level in the examinations in that subject at advanced level, and
- (b) to a Certificate of Secondary Education recording that he attained grade 1 in the examinations in that subject for that certificate.