EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

The Protocol scheduled to this Order makes certain alterations to the Convention set out in the Schedule to the Double Taxation Relief (Taxes on Income) (France) Order 1968, as amended by two subsequent Protocols.

The Protocol introduces special rules in respect of income and profits from activities connected with offshore oil and gas exploration or exploitation (Article 1). Trading profits from such activities are deemed to arise through a permanent establishment or fixed base and, subject to a de minimis time rule, may be taxed in the country in which the activities are carried on. Profits from the transportation of supplies or personnel, however, are to be taxed only in the country of the taxpayer's residence. The taxation of employees will continue to be governed by the provisions of Article 15 of the Convention.

The Protocol provides for a change in the method by which France is to give double taxation relief to its own residents in receipt of income which may also be taxed in the United Kingdom in accordance with Article 1.

The Protocol is to take effect in the United Kingdom on or after 1st April in the calendar year following that in which it enters into force.
