
STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

1988 No. 114

The Revaluation Rate Rebates (Scotland) Order 1987

Subsequent alterations

6. Where any alteration is made in the rates levied by the rating authority, or in the pre-revaluation rateable value or in the revaluation rateable value of any lands and heritages—

- (a) the question of the grant of a rebate, and
- (b) the calculation of any such rebate

shall be determined anew; and the amount of any rebate already paid or allowed, or of any rebate or balance thereof found to be due shall be paid or allowed by or, as the case may require, repaid to, the rating authority accordingly.