1988 No. 1899

MERCHANT SHIPPING

The Merchant Shipping (Protection of Shipping and Trading Interests) (USSR) (Revocation) Order 1988

Made - - - -	31st October 1988
Laid before Parliament	9th November 1988
Coming into force	1st December 1988

Whereas the Secretary of State for Transport in exercise of his powers under section 14(2) and (6) of the Merchant Shipping Act 1974(a) (hereinafter called "the Act") made the Merchant Shipping (Protection of Shipping and Trading Interests) (USSR) Order 1986(b) requiring certain persons in the United Kingdom connected with ships registered in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, and their agents, to provide him with information concerning the loading and unloading in the United Kingdom of cargo in certain trades:

And whereas the Secretary of State now no longer needs that information to be provided:

And whereas the Secretary of State has held the consultations required by section 14(7) of the Act:

Now therefore the Secretary of State, in exercise of his powers under section 14(2) and (6) of the Act and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:–

1. This Order may be cited as the Merchant Shipping (Protection of Shipping and Trading Interests) (USSR) (Revocation) Order 1988 and shall come into force on 1st December 1988.

2. The Merchant Shipping (Protection of Shipping and Trading Interests) (USSR) Order 1986 is hereby revoked.

Signed by the authority of the Secretary of State
31st October 1988

Michael Portillo
Minister of State
Department of Transport

(a) 1974 c.43; section 14 was amended by the Merchant Shipping Act 1979 (c.39), section 40.
(b) S.I. 1986/310.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order revokes the Merchant Shipping (Protection of Shipping and Trading Interests) (USSR) Order 1986, which required certain persons in the United Kingdom connected with Soviet shipping lines to provide information to the Secretary of State concerning carryings by Soviet lines in the trades between the United Kingdom and East Africa, the United Kingdom and the Far East and the United Kingdom and Central America.
