CUSTOMS AND EXCISE

The Excise Warehousing (Etc.) Regulations 1988

Made - - - - 29th April 1988
Laid before Parliament 9th May 1988
Coming into force - - 1st June 1988

The Commissioners of Customs and Excise, in exercise of the powers conferred on them by section 93 of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979(1), and sections 2(3A), 15 and 56(1) of the Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1979(2) and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following regulations:

PART I
PRELIMINARY

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Excise Warehousing (Etc.) Regulations 1988 and shall come into force on 1st June 1988, but the Commissioners may give consent and agree conditions, restrictions or requirements under regulation 5 (variation of provisions at request of occupier or proprietor) before that date.

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

- (1) 1979 c. 2; section 93 was amended by the Finance Act 1981 (c. 35), section 11(1) and Schedule 8, paragraph 2, and by the Finance Act 1986 (c. 41), section 5 and Schedule 3, paragraphs 1 to 7.
- (2) 1979 c. 4; subsection 2(3A) was inserted by the Finance Act 1981 (c. 35), section 11(1) and Schedule 8, paragraph 10; section 15 was amended by the Finance Act 1981 (c. 35), section 11(1) and Schedule 8, paragraph 14, and by the Finance Act 1986 (c. 41), section 5 and Schedule 3, paragraph 8; section 56(1) was amended by the Finance Act 1986 (c. 41), section 114 and Schedule 23, Part IV.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/06/2002.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Excise Warehousing (Etc.) Regulations 1988. (See end of Document for details)

“duty” means excise duty;

“occupier” means the occupier of an excise warehouse, and in the case of a distiller’s warehouse means the distiller;

“package” includes any bundle, case, carton, cask, or other container whatsoever;

“proprietor” means the proprietor of goods in an excise warehouse or of goods which have been in, or are to be deposited in, or are treated as being in, an excise warehouse, and “proprietorship” shall be construed accordingly;

“warehoused” means warehoused or rewarehoused in an excise warehouse, and “warehousing” and “rewarehousing” shall be construed accordingly.

I2 Reg. 2 in force at 1.6.1988, see reg. 1

Application

3.—(1) Except as provided by or under the Hydrocarbon Oil Duties Act 1979(3), Parts I to IV of these Regulations apply to all goods chargeable with a duty of excise.

(2) Part V of these Regulations applies for all purposes of the Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1979.

Commencement Information

I3 Reg. 3 in force at 1.6.1988, see reg. 1

Designated file

4.—(1) For the purposes of these Regulations delivery to the proper officer of anything in writing—

(a) shall be effected by placing it in the relevant designated file; and

(b) the time of such delivery shall be when it is placed in that designated file, but the proper officer may direct that delivery shall be effected in another manner.

(2) Nothing in a designated file shall be removed without the permission of the proper officer.

(3) Nothing in a designated file shall be altered in any way, and an amendment to anything in it shall be made by depositing a notice of amendment in the designated file.

(4) The designated file shall be kept at such place as the Commissioners direct and, if kept at the excise warehouse, shall be provided by the occupier.

(5) The designated file shall be a receptacle approved by the Commissioners for the secure keeping of written material, and different files may be approved for different purposes.

(6) For the purposes of these Regulations delivery to the proper officer of anything not in writing shall be effected in such manner, and be subject to such conditions, as the Commissioners direct.

Commencement Information

I4 Reg. 4 in force at 1.6.1988, see reg. 1

Variation of provisions at request of occupier or proprietor

5.—(1) The Commissioners may, if they see fit, consent in writing to an application by an occupier or proprietor for variation of any condition, restriction or requirement contained in or arising under regulations 11 to 24 below, and may make that consent subject to compliance with such other condition, restriction or requirement (as the case may be) as may be agreed by them and the applicant in writing.

(2) Where under paragraph (1) above any condition or restriction is varied or another is substituted for it, then, if the varied or substituted condition or restriction is one—

- (a) subject to which goods may be deposited in, secured in, kept in or removed from an excise warehouse or made available there to their owner for any prescribed purpose; or
- (b) subject to which an operation may be carried out on goods in an excise warehouse, breach of the varied or substituted condition or restriction shall give rise to forfeiture of those goods, provided that breach of the original condition or restriction would have given rise to forfeiture.

Manner of Commissioners' directions etc.

7.—(1) Where, by or under these Regulations, it is provided that the Commissioners may—

- (a) make a direction or requirement;
- (b) give their permission or consent;
- (c) grant approval; or
- (d) impose a condition or restriction,

then they may do so only in writing; and they may make a direction or requirement or impose a condition or restriction by means of a public notice.

(2) Any request for the proper officer to give his permission or grant approval under these Regulations shall, if he or the Commissioners direct, be made in writing.

(3) Any right granted to the Commissioners or the proper officer by these Regulations to—

- (a) make a direction or requirement;
- (b) give permission or consent;
- (c) grant approval; or
- (d) impose a condition or restriction, shall include a right to revoke, vary or replace any such direction, requirement, permission, consent, approval, condition or restriction.

[^{F2}Goods to which section 46 of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 applies

10A.—(1) This regulation applies to goods other than hydrocarbon oil that have been imported from a place outside the Communities (“section 46 goods”).

(2) Section 46 goods may be entered for warehousing and moved from their place of importation to an excise warehouse without payment of excise duty if, but only if, the following conditions are complied with—

(4) S.I. 1982/612.

(5) S.I. 1986/79.

- (a) any customs duty charged on the goods is paid or otherwise accounted for to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, and
 - (b) at all times during the movement the goods are accompanied by a copy of copy 6 of the single administrative document that was used to make the customs declaration for those goods.
- (3) In this regulation the references to copy 6 of the single administrative document and the customs declaration have the same meaning as in Commission Regulation (EEC) No. 2454/93.]

Receipt of goods into warehouse

11.—(1) Subject to paragraph (6) below, when goods are warehoused the occupier shall immediately deliver to the proper officer an entry of the goods in such form and containing such particulars as the Commissioners direct.

(2) When goods are warehoused the occupier shall take account of the goods and deliver a copy of that account to the proper officer by the start of business on the next day after warehousing that the warehouse is open.

(3) The occupier shall, if there is any indication that the goods may have been subject to loss or tampering in the course of removal to the excise warehouse, immediately inform the proper officer and retain the goods intact for his examination.

(4) Except as the proper officer may otherwise allow, the occupier shall, within 5 days of goods being warehoused, send a certificate of receipt for the goods to the person from whom they were received identifying the goods and stating the quantity which has been warehoused.

[^{F3}(4A) Where goods are warehoused in circumstances where duty may be drawn back the certificate of receipt mentioned in paragraph (4) above shall—

- (a) be in such form and contain such particulars as the Commissioners may require, and
- (b) be endorsed on one of the copies of the warehousing advice note that accompanied the goods, and in this paragraph “warehousing advice note” means a document (in such form and containing such particulars as the Commissioners may require) drawn up by the person to whom the certificate of receipt will be sent.]

(5) Except as the proper officer otherwise allows the occupier shall give only one receipt required by paragraph (4) above for each lot or parcel of goods warehoused.

(6) In the case of spirits warehoused at the distillery where they were produced satisfaction of the requirements of regulation 21 of the Spirits Regulations 1982(6) shall be deemed to be compliance with the requirements of entry and account in paragraphs (1) and (2) above.

(7) Should the occupier fail to comply with any condition or restriction imposed by or under paragraphs (1), (2), (3) or (6) above any goods in respect of which the failure occurred shall be liable to forfeiture.

Securing, marking and taking stock of warehoused goods

12.—(1) The occupier shall take all necessary steps to ensure that no access is had to warehoused goods other than as allowed by or under these Regulations.

(2) Goods shall be warehoused in the packages and lots in which they were first entered for warehousing.

(3) The occupier shall—

(a) legibly and uniquely mark and keep marked warehoused goods so that at any time they can be identified in the stock records; and

(b) stow warehoused goods so that safe and easy access may be had to each package or lot.

(4) The occupier shall, when required by the proper officer to do so, promptly produce to him any warehoused goods which have not lawfully been removed from the warehouse.

(5) The occupier shall take stock of all goods in the warehouse—

(a) monthly in the case of bulk goods in vats or in storage tanks; and

(b) annually in the case of all other goods, and shall take stock at such other times and to such extent as the Commissioners may for reasonable cause require.

(6) In accordance with the Commissioners' directions the occupier shall—

(a) balance his stock accounts and reconcile the quantities of those balances with his Excise Warehouse Returns; and

(b) balance his stock accounts so that they can be compared with the result of any stock-taking.

(7) The occupier shall notify the proper officer immediately in writing of any deficiency, surplus or other discrepancy concerning stocks or records of stocks whenever or however discovered.

(8) Any goods—

(a) found not to be marked in accordance with paragraph (3) above; or

(b) found to be in excess of the relevant stock account and not immediately notified to the proper officer, shall be liable to forfeiture.

Operations

14.—(1) Except as provided by or under this regulation or by or under sections 57 and 58 of the Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1979(7) (mixing of spirits with made-wine or wine), no operation shall be carried out on warehoused goods.

(2) The Commissioners may allow the operations described in Schedule 1 to these Regulations to be carried out on warehoused goods, and may allow other operations if they are satisfied that the control of the goods and the security and collection of the revenue will not be prejudiced.

(3) Save as the proper officer may allow in cases of emergency for the preservation of the goods, no operation shall be commenced unless the occupier has delivered to the proper officer a notice of the proposed operation with a specification of the goods involved, and 24 hours have elapsed following the delivery of that notice.

(4) Before commencing any operation on goods the occupier shall ensure that an account is taken of those goods and that immediately after completion of the operation an account is taken of the out-turn quantities.

(5) The occupier shall deliver to the proper officer a notice containing such detail of the accounts required by paragraph (4) above as the proper officer requires.

(6) The occupier shall ensure that—

- (a) any operation is carried out in a part of the warehouse approved by the Commissioners for that purpose, or in such other part as the proper officer allows; and
- (b) such other requirements as the proper officer may impose in any particular circumstances are observed.

(7) Any goods in respect of which this regulation is not observed shall be liable to forfeiture.

(8) Nothing in paragraph (2) above shall permit the mixing of spirits with wine or made-wine while that operation is excluded from the provisions of section 93(2)(c) of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979.

(7) 1979 c. 4; sections 57 and 58 were amended by the Isle of Man Act 1979 \(c. 58\), Schedule 1, and by S.I. 1979/241.

Removal from warehouse—occupier’s responsibilities

15. The occupier shall ensure that—

- (a) notice of intention to remove the goods is given to the proper officer in accordance with any directions made by the Commissioners;
- (b) an entry of the goods is delivered to the proper officer in such form and containing such particulars as the Commissioners may direct;
- (c) no goods are removed until any duty chargeable has been paid, secured, or otherwise accounted for;
- (d) no goods are removed contrary to any condition or restriction imposed by the proper officer;
- (e) an account of the goods is taken in such manner and to such extent as the proper officer requires and a copy of the account is delivered to the proper officer; and
- (f) when goods are removed other than for home use, a certificate of receipt is obtained showing that all the goods arrived at the place to which they were entered on removal and, if no such receipt is obtained within 21 days of the removal, notice of that fact is given to the proper officer for the excise warehouse from which the goods were removed.

Removal from warehouse—entry

16.—(1) Goods may be entered for removal from warehouse for—

- (a) home use, if so eligible;
- (b) exportation;
- (c) shipment as stores; or
- (d) removal to the Isle of Man ^[F4];

provided that, where goods are warehoused in circumstances where duty may be drawn back they may not, under this paragraph, be entered for removal from warehouse for any purpose that may result in their being consumed in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man].

(2) The Commissioners may allow goods to be entered for removal from warehouse for—

- (a) rewarehousing in another excise warehouse;

- (b) temporary removal for such purposes and such periods as they may allow;
- (c) scientific research and testing;
- (d) removal to premises where goods of the same class or description may, by or under the customs and excise Acts, be kept without payment of excise duty;
- (e) denaturing or destruction; or
- (f) such other purpose as they permit, and may by direction impose conditions and restrictions on the entry of goods or classes of goods for any of the above purposes.

(3) Save as the Commissioners direct no goods may be removed from warehouse unless they have been entered in accordance with this regulation.

(4) Goods entered for home use may be removed from warehouse only if—

- (a) the duty has been paid to the Commissioners;
- (b) the removal is in accordance with provisions of, or under, the customs and excise Acts, allowing payment of the duty to be deferred; or
- (c) the removal is permitted under an arrangement approved by the Commissioners for the payment of duty on the day the goods are removed.

(5) Goods entered for a purpose other than home use may be removed from warehouse without payment of duty only if security for that duty is given (by bond or otherwise) to the satisfaction of the Commissioners and the security is such as to remain in force until the accomplishment of the purpose for which entry is made.

Removal from warehouse—general

17.—(1) Any goods removed from an excise warehouse without payment of duty as samples or for scientific research and testing and which are no longer required for the purpose for which they were removed shall be—

- (a) destroyed to the satisfaction of the proper officer;
- (b) rewarehoused in an excise warehouse; or
- (c) diverted to home use on payment of the duty chargeable thereon.

(2) The proper officer may require any goods entered for removal from an excise warehouse for any purpose, other than home use, to be secured or identified by the use of a seal, lock or mark, and any such requirement may continue after the goods have been removed.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/06/2002.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Excise Warehousing (Etc.) Regulations 1988. (See end of Document for details)

(3) In such cases as the Commissioners may direct the proper officer may impose conditions and restrictions on the removal of goods from an excise warehouse in addition to those imposed elsewhere in these Regulations.

(4) Any goods in respect of which any of the provisions of these Regulations relating to removal of goods from an excise warehouse (other than regulation 15(f)) is contravened shall be liable to forfeiture.

(5) The Commissioners may direct that any provision of these Regulations relating to removal of goods from an excise warehouse shall not apply in the case of hydrocarbon oils.

[^{F5}(6) Subject to paragraph (7) below, goods entered for removal from an excise warehouse for any of the purposes set out in regulation 16 above shall be accompanied by an accompanying document that has been completed and is used in accordance with the instructions for completion and use set out on the reverse of copy 1 of that document.

(7) Paragraph (6) above does not apply to—

- (a) goods entered for removal for home use, shipment as stores or denaturing;
- (b) goods entered for removal for use by a person to whom section 13A of the Customs and Excise Duties (General Reliefs) Act 1979 (reliefs from duties and taxes for persons enjoying certain immunities and privileges) applies;
- (c) goods entered for removal that are, in accordance with regulations made under section 12(1) of the Customs and Excise Duties (General Reliefs) Act 1979 (supply of duty-free goods to Her Majesty's ships), to be treated as exported;
- (d) spirits entered for removal for use by a person authorised to receive them in accordance with section 8 of the Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1979 (remission of duty in respect of spirits used for medical or scientific purposes);
- (e) goods entered for removal for exportation in circumstances to which Part II of the Excise Goods (Accompanying Documents) Regulations 2002 apply;
- (f) goods that are being lawfully moved under the cover of a single administrative document; or
- (g) any goods that are entered for removal from an excise warehouse for any of the purposes set out in regulation 16 above before 1st October 2002 if those goods are accompanied by a document that has been approved by the Commissioners for that purpose.

(8) If there is a contravention of, or failure to comply with, paragraph (6) above, the excise duty point for excise goods that are required by this regulation to be accompanied by an accompanying document is the time those goods were removed from the excise warehouse.

(9) The person liable to pay the excise duty at the excise duty point is—

- (a) the person who arranged for the security required by regulation 16(5) above, or
- (b) if regulation 16(5) above was not complied with, the authorized warehousekeeper.

(10) Any person whose conduct caused a contravention of, or failure to comply with, paragraph (6) above is jointly and severally liable to pay the excise duty with the person specified in paragraph (9) above.

(11) Any excise duty that any person is liable to pay by virtue of this regulation must be paid immediately.

(12) In this regulation—

“single administrative document” has the same meaning as in Commission Regulation (EEC) No. 2454/93;

“accompanying document” means the document set out in Schedule 4 below.]

PART III

RETURNS AND RECORDS

Returns

20.—(1) The occupier shall complete and sign an Excise Warehouse Return and shall deliver such return to the proper officer within 14 days of the end of the stock period to which it relates.

(2) A return shall be in such form and contain such particulars of goods received into, stored in and delivered from an excise warehouse as the Commissioners direct, and different provisions may be made for goods of different classes or descriptions.

(3) The Commissioners may direct that separate returns be made in respect of goods of different classes or descriptions.

(4) The occupier shall support each return with such schedules and further information relating to the goods as the Commissioners may require.

(5) “Stock period” means one calendar month or such other period, not exceeding 5 weeks, as the proper officer, at the request of the occupier, allows.

Records to be kept

21.—(1) The occupier shall, in relation to goods in an excise warehouse, keep the records prescribed by Schedule 2 to these Regulations.

(2) The proprietor of goods in an excise warehouse, or of goods which have been removed from an excise warehouse without payment of duty, or which are to be warehoused, may be required by the proper officer to keep the records prescribed by Schedule 3 to these Regulations in so far as they relate to his proprietorship of the goods.

(3) In addition to the other records required by this regulation the occupier shall, in relation to his occupation of the warehouse, keep such records of the receipt and use of goods received into the excise warehouse other than for warehousing therein as the proper officer requires.

(4) Records required by or under this regulation shall—

- (a) be entered up promptly;
- (b) identify the goods to which they relate;
- (c) in the case of an occupier be kept at the warehouse;
- (d) in the case of a proprietor be kept at his principal place of business in the United Kingdom, or at such other place as the proper officer allows; and

Preservation of records

22.—(1) The occupier shall preserve, for not less than 3 years from the lawful removal of the goods or such shorter period as the Commissioners direct, all records which he is required to keep by virtue of regulation 21(1) above, but no record shall be destroyed until the relevant stock accounts have been balanced and any discrepancy reconciled.

(2) The proprietor shall preserve, for not less than 3 years from when he ceased to be the proprietor of the goods, or for such shorter period as the Commissioners direct, all records which he is required to keep by virtue of regulation 21(2) above.

(3) Each occupier and proprietor shall preserve all records (other than those referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2) above) kept by him for the purposes of any relevant business or activity for not less than 3 years from the events recorded in them, except that such records need not be preserved if they are records which (or records of a class which) the Commissioners have directed as not needing preservation.

(4) The requirements to preserve records imposed by paragraph (3) above may be discharged by the preservation in a form approved by the Commissioners of the information contained in those records.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

Production of records

23.—(1) The occupier or the proprietor shall, when required by the Commissioners, produce or cause to be produced to the proper officer any records, copy records or information which he was required by these Regulations to preserve.

(2) Production under paragraph (1) above shall—

- (a) take place at such reasonable time as the proper officer requires; and
- (b) take place at the excise warehouse or at such other place as the proper officer may reasonably require.

(3) The proper officer may inspect, copy or take extracts from and may remove at a reasonable time and for a reasonable period any record produced or required to be produced to him under this regulation, and the occupier and proprietor shall permit such inspection, copying, extraction and removal.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/06/2002.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Excise Warehousing (Etc.) Regulations 1988. (See end of Document for details)

(4) Where the records required to be produced by this regulation are preserved in a form which is not readily legible, or which is legible only with the aid of equipment, the occupier or proprietor shall, if the proper officer so requires, produce a transcript or other permanently legible reproduction of the records and shall permit the proper officer to retain that reproduction.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

1 General

- 1.1 The Internal Accompanying Document (IAD) is required by the Excise Warehousing (Etc) Regulations 1988.
- 1.2 The document must be completed legibly and in a manner that makes entries indelible. Information may be pre-printed. No erasures or overwriting are permitted. Acknowledgement by HM Customs & Excise of a change to the place of delivery is to be shown in box B.
- 1.3 The format of the IAD is as laid down in the Excise Warehousing (Etc) Regulations 1988. Alternatively, commercial documents may be used provided that they contain the information required on the IAD.
- 1.4 Any unused space in boxes 18a to 24c is to be lined through so that nothing can be added. Three separate descriptions of merchandise may be entered which must be of the same excise category. The categories are mineral oils, tobacco products and alcohol/alcoholic beverages.
- 1.5 The accompanying document comprises three copies: copy 1, to be retained by the consignor; copy 2, to be retained by the consignee, and copy 3, to be returned to the consignor to discharge the movement.
- 1.6 Copies 2 and 3 must accompany the goods during the movement.
- 1.7 In cases where the document is utilised for movement using fixed pipelines, copies 2 and 3 are to be sent to the consignee by the fastest means available to the dispatching warehousekeeper. In all cases the document is to arrive at the place of delivery within 24 hours of receipt of the goods to which it relates.

2 Headings

- Box 1 Consignor: the full name and address.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations, which come into force on 1st June 1988, replace the Excise Warehousing (Etc.) Regulations 1982 and the Excise Warehousing (Etc.) (Amendment) Regulations 1986.

The Regulations prescribe conditions for the receipt into, removal from and secure storage of goods in excise warehouses and the operations which may be conducted on those goods in such warehouses.

The Regulations provide for the records to be kept and preserved by the occupier of an excise warehouse and the proprietor of goods in an excise warehouse and provide also for the production of such records and the furnishing of information for the protection of the revenue.

Status:

Point in time view as at 01/06/2002.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Excise Warehousing (Etc.) Regulations 1988.
