

---

STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

---

1989 No. 889 (S.90)

ARMS AND AMMUNITION

The Firearms (Scotland) Rules 1989

Made - - - - - 19th May 1989

Coming into force 1st July 1989

THE FIREARMS (SCOTLAND) RULES 1989

1. Citation, commencement and extent
  2. Interpretation
  3. Firearm certificates
  4. Shot gun certificates
  5. Verification of application
  6. Statement to accompany application
  7. Photographs to accompany application
  8. Visitors' firearm and shot gun permits
  9. Other permits
  10. Firearms dealers
  11. Revocations
- Signature

---

SCHEDULE 1 — FIREARM CERTIFICATES: FORMS OF APPLICATION AND CERTIFICATE

PART I

PART II

SCHEDULE 2 — FIREARM CERTIFICATES: FORMS OF APPLICATION AND CERTIFICATE

PART I

PART II

SCHEDULE 3 — VISITORS' PERMITS: FORMS OF APPLICATION AND PERMITS

PART I

PART II

PART III

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

PART IV

SCHEDULE 4 — OTHER PERMITS: FORMS OF PERMITS

- PART I
- PART II
- PART III
- PART IV
- PART V

SCHEDULE 5 — FIREARM DEALERS: FORMS OF APPLICATION, NOTIFICATION AND REGISTERS

- PART I
- PART II
- PART III
- PART IV

Part V: — Directions as to the manner of keeping a register in the form set out in Part IV of this Schedule

1. The register may be kept in the following manner—
2. Parts or columns of the register which relate to a...
3. In Parts I, II and III of the register, the...
4. The description of firearms or ammunition or the headings of...
5. No abbreviations should be used, unless their meaning is made...
6. Where any entries other than the prescribed particulars are made...

Explanatory Note