

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SCHEDULE

ENDURING POWER OF ATTORNEY

Part A: About using this form

8. Before applying to the Court of Protection for registration of this power, your attorney(s) must give written notice that that is what they are going to do, to you and your nearest relatives as defined in the Enduring Powers of Attorney Act 1985. You or your relatives will be able to object if you or they disagree with registration.