who are defined authorities (“referred to in the Order as specified authorities”) in Wales may not conduct the management of sports and leisure facilities without first subjecting them to competition.

All specified authorities (with the exception of local authorities and police authorities) are required to compete for functional work falling within the defined activity which they wish to carry out on or after 1st January 1992. Community Councils and police authorities, other than county police authorities, are required to compete for such work which they wish to carry out on or after 1st January 1993 (regulation 3).

Work is to be competed for by the groups of local and county police authorities listed in the Schedule in accordance with the timetables there set out (regulation 4).

The minimum and maximum periods for which specified authorities must invite offers to carry out such work will be four and six years respectively (regulation 5).
