[^{F5}3.—(1) The court may, on an application by the OFT, enquire into whether any person (“the defaulter”) has refused or otherwise failed, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a notice under regulation 2.

(2) An application under paragraph (1) shall include details of the possible failure which the OFT considers has occurred.

(3) In enquiring into a case under paragraph (1), the court shall hear any witness who may be produced against or on behalf of the defaulter and any statement which may be offered in defence.

(4) Paragraphs (5) and (6) apply where the court is satisfied, after hearing any witnesses and statements as mentioned in paragraph (3), that the defaulter has refused or otherwise failed, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a notice under regulation 2.

(5) The court may punish the defaulter as it would have been able to punish him had he been guilty of contempt of court but in punishing the defaulter the court shall not impose any penalty which could not be imposed on summary conviction for an offence created in exercise of the powers conferred by section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972.

(6) Where the defaulter is a body corporate or is a partnership constituted under the law of Scotland, the court may punish any director, officer or (as the case may be) partner of the defaulter as it would have been able to punish that director, officer or partner had he been guilty of contempt of court.

(7) In this regulation “the court”—

- (a) in relation to England and Wales or Northern Ireland, means the High Court, and
- (b) in relation to Scotland, means the Court of Session.]

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations confer investigative powers (based on section 3(7) of the Competition Act 1980) upon the Director General of Fair Trading for the purpose of furnishing information to the European Commission under Council Regulation (EEC) No. 4064/89 (on the control of concentrations between undertakings) when a concentration with a Community dimension (as defined in that Regulation) may impede competition in a distinct market within the United Kingdom. The enforcement provisions of section 85(6) to (8) of the Fair Trading Act 1973 apply. Sections 93B and 133 of that Act also apply.

Status:

Point in time view as at 01/05/2004.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The EEC Merger Control (Distinct Market Investigations) Regulations 1990.
