EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Charging Authorities (Population for Precepts) (Wales) Regulations 1989 so that the relevant day used in calculations under those regulations will be 15th November (instead of 1st November) of the financial year preceding that for which the calculation is to be made. (The relevant day is the day in relation to which register data is to be extracted to enable the relevant population of an area to be calculated).
