These Regulations amend the Town and Country Planning (Fees for Applications and Deemed Applications) (Scotland) Regulations 1990 ("the principal Regulations"), which make provision for the payment of fees to planning authorities in respect of applications made under Part III of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1972 for planning permission for development or for approval of matters reserved by an outline planning permission and in respect of applications for consent for the display of advertisements; and for the payment of fees to the Secretary of State in respect of applications for planning permission which are deemed to have been made, by virtue of the provisions of section 85(7) or 91(5) of the 1972 Act, in connection with an appeal against an enforcement notice or in connection with an application for an established use certificate respectively.

The main change made by the Regulations is that all fees are increased by approximately 20%. A replacement scale of fees (the table in the Schedule to the principal Regulations) is set out in the Schedule.
