FORM 1 HOUSING ACT 1985

SECTION 294

Order extinguishing a public right of way

1. The Council have [acquired] [resolved to purchase] under section 290 of the Housing Act 1985 land at which is shown coloured pink on the map marked "Map referred to in the [name of authority and name or reference of right of way] Right of Way Extinguishment Order 19 " and deposited at the offices of the Council.
2. A public right of way shown edged black on that map and described in the Schedule to this order exists over the land.
3. The Council under section 294 of the Housing Act 1985 hereby order that the said public right of way shall be extinguished as from such date as the Secretary of State in approving the order may direct.
4. This order may be cited as the [name of authority and name or reference of right of way] Right of Way Extinguishment Order 19 .

SCHEDULE

DESCRIPTION OF RIGHT OF WAY TO BE EXTINGUISHED

[Give name or reference of right of way and describe its location, direction, length and width as indicated on the map.]

FORM 2 HOUSING ACT 1985

SECTION 294

Notice of the making of an order extinguishing a public right of way

Notice is hereby given that the Council have made the [name of authority and name or reference of right of way] Right of Way Extinguishment Order 19 under section 294 of the Housing Act 1985 and are about to submit it to the Secretary of State for [the Environment] [Wales] for his approval.

The order extinguishes the right of way described in the Schedule to this notice as from such date as the Secretary of State in approving the order may direct.

A copy of the order and the map referred to in it may be inspected at all reasonable hours at Any objections to the order should be addressed to the Secretary of State at [insert address of Regional Office of the Department of the Environment or, as appropriate, the address of the Welsh Office].

If any objection to the order is made to the Secretary of State before the expiration of four weeks from its publication, he shall not approve the order until he has caused a public local inquiry to be held into the matter. The Secretary of State may, however, dispense with such an inquiry if he is satisfied that in the special circumstances of the case the holding of such an inquiry is unnecessary.

The period of four weeks from the publication of the order expires on [insert the date four weeks from the date of publication].

NOTES

(STATUTORY REFERENCES ARE TO THE HOUSING ACT 1985)

Effect of licence

1. The permitted number of persons for the dwelling is and so this licence authorises a total of persons to sleep there.

Duration of licence

2. The period specified in paragraph 5 of the licence must not be more than 12 months.
(section 330(5))

Revocation of licence

3. The Council may revoke the licence at their discretion by notice in writing served on the occupier and specifying a period (at least one month from the date of service) at the end of which the licence will cease to be in force.
(section 330(4))

The landlord

4. If the dwelling is let to the occupier or intending occupier, the Council are required to serve a copy of this licence and of any notice of revocation on the landlord of the dwelling and this must be done within 7 days of the issue of the licence or the service of the notice of revocation on the occupier, as the case may be.
(section 330(6))

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SECTION 332

Information to be contained in rent book or similar document

Causing or permitting overcrowding

1. An occupier who causes or permits his dwelling to be overcrowded is liable to prosecution for an offence under the Housing Act 1985, and, if convicted, to a fine of up to level 2 on the standard scale, and a further fine of up to one-tenth of that level in respect of every day on which the offence continues after conviction. Any part of a house which is occupied by a separate household is a “dwelling”.

2. A dwelling is overcrowded if the number of persons sleeping in it is more than the “permitted number”, or is such that two or more of those persons, being ten years old or over, of opposite sexes (not being persons living together as husband and wife), must sleep in the same room.

3. The “permitted number” for the dwelling to which this [*] relates is person(s).

In counting the number of persons each child under ten counts as half a person, and a child of less than a year is not counted at all.

*insert suitable description of the document used in relation to the dwelling.
