

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Legal Aid in Criminal and Care Proceedings (Costs) Regulations 1989 by making some minor amendments to the standard fee provisions for solicitors and counsel and by increasing the rates of remuneration for legal aid work in criminal and care proceedings done on or after 1st April 1990. There is an overall increase of 7½% for work done by solicitors and 7% for work done by counsel.