The Family Proceedings Rules 1991

PART VII

ENFORCEMENT OF ORDERS

Registration etc of certain orders under the Act of 1958

Registration in the High Court of an order registered in a magistrates' court

7.26.—(1) This rule applies where a sheriff court in Scotland or a magistrates' court in Northern Ireland has made an order for the registration in the High Court of an order previously registered in a magistrates' court in England and Wales in accordance with section 17(4) of the Act of 1950, and has sent a certified copy of the maintenance order to the proper officer of the High Court, pursuant to section 2(4)(c) of the Act of 1958.

(2) On receipt of the certified copy, the proper officer shall cause the order to be registered in the High Court by filing the copy and making an entry in the register, and shall send notice of the registration to the clerk of the original court and also to the clerk of the magistrates' court in which the order was registered in accordance with section 17(4) of the Act of 1950.
