The Controlled Waste (Registration of Carriers and Seizure of Vehicles) Regulations 1991

Revocation of registration

10.—(1) Subject to section 3(6) of the 1989 Act, a regulation authority may revoke a person's registration as a carrier of controlled waste if, and only if—

- (a) that person or another relevant person has been convicted of a prescribed offence; and
- (b) in the opinion of the authority, it is undesirable for the registered carrier to continue to be authorised to transport controlled waste.

(2) Where a regulation authority decide to revoke a person's registration as a carrier of controlled waste, they shall give notice to the carrier informing him of the revocation and of the reasons for their decision.
