The Social Security (Disability
Living Allowance) Regulations 1991

PART IV

MOBILITY COMPONENT

Qualifying period for mobility component after an interval

11. The period prescribed for the purposes of section 37ZC(9)(a)(ii) of the Act is a period of 3 months ending on the day on which the person was last entitled to the mobility component or to mobility allowance, where that day falls not more than 2 years before the date on which entitlement to the mobility component would begin or would have begun but for any regulations made under section 51(1)(m) of the 1986 Act (which enables regulations to provide for the day on which entitlement to benefit is to begin or end).
