EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Wildlife and Countryside (Registration to Sell etc. Certain Dead Wild Birds) Regulations 1982 (S.I.1982/1219) ("the principal Regulations").

Regulation 2 of these Regulations provides that a registration under the principal Regulations which was made before 1st April 1991 shall expire on 1st September 1992, and that any registration made on or after 1st April 1991 shall expire at the end of a period of three years from the date on which the registration was made.

Regulations 3 to 5 provide that marks enabling dead wild birds to be identified are to be attached to the skeleton of the bird if it has no skin.

Regulation 6 substitutes a new form for registered persons to use when supplying information to the Secretary of State, in accordance with the principal Regulations, regarding the sale of dead wild birds.
