
STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

1992 No. 1978

The Food Additives Labelling Regulations 1992

Defence in relation to exports

6. In any proceedings for an offence under these Regulations it shall be a defence for the person charged to prove that the food additive in respect of which the offence is alleged to have been committed was intended for export and complied with the importing country's domestic legislation relevant to the alleged offence.