

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Housing Benefit (General) Regulations 1987 and provide that where a person's rent or payments in respect of a dwelling are increased on account of outstanding arrears or unpaid sums which he owes or formerly owed in respect of that or another dwelling, housing benefit shall not be payable in respect of that increase.