1992 No. 2882

Faculty Jurisdiction Rules 1992

PART V

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

General Provisions

29.—(1) Where anything is required by these Rules to be done not more than a specified number of days or weeks after a specified act or event, the day on which the act or event occurred shall not be counted.

(2) The registrar or chancellor may, on an application made by the person concerned, extend the time within which anything is required to be done by these Rules, and the application may be made notwithstanding that the time has expired.

(3) The registrar or chancellor may exercise the power under paragraph (2) on an ex parte application, or may give directions for the giving of notice thereof and for a hearing.

(4) Any such application may be granted on such terms as the registrar or chancellor thinks just.

(5) The registrar or chancellor may give leave to any party to amend any pleading at any stage in the proceedings on such terms as he deems just and in the case of an amended petition he may direct such further citation as he considers necessary.
