The Personal Protective Equipment at Work Regulations 1992

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Personal Protective Equipment at Work Regulations 1992 and shall come into force on 1st January 1993.

Commencement Information

II Reg. 1 in force at 1.1.1993, see reg. 1

Interpretation

2.—^{F1}(1) In these Regulations—

“the 1974 Act” means the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974;

“employer”, in relation to a worker, means the person by whom the worker is employed under their worker’s contract;

“personal protective equipment”, unless the context requires otherwise, means all equipment (including clothing affording protection against the weather) which is intended to be worn or held by a person at work and which protects the person against one or more risks to that person’s health and safety, and any addition or accessory designed to meet that objective;

“relevant self-employed person” means a self-employed person (except a worker) who conducts an undertaking of a prescribed description for the purposes of section 3(2) of the 1974 Act;

“worker” means an individual who has entered into or works under—

- (a) a contract of employment;
- (b) any contract, whether express or implied and (if it is express) whether oral or in writing, whereby the individual undertakes to do or perform personally any work or services for another party to the contract whose status is not by virtue of the contract that of a client or customer of any profession or business undertaking carried on by the individual;

and any reference to a worker’s contract shall be construed accordingly..]

(2) Any reference in these Regulations to—

- (a) a numbered regulation or Schedule is a reference to the regulation or Schedule in these Regulations so numbered; and
- (b) a numbered paragraph is a reference to the paragraph so numbered in the regulation in which the reference appears.

[^{F8}Modification of the 1974 Act

3A.—(1) The duty placed on the employer in respect of their employees by section 9 of the 1974 Act (duty not to charge employees) is modified to apply in respect of the duties under these Regulations to their workers, and “employer”, as referenced in section 9, in relation to a worker means the person by whom the worker is employed under their worker’s contract.

(2) In these Regulations, section 52 of the 1974 Act (meaning of “work” and related expressions) is extended as follows—

- (a) “work” includes work as a worker;
- (b) a worker is at work throughout the time when they are working under their worker’s contract, but not otherwise.]

Provision of personal protective equipment

4.—(1) [^{F9}Subject to paragraph (1A),] every employer shall ensure that suitable personal protective equipment is provided to [^{F10}their workers] who may be exposed to a risk to their health or safety while at work except where and to the extent that such risk has been adequately controlled by other means which are equally or more effective.

[^{F11}(1A) Where the characteristics of any policing activity are such that compliance by the relevant officer with the requirement in paragraph (1) would lead to an inevitable conflict with the exercise of police powers or performance of police duties, that requirement shall be complied with so far as is reasonably practicable.]

(2) Every [^{F12}relevant self-employed person] shall ensure that [^{F13}they are] provided with suitable personal protective equipment where [^{F14}they may] be exposed to a risk to [^{F15}their health] or safety while at work except where and to the extent that such risk has been adequately controlled by other means which are equally or more effective.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraphs (1) and (2), personal protective equipment shall not be suitable unless—

- [^{F16}(a) it is appropriate for the risk or risks involved, the conditions at the place where exposure to the risk may occur, and the period for which it is worn;
- (b) it takes account of ergonomic requirements and the state of health of the person or persons who may wear it, and of the characteristics of the workstation of each such person;]
- (c) it is capable of fitting the wearer correctly, if necessary, after adjustments within the range for which it is designed;
- (d) so far as is practicable, it is effective to prevent or adequately control the risk or risks involved without increasing overall risk;
- [^{F17}(e) it complies with any legal requirement which is applicable to that item of personal protective equipment.]

[^{F18}(4) Where it is necessary to ensure that personal protective equipment is hygienic and otherwise free of risk to health, every employer and every [^{F12}relevant self-employed person] shall ensure that personal protective equipment provided under this regulation is provided to a person for use only by [^{F19}them].]

[^{F20}(5) In paragraph (3)(e), “any legal requirement” means any requirement of—

- (a) an enactment (whether in an Act or instrument) which implements in Great Britain any provision on design or manufacture with respect to health or safety in any relevant Community Directive listed in Schedule 1; or
- (b) Regulation (EU) 2016/425 of the European Parliament and of the Council on personal protective equipment and repealing Council Directive 89/686/EEC^{F21}....]

Assessment of personal protective equipment

6.—(1) Before choosing any personal protective equipment which by virtue of regulation 4 ^{F24}they are] required to ensure is provided, an employer or ^{F12}relevant self-employed person] shall ensure that an assessment is made to determine whether the personal protective equipment ^{F25}they intend] will be provided is suitable.

(2) The assessment required by paragraph (1) shall include—

- (a) an assessment of any risk or risks to health or safety which have not been avoided by other means;
- (b) the definition of the characteristics which personal protective equipment must have in order to be effective against the risks referred to in sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph, taking into account any risks which the equipment itself may create;
- (c) comparison of the characteristics of the personal protective equipment available with the characteristics referred to in sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph.
- ^{F26}(d) an assessment as to whether the personal protective equipment is compatible with other personal protective equipment which is in use and which ^{F27}a worker] would be required to wear simultaneously.]

(3) Every employer or ^{F12}relevant self-employed person] who is required by paragraph (1) to ensure that any assessment is made shall ensure that any such assessment is reviewed if—

- (a) there is reason to suspect that it is no longer valid; or
- (b) there has been a significant change in the matters to which it relates, and where as a result of any such review changes in the assessment are required, ^{F28}that] employer or ^{F12}relevant self-employed person] shall ensure that they are made.
