EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Town and Country Planning (Fees for Applications and Deemed Applications) (Scotland) Regulations 1990 “the principal Regulations”, which make provision for the payment of fees to planning authorities in respect of—

(1) applications made under Part III of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1972 for planning permission for development or for approval of matters reserved by an outline planning permission and in respect of applications for consent for the display of advertisements,

(2) applications for planning permission which are deemed to have been made, by virtue of the provisions of section 85(7) of the 1972 Act, in connection with an appeal against an enforcement notice, and

(3) applications for certificates of lawful use or development made under sections 90 and 90A of the 1972 Act.

The Regulations increase all fees by approximately 10%. A replacement scale of fees (the table in the Schedule to the principal Regulations) is set out in the Schedule. The fee prescribed at paragraph 3(b)(i) of the Table contained in the Schedule to the principal Regulations has been increased from nil to £22.
