Transitional provisions with respect to reserves, etc

7.—(1) For the purposes of any statutory accounts of the Successor Company, the value of any asset and the amount of any liability transferred to the Successor Company under section 2 or 7 of the 1991 Act shall be taken to be the pre-transfer value of that asset or (as the case may be) the pre-transfer amount of that liability.

(2) An amount equal to the accumulated realised profits of the Authority at the transfer date shall be treated as accumulated realised profits of the Successor Company.

(3) Subject to sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) above, for the purposes of any statutory accounts of the Successor Company the amount to be included in respect of any item shall be determined as if anything done by the Authority (whether by way of acquiring, revaluing or disposing of any asset or incurring, revaluing or discharging any liability, or by carrying any amount to any provision or reserve, or otherwise) had been done by the Successor Company.

(4) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) above the pre-transfer value of an asset or (as the case may be) the pre-transfer amount of a liability is—

- (a) in the case of an asset or liability transferred under section 2 of the 1991 Act, the value or (as the case may be) the amount which would have been assigned to that asset or liability for the purposes of the last statement of accounts prepared by the Authority under section 42 of the Harbours Act 1964 before the transfer date if the accounting year of the Authority dealt with in that statement of accounts had ended immediately before the transfer date; and
- (b) in the case of an asset or liability transferred under section 7 of the 1991 Act, the value or (as the case may be) the amount assigned to that asset or liability for the purposes of the last statement of accounts prepared by the Authority in pursuance of paragraph 6 above.

- (a) any accounts prepared by that company for the purposes of any provision of the Companies Act 1985, including group accounts; and
- (b) any statement of accounts prepared by the Successor Company under section 42 of the Harbours Act 1964.

Dividend by Successor Company before laying or delivery of accounts

8.—(1) Where it is proposed to declare a distribution during the accounting reference period of the Successor Company which includes the transfer date, or before any accounts are laid or delivered to the registrar of companies in respect of that period, sections 270 to 276 of the Companies Act 1985(3)(relevant accounts for determining whether a distribution is lawful) shall apply in relation to the distribution as if—

(3) Sections 271, 272, 273 and 276 were amended by the Companies Act 1989, Schedule 10, paragraphs 4, 5, 6 and 7.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(a) such accounts as are mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) below were accounts relevant under section 270; and

(b) references in section 273 to initial accounts included references to any such accounts.

(2) The accounts referred to in sub-paragraph (1)(a) and (b) above are such accounts as, on the assumptions stated in sub-paragraph (3) below, would have been prepared under Part VII of the Companies Act 1985⁽⁴⁾ in respect of the relevant year.

(3) Those assumptions are—

(a) that the relevant year had been a financial year of the Successor Company;

(b) that the transfer effected by section 2(2) of the 1991 Act had been a vesting of all the property, rights, liabilities and functions to which the Authority were entitled or subject immediately before the beginning of the relevant year and had been effected immediately after the beginning of that year;

(c) that the value of any asset and the amount of any liability of the Authority transferred to the Successor Company by virtue of the said section 2(2) had been the value or (as the case may be) the amount assigned to that asset or liability for the purposes of the statement of accounts prepared by the Authority in respect of their financial year immediately preceding the relevant year;

(d) that any securities of the Successor Company issued or allotted on any terms before the declaration of the distribution had been issued or allotted on those terms before the end of the relevant year; and

(e) such other assumptions (if any) as may appear to the directors of the Successor Company to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of this paragraph.

(4) For the purposes of such accounts as are mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) above the amount to be included in respect of any item shall be determined as if anything done by the Authority (whether by way of acquiring, revaluing or disposing of any asset or incurring, revaluing or discharging any liability, or by carrying any amount to any provision or reserve, or otherwise) had been done by the Successor Company.

Accordingly (but without prejudice to the generality of the preceding provision) the amount to be included in any reserves of the Successor Company as representing its accumulated realised profits shall be determined as if any profits realised and retained by the Authority had been realised and retained by the Successor Company.

(5) Any such accounts shall not be regarded as statutory accounts for the purposes of paragraph 5 or 7 above.

(6) In this paragraph—

“the relevant year” means the last financial year of the Authority ending before the transfer date;

“financial year”, in relation to the Authority, means any period of twelve months ending with 31st December.

Power to redeem funded debt

9.—(1) At any time on or after the transfer date the Successor Company, as transferee (by virtue of section 2(2) of the 1991 Act) of the property, rights, liabilities and functions of the Authority in respect of funded debt, may (notwithstanding the terms specified or referred to in any certificate of funded debt) redeem any such debt at such price and on such other terms and conditions as may be agreed between the Successor Company and the holder of the debt.

(4) Part VII consists of sections 221 to 262A, which were inserted by the Companies Act 1989, sections 2 to 22.

(2) In this paragraph “funded debt” means Leith Harbour funded debt created under section 108 of the Leith Harbour and Docks Consolidation Order 1935⁽⁵⁾ and outstanding at 15th May 1968.

10. The transfer effected by section 2(2) of the 1991 Act shall not affect any entitlement to benefits or other rights under any deeds or other documents constituting a scheme established by the Authority for the payment of pensions, lump sums, gratuities or other like benefits to or in respect of employees or former employees of the Authority; and, accordingly, for the purposes of any such deed or other document (as it has effect by virtue of section 2(2) of, and paragraphs 1 and 2 of Schedule 1 to, that Act in relation to employment with the Successor Company)—

- (a) any period of employment with the Authority shall count as employment with the Successor Company; and
- (b) any decision taken, or other thing done, before the transfer date by the Authority shall be treated as having been taken or done by the Successor Company.

Constitution of the Authority

11.—(1) For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that, notwithstanding section 2(2) of the 1991 Act and paragraphs 1 and 2 of Schedule 1 to that Act, the provisions of article 3(2) of, and Schedule 1 to, the Forth Harbour Reorganisation Scheme 1966⁽⁶⁾, the Forth Ports Authority (Constitution) Revision Order 1973⁽⁷⁾ and the Forth Ports Authority (No. 2) Order 1980⁽⁸⁾(which make provision as respects the constitution of the Authority) shall have no effect in relation to the Successor Company.

(2) For the purposes of the provisions of those enactments in their application to the Authority on and after the transfer date—

- (a) the general manager of the Successor Company (whether designated by that company as general manager, managing director or otherwise) shall be taken to be the general manager of the Authority, and
- (b) a full-time employee of the Successor Company shall be taken to be a full-time officer of the Authority;

and accordingly—

- (ii) any person who, immediately before the transfer date, is a full-time officer of the Authority and (in that capacity) a member of the Authority and who on that date becomes a full-time employee of the Successor Company shall not thereby cease to be a member of the Authority.

(3) On or at any time after the transfer date the Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, appoint one or more persons to be members of the Authority in addition to the members appointed in pursuance of the Forth Ports Authority (Constitution) Revision Order 1973:

Provided that the number of persons appointed in pursuance of this sub-paragraph and in office for the time being shall not be more than four.

(4) For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that—
