1993 No. 1202

The Road Traffic (Parking Adjudicators)
(London) Regulations 1993

PART II

Procedure relating to appeals

Consolidation of proceedings

13.—(1) Where there are pending two or more appeals, then, should it at any time appear to the adjudicator that—

- (a) some common question of law or fact arises in both or all the appeals; or
- (b) for some other reason it is desirable to make an order under this regulation, the adjudicator may order that some (as specified in the orders) or all of the appeals shall be considered together and may give such consequential directions as necessary.

(2) An order shall not be made under this regulation unless all parties concerned have been given an opportunity to make representations against the making of such an order.
