

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

1. These Regulations amend the Removal and Disposal of Vehicles Regulations 1986.
2. The Regulations enable a traffic warden to remove a vehicle parked or broken down in a road in circumstances where:
 - (a) it is causing an obstruction,
 - (b) it is likely to cause danger to road users, or
 - (c) an offence is being committed under certain enactments by or under which are imposed prohibitions or restrictions on the waiting of vehicles on roads.
3. The new powers can be exercised only in England or Wales.
