Coming into force
for the purposes referred to in article 1(2)		1st December 1993
for all other purposes		1st April 1994

The Secretary of State, in exercise of his powers under sections 51(2) and 67(4) of the Local Government Act 1972⁽¹⁾ and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order which gives effect, with modifications, to proposals submitted to him under sections 47, 48(1) and 51(1) of that Act, more than six weeks before the making of this Order, by the Local Government Boundary Commission for England:

Citation and commencement

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Derbyshire and South Yorkshire (County and District Boundaries) Order 1993.

(2) This Order shall come into force on 1st December 1993 for any purpose set out in regulation 4(1) of the Local Government Area Changes Regulations 1976⁽²⁾.

(3) For all other purposes, this Order shall come into force on 1st April 1994.

Interpretation

2. In this Order—

“district” includes a city and a metropolitan borough;

(1) 1972 c. 70.

(2) S.I. 1976/246, amended by S.I. 1978/247.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

“Derbyshire” means the county of Derbyshire, and “North-East Derbyshire” means the Derbyshire district of that name;

“electoral division” means an electoral division of Derbyshire;

“the map” means one of the seven maps prepared by the Department of the Environment, marked “Maps of the Derbyshire and South Yorkshire (County and District Boundaries) Order 1993”, and deposited in accordance with regulation 5 of the Local Government Area Changes Regulations 1976;

“South Yorkshire” means the metropolitan county of South Yorkshire, and any reference to Sheffield or to Barnsley is a reference to the South Yorkshire district of that name;

any reference to an area as unparished is a reference to that area not forming part of any parish; and “ward” means a ward of the district from or to which an area is transferred, except in the expression “parish ward”, where it means a ward of the parish to which an area is transferred.

Transfers between Derbyshire (North East Derbyshire) and South Yorkshire (Sheffield)

3.—(1) Each area which is marked as shown in column 1 of the following Table on the map indicated in column 2 shall be transferred from Derbyshire, from North East Derbyshire, and from the parish of Eckington to Sheffield, to the ward named in column 3, to the Sheffield petty sessional division and the South Yorkshire (West) coroner’s district, becoming unparished.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order realigns parts of the boundary between the counties of Derbyshire and South Yorkshire by making mainly small transfers of land between North East Derbyshire and Sheffield. It also transfers areas within South Yorkshire between Barnsley and Sheffield.

Consequential changes to parishes, unparished areas, local government electoral areas, petty sessional divisions and coroners' districts are made.

The map and table forming part of this note (Pages 4 and 5) give a general guide to the changes made. The table also gives in approximate terms the total hectareage and population affected. The order maps (described in article 2) should be inspected for full details of the transfers. They are available for inspection at all reasonable times at the offices of the North East Derbyshire District Council, of the Barnsley Metropolitan Borough Council and of the Sheffield City Council, and additionally at the offices of the Secretary of State for the Environment located in 2 Marsham Street, London SW1P 3EB.

The Local Government Area Changes Regulations 1976 contain general provisions regarding the effect of orders such as this one.
