The University of Paisley (Scotland) Order of Council 1993

PART III

THE COURT

Period of office

7.—(1) No person other than an ex officio governor shall be appointed to the Court for a term of office of more than 4 years; and no person other than an ex officio governor shall be appointed to the Court where his term of office, if aggregated with any previous terms of office, whether served before or after the coming into force of this Order, would cause him to serve for more than 12 years in the Court.

(2) A person who has attained the age of 70 years shall not thereafter be eligible to take office, whether for a first or subsequent term, as a governor; provided that nothing in this article shall prohibit a person who attains the said age during a term of office as a governor from continuing as a governor until the expiry of that term.

(3) A governor shall be deemed to have vacated his office as governor, and the Court of which he was a member shall declare his place vacant, where he intimates in writing to the Court his resignation as a governor, or where the Court deems that his continuation would bring discredit upon the name of the University or in such other circumstances as the Court may determine and record in a standing order.
