EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the National Savings Stock Register Regulations 1976 so as to raise from £10,000 to £25,000 two limits imposed by those Regulations. These relate to the nominal value of stock of any one issue which may be registered in the National Savings Stock Register in the name of any person under regulation 5(5) (subscription of stock through the Bank of England) and the value of stock of any one description which may be purchased on any one day under regulation 6 (purchase of stock through the National Debt Commissioners).
