

SCHEDULE D5

RE-EMPLOYED PENSIONERS

PART IV

SURVIVING SPOUSES' AND CHILDREN'S BENEFITS

20. Where—

- (a) a person was entitled to a superannuation allowance under Part I of the Act of 1937 or an annual pension under the former regulations or a pension under a local Act scheme, or a retirement pension under the 1974 regulations, the 1986 regulations or these regulations,
- (b) after becoming so entitled he entered further local government employment,
- (c) the pension or allowance was on that account reduced or suspended, and
- (d) he dies in the further employment, any benefits payable in respect of him (except any surviving spouse's or children's short-term pension) are to be calculated as if immediately before his death he had become entitled to benefits under Part III of this Schedule.
