(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order, which is made under section 2(1) of the School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Act 1991 (“the Act”), refers to a document entitled “School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document 1995” published by Her Majesty’s Stationery Office, which is obtainable from Government book shops and through booksellers.

The Order directs that the provisions set out in the Document shall, save for paragraph 21.6, have effect from 1st September 1995. Paragraph 21.6 shall have effect from 1st September 1994 and the retrospective effect of this provision is authorised by section 2(4)(f) of the Act. Paragraph 21.6 provides that in certain circumstances teachers who on 1st September 1994 were being paid the Inner London Area Supplement under paragraph 18 of the School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document 1993 shall continue to receive that supplement.

The Order applies to all school teachers (as defined in section 5(1) and (2) of the Act and including teachers employed by education associations, joint committees and the governing bodies of groups of grant-maintained and grant-maintained special schools) in England and Wales. By virtue of section 2(6)(a) of the Act, the remuneration of school teachers to whom the Order applies is to be determined and paid to them by local education authorities or, in the case of school teachers in grant-maintained or grant-maintained special schools, by the governing bodies of such schools in accordance with the scales and other provisions set out in the Document. By virtue of sections 69(5) and 218(7) of the Education Act 1993 the effect of section 2(6)(a) is that the remuneration of school teachers employed by joint committees and education associations respectively is to be determined and paid to them by that joint committee or education association. By virtue of section 2(6)(b) of the Act, the provisions set out in the Document relating to other statutory conditions of employment have effect as terms of the contracts of employment of school teachers to whom the Order applies.
