Distress

212. —

(1) If upon written demand a person neglects or refuses to pay VAT which he is required to pay under the Act or any Order or any Regulations made thereunder or to pay any amount recoverable as if it were VAT, a Collector or an officer of rank not below that of [^{F2}Job Band 7] may distrain on the goods and chattels of that person and by warrant signed by him direct any authorised person to levy such distress, provided that where an amount of VAT is due under section 73(9) of the Act (other than an amount assessed as due under section 73(1) of the Act upon failure by a person to make a return) no distress shall be levied until 30 days after that amount became due.

(2) A levy shall be executed by or under the direction of, and in the presence of, the authorised person.

(3) A person in respect of whose goods and chattels a warrant has been signed shall be liable for all costs and charges in connection with anything done under this regulation.

(4) If the person aforesaid does not pay the sum due together with the costs and charges within 5 days of a levy, the distress shall be sold by the authorised person for payment of the sums due and all costs and charges; and costs and charges of taking, keeping and selling the distress shall be retained by the authorised person and any surplus remaining after the deduction of the costs and charges and of the sum due shall be restored to the owner of the goods distrained.
