PART I

INTRODUCTION

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Social Security (Incapacity Benefit) (Transitional) Regulations 1995 and shall come into force on 13th April 1995.

(2) In these Regulations—

“the 1992 Act” means the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992(d);

“the 1994 Act” means the Social Security (Incapacity of Work) Act 1994(e);

“the Administration Act” means the Social Security Administration Act 1992(f);

“the appointed day” means 13th April 1995;

“the increases for Dependants Regulations” means the Social Security (Incapacity Benefit-Increases for Dependants) Regulations 1994(g);

►¹“pensionable age” has the meaning given by the rules in paragraph 1 of Schedule 4 to the Pensions Act 1995(h); ◀

“the Unemployment, Sickness and Invalidity Benefit Regulations” means the Social Security (Unemployment, Sickness and Invalidity Benefit) Regulations 1983(i).

¹Defn. of “pensionable age” substituted by reg. 8(2) of S.I. 2009/1488 as from 6.4.10.

(3) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, a reference—

(a) to a numbered regulation is to the regulation bearing that number in these Regulations;

(b) in a regulation to a numbered paragraph is to the paragraph bearing that number in that regulation;

(c) in a regulation to a numbered Part is to the Part bearing that number in these Regulations,

(a) 1994 c. 18.

(b) Sections 4(2) and 7(2) are cited because of the meaning ascribed to the work “prescribed”.

(c) See section 173(5)(a) of the Social Security Administration Act 1992 (c.5.) This provides that regulations made before the end of six months from the coming into force of the enactment under which they are made are not required to be referred to the Social Security Advisory Committee.

(d) 1992 C.4.

(e) 1994 c.18.

(f) 1992 c.5.

(g) S.I. 1994/2945.

(h) 1995 c. 26. Paragraph 1 of Schedule 4 was amended by paragraph 39 of Schedule 2 to the State Pension Credit Act 2002 (c. 16), paragraph 13 of Schedule 3 to the Welfare Reform Act 2007 (c. 5) and paragraph 4 of Schedule 3 to the Pensions Act 2007 (c. 22).

(i) S.I. 1983/1598; relevant amending instruments are S.I. 1986/484, 1989/872 and 1994/1107.

PART II

PROVISIONS COMMON TO THE TRANSITION TO INCAPACITY
BENEFIT FROM SICKNESS BENEFIT AND INVALIDITY BENEFITDays to be treated as days of incapacity for work

2.—(1) For the purposes of a transitional award of incapacity benefit under regulations 11 and 17 and for the purposes of enabling a claim for incapacity benefit to be made on or after the appointed day on the basis that a day of incapacity for work on or after the appointed day forms part of a period of incapacity for work beginning before the appointed day—

- (a) days before the appointed day which were days of incapacity for work for the purposes of sickness benefit or invalidity benefit and days specified in paragraph (2) shall be treated as having been days of incapacity for work; and
- (b) days of entitlement to sickness benefit or invalidity benefit and days specified in paragraph (3) shall be treated as having been days of entitlement to incapacity benefit.

(2) The specified days referred to in paragraph (1)(a) are—

- (a) any Sunday before the appointed day which—
 - (i) immediately follows a day of incapacity for work; and
 - (ii) immediately precedes a day of incapacity for work; and
 - (iii) does not fall within a period of disqualification by virtue of section 32 of the 1992 Act and the provisions in regulation 17 of the Unemployment, Sickness and Invalidity Benefit Regulations in force immediately before the appointed day; and
 - (iv) falls within a period of interruption of employment running at the appointed day;
- (b) any Sunday which immediately follows a day of incapacity for work in a period of interruption of employment which comes to an end on a Saturday.

(3) The specified days referred to in paragraph (1)(b) are—

- (a) any Sunday which falls within the description specified in paragraph (2)(a) and (b);
- (b) days which are deemed to be days of entitlement to sickness benefit under regulation 7A of the Unemployment, Sickness and Invalidity Benefit Regulations;
- (c) the seventh day in any week in which an employer was liable to pay a person statutory sick pay at the weekly rate specified in section 157(1) of the 1992 Act; and
- (d) any additional days which would have been taken into account for sickness benefit and invalidity benefit purposes had the days referred to in the provisions in regulation 7A(4)(b) of the Unemployment, Sickness and Invalidity Benefit Regulations in force immediately before the appointed day been days in the week beginning with a Sunday which would be comprised in a fraction of a seven-day week.

Linking periods of interruption of employment and periods of incapacity for work

3. Where the last day of incapacity for work in a period of interruption of employment and the first day of incapacity for work in a period of incapacity for work are not separated by a period of more than 56 days, both these periods shall be treated as one period of incapacity for work.

Calculation of days in a period of incapacity for work

4. The days referred to in regulation 2 shall be taken into account for the purposes of sections 30A(4) (length of entitlement to short-term incapacity benefit), 30B(2) (period after which short-term incapacity benefit is payable at higher rate) and 30B(4)(period after which incapacity benefit is payable at long-term rate) of the 1992 Act(a)

Claims for sickness benefit or invalidity benefit made on or after the appointed day

5. Where a claim for sickness benefit or invalidity benefit is made on or after the appointed day in respect of a period of incapacity before the appointed day, the provisions in regulation 19 of, and paragraph 2 of Schedule 4 to, the Social Security (Claims and Payments) Regulations 1987 (time for claiming benefit)(b) in force on the appointed day shall be read as if the reference to incapacity benefit were a reference to sickness benefit or invalidity benefit.

Interchange of sickness benefit and invalidity benefit with claims for other benefits

6. Where a claim for sickness benefit, invalidity benefit, severe disablement allowance or maternity allowance is made in respect of a period before the appointed day, the provisions in regulation 9 of, and Part I of Schedule 1 to, the Social Security (Claims and Payments) Regulations 1987 (benefit claimed and other benefit which may be treated as if claimed in addition or in the alternative)(c) in force on the appointed day shall be read as if regulation 10(1), (2),(4) and (6) to (9) of the Social Security (Claims and Payments) Amendment (No.2) Regulations 1994 had not come into force.

Reproduced below is reg. 7 for the purposes of transitional provisions in reg. 6 of S.I. 2002/491. See page 3.4389.

Persons deemed to be incapable of work

7.—(1) A person who immediately before the appointed day is deemed to be incapable of work by virtue of regulation 3(3)(a)(ii) of the Unemployment, Sickness and Invalidity Benefit Regulations (persons deemed to be incapable of work)(d) shall continue to be so deemed on or after the appointed day notwithstanding that the work referred to in regulation 3(3)(a)(ii) is undertaken for 16 hours or more in the week in which it is performed.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall cease to apply—

- (a) when the period of incapacity for work comes to an end on or after the appointed day; or
- (b) when no work is undertaken for a period of not less than 57 continuous days in a period of incapacity for work.

Direct credit transfer

8. Where a person had an award of sickness benefit or invalidity benefit which was payable by automated credit transfer in accordance with regulation 21 of the Social Security (Claims and Payments) Regulations 1987(e), and that award has effect as an award of incapacity benefit under regulations 11 or 17, the award of incapacity benefit shall continue to be paid by automated credit transfer into the same bank or other account as the award of sickness benefit or invalidity

(a) Sections 30A and 30B were inserted into the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 by sections 1(1) and 2(1) respectively of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994.

(b) S.I. 1987/1968; the relevant amending instruments are S.I. 1988/522, 1989/1686, 1991/2741 and 2284, 1993/2113 and 1994/2943.

(c) Regulation 10 of the Social Security (Claims and Payments) Amendment (No. 2) Regulations 1994 (S.I. 1994/2943) amends regulation 9 and Part I of Schedule 1 to the Social Security (Claims and Payments) Regulations 1987 (S.I. 1987/1968).

(d) S.I. 1983/1598; regulation 3 was amended by S.I. 1987/688, 1992/585, 1994/559 and 1994/1101.

(e) S.I. 1987/1986; relevant amending instruments are S.I. 1992/247 and 1993/1113.

benefit; and for this purpose, any application made and any consent given in relation to the award of sickness benefit or invalidity benefit shall be treated as made or given in relation to the transitional award of incapacity benefit.

Disqualification

9. Where immediately before the appointed day a person is disqualified by virtue of regulations made under section 32 or section 59 of the 1992 Act (disqualifications for sickness benefit and invalidity benefit), the period of disqualification in respect of sickness benefit or invalidity benefit shall continue to have effect and that person shall likewise be disqualified for receiving incapacity benefit for the period of disqualification which remains outstanding at the appointed day.

Suspension of payment of transitional awards

10. Where the Secretary of State has made a direction to suspend payment of an award of sickness benefit or invalidity benefit in whole or in part, by virtue of regulations made under section 5(1)(n) of the Administration Act, that direction shall have effect as if it were made in respect of a transitional award of incapacity benefit and the payment of the transitional award of incapacity benefit shall likewise be suspended as if it were an award of sickness benefit or invalidity benefit.

PART III

PROVISIONS FOR THE TRANSITION TO INCAPACITY BENEFIT FROM SICKNESS BENEFIT

Transitional awards of short-term incapacity benefit

11.—(1) Where a person is entitled to sickness benefit immediately before the appointed day, that award of sickness benefit shall have effect on or after the appointed day as if it were an award of short-term incapacity benefit; and such an award shall be referred to in these Regulations as a transitional award of short-term incapacity benefit.

(2) A person shall cease to be entitled to a transitional award of short-term incapacity benefit under paragraph (1)—

- (a) when the period of incapacity for work comes to an end; or
- (b) after 364 days of entitlement to short-term incapacity benefit in a period of incapacity for work; or
- (c) if he was entitled to sickness benefit under section 102 of the 1992 Act (sickness benefit in respect of an industrial injury) immediately before the appointed day, when the incapacity for work is no longer a result of a personal injury of the kind mentioned in section 94(1) of the 1992 Act, whichever first occurs.

(3) Subject to the provisions in Part VI, a person's entitlement to a transitional award of short-term incapacity benefit shall be subject to him being incapable of work as determined in accordance with Part XIIA of the 1992 Act (incapacity for work(a)).

(4) ►Subject to paragraph(5) where◄ a person ceases by virtue of paragraph (2)(b) to be entitled to a transitional award of short-term incapacity benefit he is, subject to him being incapable of work as determined in accordance with Part XIIA of the 1992 Act (incapacity for work), entitled to long-term incapacity benefit in the same period of incapacity for work in which he is not over pensionable age.

Words in para(4) substituted by reg. 3(2)(a) of S.I. 1996/3207 with effect from 6.1.97.

(a) Part XIIA was inserted into the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 by section 5 of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994.

Regs. 11–13

►(5)Where paragraph (4) applies to a person whose transitional award of short-term incapacity benefit was in respect of a personal injury of a kind mentioned in section 94(1) of the 1992 Act, he shall be entitled to the long-term incapacity benefit only if his incapacity for work continues to result from that personal injury.◄

Para.(5) inserted by reg. 3(2)(b) of S.I. 1996/3207 with effect from 6.1.97.

Special provision for persons entitled to short-term incapacity benefit on termination of employment after a period of entitlement to disability working allowance

12.—(1) Where a person who was entitled to a transitional award of short-term incapacity benefit becomes entitled to the higher rate of short-term incapacity benefit by virtue of section 30C(5) of the 1992 Act(a) and the rate of that benefit is less than the rate at which the transitional award of incapacity benefit would have been payable had he not ceased to be entitled to that award, incapacity benefit shall be payable at the latter rate until—

- (a) in the case where the transitional award included an increase under regulation 15(1), the conditions in regulation 15(3) are no longer satisfied;
- (b) in any other case, the rate of short-term incapacity benefit under section 30B of the 1992 Act(b) together with any increase under section 86A of that Act (increase for adult dependants)(c) equals or exceeds that rate.

Special provisions for persons entitled to short-term incapacity benefit on termination of a period engaged in training for work

13.—(1) Where a person who was entitled to a transitional award of short-term incapacity benefit becomes entitled to the higher rate of short-term incapacity benefit by virtue of section 30C(6) of the 1992 Act(d) and the rate of that benefit is less than the rate at which the transitional award of incapacity benefit would have been payable had he not ceased to be entitled to that award, incapacity benefit shall be payable at the latter rate until—

- (a) in the case where the transitional award included an increase under regulation 15(1), the conditions in regulation 15(3) are no longer satisfied;
- (b) in any other case, the rate of short-term incapacity benefit under section 30B of the 1992 Act together with any increase under section 86A of that Act (increase for adult dependants) equals or exceeds that rate.

(2) Where a person—

- (a) at any time in a period of not more than 57 days immediately before the appointed day or at any time in a period of not more than 57 days immediately after the appointed day attends a training course of the type specified in regulation 7(1)(f) of the Unemployment, Sickness and Invalidity Benefit Regulations (days when a person is attending a training course not to be treated as days of incapacity for work)(e); and
- (b) had been entitled to sickness benefit in a period of interruption of employment ►occurring in whole or in part in a period◄ not exceeding 57 days prior to the first day of attendance on the training course; and

Words substituted in reg. 13(2)(b) by reg. 3(2) of S.I. 1995/987 with effect from 13.4.95.

(a) Section 30C(5) was inserted into the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 by Section 3(1) of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994.
(b) Section 30B was inserted into the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 by section 2(1) of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) 1994 Act.
(c) Section 86A was inserted into the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 by section 2(5) of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994
(d) Section 30C(6) was inserted into the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 by section 3(1) of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994.
(e) S.I. 1983/1598; regulation 7(1)(f) was amended by the Employment Act 1980 (c.38), Schedule 5 paragraphs 1 and 4 and S.I. 1991/387.

- (c) within a period not exceeding 57 days beginning on the day after the last day of attendance on the training course he becomes entitled to incapacity benefit by virtue of sections 30A, 40 or 41 of the 1992 Act(a); and
- (d) the rate of short-term incapacity benefit is less than the rate at which a transitional award of short-term incapacity benefit would have been payable had the period of entitlement to sickness benefit referred to in sub-paragraph (b) been running at the appointed day,

incapacity benefit shall be payable at the latter rate until, in the case where the transitional award would have included an increase under regulation 15(1), the conditions in regulation 15(3) are no longer satisfied, and in any other case, the rate of short-term incapacity benefit under section 30B of the 1992 Act together with any increase under section 86A of that Act equals or exceeds that rate.

(3) For the purpose of paragraph (2), days of attendance on a training course referred to in that paragraph shall be treated as days of incapacity for work.

Contribution conditions of short-term incapacity benefit in respect of an industrial injury

14.—(1) Where a person was entitled to sickness benefit under section 102 of the 1992 Act (sickness benefit in respect of industrial injury) immediately before the appointed day, the contribution conditions as specified in Schedule 3, Part I, paragraph 2 of the 1992 Act shall be taken to be satisfied—

- (a) for the purposes of entitlement to a transitional award of the higher rate of short-term incapacity benefit in respect of that industrial injury;
- (b) for the purposes of entitlement to the lower or higher rate of short-term incapacity benefit where—
 - (i) he ceased to be entitled to a transitional award as a consequence of regulation 11(2)(c); and
 - (ii) no more than 57 days after he ceased to be so entitled, he became incapable of work as a result of the personal injury in respect of which the transitional award referred to in head (i) above was payable;
- (c) for the purposes of entitlement to short-term incapacity benefit by virtue of section 30C(5) or 30C(6) of the 1992 Act(b) in a case where he becomes incapable for work as a result of the personal injury in respect of which a transitional award of incapacity benefit was made.

(2) Where a person is entitled to incapacity benefit by virtue of paragraph (1)(b), the rate at which incapacity benefit is payable shall be the rate at which a transitional award of short-term incapacity benefit would have been payable had he been entitled to a transitional award of short-term incapacity benefit; and these Regulations shall apply as if the award of incapacity benefit were a transitional award of short-term incapacity benefit.

Increase of rate of a transitional award of short-term incapacity benefit for adult dependants

15.—(1) Subject to paragraph (7), where at any time during a period of 56 days immediately before the appointed day—

- (a) an increase of sickness benefit under Part IV of the 1992 Act was payable to a person for a spouse who was an adult dependant; and

(a) Section 30A was inserted into the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 by section 1(1) of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994. Sections 40 and 41 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 were amended by section 11 of Schedule 1, paragraphs 9 and 10 to, the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994.

(b) Section 30C was inserted into the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 by section 3(1) of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994.

(b) on the appointed day he becomes entitled to a transitional award of short-term incapacity benefit under regulation 11, an amount equal to that increase shall be payable.

(2) Where, as a consequence of a review under section 150 of the Administration Act in the tax year, 1994-1995, the amounts specified in column (3) of paragraph 1A of Part IV of Schedule 4 to the 1992 Act(a) are increased the increase payable under paragraph (1) shall likewise be increased by an equal amount; and thereafter an increase payable under paragraph (1) shall be an amount equal to the appropriate amount specified in column (3) of paragraph 1A of Part IV of Schedule 4 to the 1992 Act.

(3) Subject to the following provisions, an increase under paragraph (1) shall continue to be payable provided that—

- (a) the spouse is residing with the beneficiary; or
- (b) the beneficiary is contributing to the maintenance of his spouse at the weekly rate equal to or greater than the rate of the increase.

(4) The provisions in Part I (general) and Part III (adults), save for regulation 9(1)(a) and (b) of that Part, of the Increases for Dependants Regulations shall apply to an increase under paragraph (1) as they apply to an increase made by virtue of section 86A of that Act(b).

(5) A person shall cease to be entitled to an increase under paragraph(1) when no increase of sickness benefit or short-term incapacity benefit has been paid or payable for a period of at least 57 continuous days.

(6) In calculating the period referred to in paragraph (5) the days of entitlement to disability working allowance or the days of attendance on a training course of a type referred to in section 30C(6) of the 1992 Act(c) or regulation 13(2) shall not be taken into account.

(7) Where a person is entitled to an increase under paragraph (1) and section 30B(4) of the 1992 Act applies to him the amount of the increase shall be equal to the rate specified in Schedule 4, Part IV, paragraph 2, column (3) of the 1992 Act.

(8) In a case where paragraph (7) applied, the increase shall continue to be payable if, when the transitional award of short-term incapacity benefit is terminated, he immediately becomes entitled to long-term incapacity benefit under section 30A(5) of that Act and he continues to satisfy the conditions in section 30B(4)(a) and (b); and this regulation shall continue to apply to that increase.

(9) Where a person becomes entitled to an increase under paragraph (1), he shall not be entitled to an adult dependency increase to which he would, but for this provision, be entitled under the Increases for Dependants Regulations.

Transitional provision for the treatment of earnings in respect of increases of short-term incapacity benefit for dependants

16. Where—

- (a) on or after the appointed day no increase of short-term incapacity benefit is payable for—
 - (i) an adult dependant as a consequence of regulation 5 (attribution of earnings) or regulation 10 (earnings rules for increases for adult dependants) of the Increases for Dependants Regulations; or
 - (ii) a child dependant as a consequence of section 8)(3) and (4) of the 1992 Act and regulation 5 of the Increases for Dependants Regulations; and

(a) Paragraph 1A of Part IV of Schedule 4 was inserted into the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 by section 2(6) of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994.

(b) Section 86A was inserted into the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 by section 2(5) of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994.

(c) Section 30C(6) was inserted into the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 by section 3(1) of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994.

- (b) the earnings which caused there to be no payment of an increase in paragraph (a) had already resulted in no payment of an increase before the appointed day, a payment of an increase shall be made as if the provisions in the 1992 Act in force immediately before the appointed date continued to have effect in respect of those earnings and the 1994 Act had not been enacted and regulations 5 and 10 of the Increases for Dependents Regulations had not come into force.

PART IV

PROVISIONS FOR THE TRANSITION TO INCAPACITY BENEFIT FROM INVALIDITY BENEFIT

Transitional awards of long-term incapacity benefit

17.—(1) Where a person is entitled to invalidity benefit immediately before the appointed day, that award of invalidity benefit shall have effect on or after the appointed day as if it were an award of long-term incapacity benefit; and such an award shall be referred to in these Regulations as a transitional award of long-term incapacity benefit.

(2) Subject to the provisions in Part VI, a person's entitlement to a transitional award of long-term incapacity benefit shall be subject to him being incapable of work as determined in accordance with Part XIIA of the 1992 Act (incapacity for work)(a).

(3) A person who reaches pensionable age before the appointed day and who is entitled to a transitional award of long-term incapacity benefit under paragraph (1) shall continue to be entitled to that award on any day that he is incapable of work as determined in accordance with Part XIIA of the 1992 Act for as long as he is not more than 5 years over pensionable age ¹or until the first day on which he is entitled to retirement pension, whichever date is the earlier.◀

¹Words inserted into para. (3) by reg. 3(3) of S.I. 1996/3207 with effect from 6.1.97.

(4) Where a person reaches pensionable age on or after the appointed day, entitlement to a transitional award of long-term incapacity benefit shall terminate on his attaining pensionable age.

²Reg. 17A inserted by reg. 3(3) of S.I. 1995/987 with effect from 13.4.95.

▶²Awards of incapacity benefit in cases where periods of interruption of employment and periods of incapacity for work link

17A. Where a person had been entitled to invalidity benefit in a period of interruption of employment occurring in whole or in part in a period not exceeding 57 days immediately before the appointed day and becomes entitled to an award of incapacity benefit on the basis that a day of incapacity for work on or after the appointed day forms part of a period of incapacity for work beginning before the appointed day, that award shall have effect as if it were an award of long-term incapacity benefit.◀

³Reg. 17B inserted by reg. 3(2) of S.I. 1998/2231 as from 5.10.98.

▶³Calculating periods of incapacity for work for welfare to work beneficiaries in long-term incapacity benefit transitional cases

17B. For the purposes of transitional cases, where a person, to whom regulation 17(1) (transitional awards of long-term incapacity benefit) or regulation 17A (awards of incapacity benefit in cases where periods of interruption of employment and periods of incapacity for work link) applies, has been determined in accordance with regulation 13A of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) (General) Regulations 1995 to have become a welfare to work beneficiary, section 30C(1)(c) of the 1992 Act (any two periods of incapacity for work not separated by a period of more than 8 weeks shall be treated as one period of incapacity for work) shall have effect as if for the reference to 8 weeks there were substituted a reference to ▶⁴104 weeks◀.◀

⁴Words in reg. 17B substituted by reg. 11(2) of S.I. 2006/2378 as from 1.10.06.

(a) Part XIIA was inserted into the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 by section 5 of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994.

Rate of long-term incapacity benefit in transitional cases

18.—(1) Subject to paragraph (7), in transitional cases, the weekly rate of long-term incapacity benefit shall consist of—

- (a) a basic rate of an amount equal to the rate of long-term incapacity benefit specified in Schedule 4, Part I, paragraph 2A, of the 1992 Act^(a);
- (b) where an additional pension was paid or payable with invalidity benefit immediately before the appointed day, an additional rate of an amount equal to the rate paid or payable as an additional pension with invalidity benefit immediately before the appointed day; and that amount shall be referred to as the additional rate;
- (c) where an invalidity allowance was payable ¹pursuant to subsection (3) of section 34 of the 1992 Act immediately before the appointed day, an amount equal to the appropriate rate specified in paragraph (2); and that amount shall be referred to as a transitional invalidity allowance.

¹Words inserted into sub-para 1(c) & (7) and deleted from sub-para. (4) by reg. 3(4)(a)-(c) of S.I. 1996/3207 with effect from 6.1.97.

(2) The appropriate rate referred to in paragraph (1)(c) is—

- (a) where the higher rate of invalidity allowance was payable immediately before the appointed day, ²£21.25*[◀];
- (b) where the middle rate of invalidity allowance was payable immediately before the appointed day, ²£13.70*[◀];
- (c) where the lower rate of invalidity allowance was payable immediately before the appointed day, ²£6.85*[◀].

²Amounts in reg. 18(2) substituted by art. 12 of S.I. 2014/516 as from 10.4.14.

For cases involving 'long-term incapacity benefit' in reg. 18(2), see reg. 12(2) of S.I. 2014/516 for when to reduce amounts in certain cases.*

(3) The transitional invalidity allowance shall be up-rated in accordance with the provisions of Part X of the Administration Act (review and alteration) as if that allowance were a sum specified in section 150(1)(a)(i), (2)(a) and (3)(a) of that Act.

(4) In a transitional case, where for any period a person is entitled to an award of long-term incapacity benefit which includes the additional rate and a transitional invalidity allowance, for that period the relevant amount shall be deducted from the appropriate weekly rate of the transitional invalidity allowance ¹◀.

(5) In paragraph (4) “the relevant amount” means an amount equal to the additional rate reduced by the amount of any reduction in the weekly rate of incapacity benefit made by virtue of regulation 22.

(6) Where the rate of long-term incapacity benefit includes a transitional invalidity allowance no increase shall become payable by virtue of regulations made under section 30B(7) of the 1992 Act^(b).

(7) In a transitional case where a person attained pensionable age before the appointed day and is not more than 5 years over that age, he shall continue to be entitled to long-term incapacity benefit until he reaches 5 years over pensionable age ¹or until the first day on which he is entitled to retirement pension, whichever date is the earlier,[◀] payable at the rate at which the basic pension referred to in section 44(4) of the 1992 Act^(c) is payable.

(8) In determining the rate of long-term incapacity benefit in a transitional case where paragraph (7) applies, any increase of the following descriptions shall be disregarded—

(a) Para. 2A in Part I of Sch. 4 was inserted into Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 by s. 2(2) of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994.
(b) S. 30B(7) was inserted into the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 by s. 2(1) of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994.
(c) S. 44(4) of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 was amended by s. 11 of, and Sch. 1, para. 11 to, the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994.

- (a) if he is also entitled to a transitional invalidity allowance under paragraph (1)(c), and increase under section 47(1) or 50(2) of the 1992 Act^(a);
- (b) any increase (for married women) under section 53(2) of, or (for deferred retirement) under Schedule 5 to, the 1992 Act;
- (c) any increase (for dependants) under section 80, 83 or 85 of the 1992 Act; and
- (d) any increase (for Category A or Category B pensions) under section 150 of the Administration Act (annual up-rating) of the sums mentioned in subsection (1)(e) of that section.

¹Reg. 18(9) substituted by reg. 3(4) of S.I. 1995/987 with effect from 13.4.95.

►¹(9) For the purposes of Part IV a “transitional case” means a case where a person is entitled to an award of long-term incapacity benefit by virtue of regulation 17 or 17A.◄

Special provisions for persons entitled to long-term incapacity benefit on termination of a period of entitlement to disability working allowance

19.—(1) Where a person who was entitled to a transitional award of long-term incapacity benefit becomes entitled to incapacity benefit by virtue of section 30C(5) of the 1992 Act^(b) and the rate of that benefit is less than the rate at which the transitional award of long-term incapacity benefit would have been payable had he not ceased to be entitled to that award, incapacity benefit shall be payable at the latter rate until—

- (a) in the case where the transitional award included an increase under regulation 24(1), the conditions in regulation 24(3) or any of the provisions referred to in regulation 25(2) are no longer satisfied;
- (b) in any other case, the rate of long-term incapacity benefit under section 30B of the 1992 Act^(c) together with any increase under section 86A of that Act (increase for adult dependants)^(d) equals or exceeds that rate.

(2) Where a person—

- (a) who was entitled to disability working allowance by virtue of section 129 of the 1992 Act before the appointed day or to disability working allowance at any time in a period of not more than 56 days beginning on or after the appointed day, becomes entitled to incapacity benefit; and
- (b) would have become entitled to invalidity benefit by virtue of section 33(7) or section 42 of the 1992 Act had the 1994 Act not come into force; and
- (c) the rate of incapacity benefit is less than the rate at which a transitional award of long-term incapacity benefit would have been payable had the days of entitlement to invalidity benefit in the period of interruption of employment which arose immediately before the period of entitlement to disability working allowance been days of entitlement to invalidity benefit in a period of interruption of employment running at the appointed day,

incapacity benefit shall be payable at the latter rate until, in the case where the transitional award would have included an increase under regulation 24(1), the conditions in regulation 24(3) or in any of the provisions referred to in regulation 25(2) are no longer satisfied, and in any other case, the rate of long-term incapacity benefit under section 30B of the 1992 Act together with any increase

(a) S. 47 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 was amended by s. 11 of, and para. 13 of Sch. 1 to, the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994.
 (b) S. 30C(5) was inserted into the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 by s. 3(1) of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2), the days of entitlement to disability working allowance referred to in that paragraph shall be treated as days of incapacity for work.

Special provisions for persons entitled to long-term incapacity benefit on termination of a period engaged in training for work

20.—(1) Where a person who was entitled to a transitional award of long-term incapacity benefit becomes entitled to long-term incapacity benefit by virtue of section 30C(6) of the 1992 Act(a) and the rate of that benefit is less than the rate at which the transitional award of long-term incapacity benefit would have been payable had he not ceased to be entitled to that award, incapacity benefit shall be payable at the latter rate until—

- (a) in the case where the transitional award included an increase under regulation 24(1), the conditions in regulation 24(3) or any of the provisions referred to in regulation 25(2) are no longer satisfied;
- (b) in any other case, the rate of long-term incapacity benefit under section 30B of the 1992 Act(b) together with any increase under section 86A of that Act (increase for adult dependants)(c) equals or exceeds that rate.

(2) Where a person—

- (a) at any time in a period of not more than 57 days immediately before the appointed day or at any time in a period of not more than 57 days immediately after the appointed day attends a training course of the type specified in regulation 7(1)(f) of the Unemployment, Sickness and Invalidity Benefit Regulations (days when a person is attending a training course not to be treated as days of incapacity for work)(d); and
- (b) had been entitled to invalidity benefit in a period of interruption of employment ►occurring in whole or in part in a period◄ not exceeding 57 days prior to the first day of attendance on the training course; and
- (c) within a period not exceeding 57 days beginning on the day after the last day of attendance on the training course becomes entitled to incapacity benefit by virtue of sections 30A, 40 or 41 of the 1992 Act(e); and
- (d) the rate of incapacity benefit is less than the rate at which a transitional award of long-term incapacity benefit would have been payable had the period of entitlement to invalidity benefit referred to in sub-paragraph (b) been running at the appointed day,

Words in reg. 20(2)(b) substituted by reg. 3(5) of S.I. 1995/987 with effect from 13.4.95.

incapacity benefit shall be payable at the latter rate until, in the case where the transitional award would have included an increase under regulation 24(1), the conditions in regulation 24(3) or in any of the provisions referred to in regulation 25(2) are no longer satisfied, and in any other case, the rate of incapacity benefit under section 30B of the 1992 Act together with any increase under section 86A of that Act equals or exceeds that rate.

(3) For the purpose of paragraph (2), the days referred to as days of attendance

(a) Section 30C(6) was inserted into the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 by section 3(1) of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994.

(b) Section 30B was inserted into the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 by section 2(1) of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994.

(c) Section 86A was inserted into the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 by section 2(5) of the Social (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994.

(d) S.I. 1983/1598; regulation 7(1)(f) was amended by the Employment Act 1989 (c.38), Schedule 5 paragraphs 1 and 4 and S.I. 1991/387.

(e) Section 30A was inserted into the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 by section 1(1) of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994, Sections 40 and 41 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 was amended by section 11 of,

on a training course in that paragraph shall be treated as days of incapacity for work.

Special provisions for persons entitled to long-term incapacity benefit in respect of an industrial injury

21.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), a person entitled to a transitional award of long-term incapacity benefit in respect of a personal injury of a kind mentioned in section 94(1) of the 1992 Act shall cease to be so entitled when the incapacity for work is no longer as a result of that injury.

(2) Where a person's entitlement to a transitional award of long-term incapacity benefit ceases as a consequence of paragraph (1) and no more than 57 days after entitlement to that award ceases he becomes incapable for work as a result of the same personal injury in respect of which the transitional award of long-term incapacity benefit was payable, he shall be entitled to benefit at the rate at which the transitional award of long-term incapacity benefit would have been payable had he not ceased to be so entitled; and these Regulations shall apply as if the award of incapacity benefit were a transitional award of long-term incapacity benefit.

Effect of entitlement to guaranteed minimum pensions on payment of the additional rate element in a transitional case of long-term incapacity benefit

22.—(1) Where a person who is a transitional case is entitled to both—

- (a) an award of long-term incapacity benefit which includes the additional rate; and
- (b) to one or more guaranteed minimum pensions, and had been entitled to an invalidity pension under section 41 of the 1992 Act immediately before the appointed day, the weekly rate of the award of long-term incapacity benefit shall be reduced by an amount equal—
 - (i) to the additional rate; or
 - (ii) to the weekly rate of the pension mentioned in paragraph (b) or if there is more than one such ►guaranteed minimum pension◄, their aggregate weekly rates, whichever is less.

(2) Where a person is entitled to an award of long-term incapacity benefit which includes the additional rate and the transitional invalidity allowance, the weekly rate of that award shall be reduced by the relevant amount being deducted from the weekly rate of the transitional invalidity allowance and he shall be entitled to that allowance only if there is a balance after the deduction and, if there is such a balance, at a weekly rate equal to it.

(3) Where for any period a person is entitled to—

- (a) an award of long-term incapacity benefit which does not include the additional rate; and
- (b) one or more guaranteed minimum pensions, the weekly rate of the award of long-term incapacity benefit shall be reduced by deducting the weekly rate or aggregate weekly rates of the guaranteed minimum pension or pensions from the weekly rate of the transitional invalidity allowance and a person shall be entitled to that allowance only if there is a balance after deduction and, if there is a balance, at a weekly rate equal to it.

(4) Where for any period a person is entitled to—

- (a) an award of long-term incapacity benefit which includes the additional rate but does not include the transitional invalidity allowance; and
- (b) one or more guaranteed minimum pensions; and
- (c) an increase of unemployability supplement under section 106 and paragraph 3 of Schedule 7 to the 1992 Act, the relevant amount shall be deducted from the amount of the increase of unemployability supplement specified in Schedule 4, Part V, paragraph 6 to the 1992 Act, and a person shall be entitled to an increase only if there is a balance after that deduction and, if there is a balance, only an amount equal to it.

Words in reg. 22(1)(b)(ii) substituted by reg. 3(6) of S.I. 1995/987 with effect from 13.4.95.

- (5) Where for any period a person who is a transitional case is entitled to—
- (a) an award of long-term incapacity benefit which does not include the additional rate; and
 - (b) one or more guaranteed minimum pensions; and
 - (c) an increase of unemployability supplement under section 106 and paragraph 3 of Schedule 7 to the 1992 Act, the increase of the unemployability supplement shall be reduced by the weekly rate or aggregate weekly rates of the guaranteed minimum pension or pensions and a person shall be entitled to an increase only if there is a balance after that deduction and, if there is a balance, only an amount equal to it.

(6) In this regulation “the relevant amount” means an amount equal to the weekly rate or aggregate weekly rates of the guaranteed minimum pension or pensions and the additional rate reduced by—

- (a) the additional rate; or
- (b) the weekly rate or aggregate weekly rates of the guaranteed minimum pension, whichever is the less.

Increase of Category A retirement pension for incapacity

23. ¹—(1) Where a person has been entitled to invalidity allowance or transitional invalidity allowance at any time during a period of 57 days before attaining pensionable age, sections 47 and 61 of the 1992 Act shall continue to have effect as though section 11 of, and paragraph 13 of Schedule 1 to, the 1994 Act had not come into force and as though any reference to invalidity allowance in section 47 were a reference to transitional invalidity allowance or invalidity allowance.

¹Reg. 23 renumbered as 23(1) and sub-para. (2) added by reg. 3(3) of S.I. 1998/2231 as from 5.10.98.

¹(2) In the case of a person who is a welfare to work beneficiary in accordance with regulation 13A of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) (General) Regulations 1995, the reference in paragraph (1) to a period of 57 days shall be treated as a reference to a period of ²104 weeks.

Increase of rate of long-term incapacity benefit for dependants in transitional cases

24.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (3), (4) and (5) and regulation 25, in a transitional case where at any time during a period of 56 days immediately before the appointed day—

- (a) an increase in the rate of invalidity benefit was paid by way of a concessionary payment to compensate for non-payment of an increase for a spouse who was an adult dependant under Part IV of the 1992 Act; or
- (b) an increase in the rate of invalidity benefit was payable for a spouse who was an adult dependant under Part IV of the 1992 Act, an amount equal to that increase shall be payable.

(2) Where, as a consequence of a review under section 150 of the Administration Act in the tax year 1994-1995, the amounts specified in column (3) of paragraph 2 of Part IV of Schedule 4 to the 1992 Act (a) are increased, the increase payable under paragraph (1) shall likewise be increased by an equal amount; and thereafter an increase payable under paragraph (1) shall be an amount equal to the appropriate amount specified in column (3) of paragraph 2 of Part IV of Schedule 4 to the 1992 Act.

(3) Except as provided for in regulation 25, an increase under paragraph (1) shall continue to be payable where—

- (a) the spouse is residing with the beneficiary; or
- (b) the beneficiary is contributing to the maintenance of his spouse at the weekly rate equal to or greater than the rate of the increase.

(a) Paragraph 2 of Part IV of Schedule 4 to the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 was amended by section 2(6) of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994.

(4) Subject to regulations 25 and 26 and paragraph (5), the provisions in Part I (general) and Part III (adults), save for regulation 9(1)(a) and (b) of that Part, of the Increases for Dependants Regulations shall apply to the increase as if it were an increase under section 86A of the 1992 Act(a).

(5) Where an increase under paragraph (1) is paid or payable to a person over pensionable age, the provisions in regulation 13 of the Increases for Dependants Regulations (increase of short-term incapacity benefit for persons over pension age) shall apply to the increase of long-term incapacity benefit as if that increase were an increase of short-term incapacity benefit.

(6) Where a person becomes entitled to an increase under paragraph (1), he shall not be entitled to an adult dependence increase to which he would, but for this provision, be entitled under the Increases for Dependants Regulations.

(7) ¹Except in a case where paragraph (7A) applies, a person² shall cease to be entitled to an increase under paragraph (1) when either—

- (a) no invalidity benefit or long-term incapacity benefit has been paid for at least 57 continuous days;
- (b) no increase of invalidity benefit or long-term incapacity benefit is paid or payable for at least 57 continuous days in a period of incapacity for work.

²(7A) The exception referred to in paragraph (7) applies only if the person—

- (a) has been determined to be a welfare to work beneficiary in accordance with regulation 13A of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) (General) Regulations 1995; and
- (b) is not entitled to incapacity benefit on any day in a period falling within a linking term within the meaning of regulation 13A of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) (General) Regulations 1995.³

(8) In calculating the period referred to in paragraph (7), the days of entitlement to disability working allowance or the days of attendance on a training course of a type referred to in section 30C(6) of the 1992 Act(b) and regulation 19(2) shall not be taken into account.

Further provisions for dependants in respect of the application of old saving provisions 25.—(1) In relation to transitional cases where the rate of incapacity benefit falls to be calculated by reference to the rate of dependency allowance paid or payable before the appointed day, the old saving provisions referred to in paragraph (2) shall continue to have effect subject to the following provisions of this regulation.

(2) The old saving provisions referred to in paragraph (1) are—

Transitional provision for the treatment of earnings in respect of increases of long-term incapacity benefit for dependants

26. Where—

- (a) on or after the appointed day—
 - (i) no increase or a reduced amount of the rate of increase of long-term incapacity benefit is payable for an adult dependant as a consequence of regulation 5 (attribution of earnings) or regulation 10 (earnings rules for increases for adult dependants) of the Increases for Dependants Regulations; or
 - (ii) no increase of long-term incapacity benefit is payable for a child dependant as a consequence of section 80(3) and (4) of the 1992 Act and regulation 5 (attribution of earnings) of the Increases for Dependants Regulations; and

(a) S.I. 1989/1690.

(b) S.I. 1992/3041.

- (b) in a case where the increase for an adult dependant is reduced, the amount of reduction would have been less had the 1994 Act and regulations 5 and 10 of the Increases for Dependants Regulations not come into force; and
- (c) the earnings which caused there to be no payment of an increase or a reduction of an increase in paragraph (a) had already resulted in no payment of or a reduced payment of an increase before the appointed day, a payment of an increase shall be made as if the provisions in the 1992 Act in force immediately before the appointed day continued to have effect in respect of those earnings and the 1994 Act had not been enacted and regulations 5 and 10 of the Increases for Dependants Regulations had not come into force.

PART V

MISCELLANEOUS TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Transition from a six day benefit to a seven day benefit

27. Where a payment of an award of sickness benefit, invalidity benefit or severe disablement allowance would have been made in respect of a six day period ending on—

- (i) 13 April 1995, had the 1994 Act not come into force, the rate of the transitional award of short-term or long-term incapacity benefit or severe disablement allowance in respect of that day shall be 1/6th of the appropriate weekly rate of that benefit or allowance in force on the appointed day;
- (ii) 14 April 1995, had the 1994 Act not come into force, the rate of the transitional award of short-term or long-term incapacity benefit or severe disablement allowance in respect of 13 April and 14 April 1995 shall, in respect of each such day, be 1/6th of the appropriate weekly rate of that benefit or allowance in force on the appointed day.

Transitional provisions for an increase of severe disablement allowance for adult dependants.

28.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), where an increase of severe disablement allowance is payable for an adult dependant at any time during a period of 56 days immediately before the appointed day by virtue of section 90 of the 1992 Act, that increase shall continue to be payable and the provisions in ►regulation 24(2) to (7A)◀ shall apply to that increase as of that increase were an increase of long-term incapacity benefit in a transitional case.

(2) Where a person becomes entitled to severe disablement allowance by virtue of—

- (a) section 68(10) of the 1992 Act (treating days of entitlement to disability working allowance as having been days on which a person was both incapable for work and disabled); or
- (b) section 68(10A) of the 1992 Act (treating days engaged in training as having been days on which a person was both incapable for work and disabled)(a).

and an increase had been payable under section 90 of the 1992 Act or paragraph (1) when he was last entitled to that allowance, he shall be entitled to an amount equal to the amount of an increase payable under paragraph (1) if, by reason only of the fact that there is no child for whom he is entitled to an increase under section 80 of the 1992 Act, he would not be entitled to an increase for an adult dependant under the Increases for Dependants Regulations; and the amount payable shall be treated as if it were an increase under paragraph (1).

(a) Section 68(10A) was inserted into the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 by section 9(2) of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994.

► Transitional provision for entitlement to severe disablement allowance where a person has been engaged in training for work

28A. For the purposes of entitlement to severe disablement allowance where a person—

- (a) at any time in a period of not more than 57 days immediately before the appointed day attends a training course of the type specified in regulation 7(1)(f) of the Social Security (Unemployment, Sickness and Invalidity Benefit) Regulations 1983(a); and
- (b) was entitled to severe disablement allowance in a period of interruption of employment within a period not exceeding 57 days prior to the first day of attendance on the training course; and
- (c) becomes incapable of work within a period of 57 days after the last day of attendance on a training course, he shall be treated as incapable of work and disabled for the days falling within the periods referred to in paragraphs(a),(b) and (c) notwithstanding that he may have been capable of work on any of those days. ◀

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

This Instrument contains the first regulations made under section 4 and section 7 of the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994 (c. 18) (“the 1994 Act”).

It is made before the end of the period of six months beginning with the coming into force of sections 4 and 7 of the 1994 Act. The regulations contained in this Instrument are accordingly exempt by section 173(5)(a) of the Social Security Administration Act 1992 (c.5), as amended by section 11(1) of, and paragraph 51 of Schedule 1 to the 1994 Act, from reference to the Social Security Advisory Committee and have not been so referred.

Part I of the Regulations relates to the citation, commencement and interpretation.

Part II contains the provisions common to the transition to incapacity benefit from sickness benefit and invalidity benefit. Regulations 2 to 4 enable days before 13 April 1995 to be taken into account for the purposes of incapacity benefit and to enable days of incapacity for work after the 13 April 1995 to form part of a period of incapacity for work beginning before the 13 April 1995. Regulations 5, 6 and 8 make provision for late claims for sickness benefit and invalidity benefit, interchange with other benefits and payments of transitional awards. Regulation 7 enables persons who were deemed to be incapable of work before 13 April 1995 to continue to be so deemed after 13 April 1995. Regulations 9 and 10 make provisions for the disqualification and suspension of payment of incapacity benefit.

Part III makes provision for the transition to incapacity benefit from sickness benefit. Regulation 11 provides for awards of sickness benefit to be treated as awards of short-term incapacity benefit. Regulations 12 and 13 enable awards of incapacity benefit to be paid at the transitional rate on termination of employment after a period of entitlement to disability working allowance or a period engaged in training for work in certain circumstances. Regulation 14 provides that where a person was entitled to sickness benefit in respect of an industrial injury, the contribution conditions shall be taken to be satisfied for the purpose of entitlement to short-term incapacity benefit. Regulation 15 provides for an increase in the rate of a transitional award of short-term incapacity benefit for dependants. Regulation 16 makes provision in respect of the treatment of earnings at the changeover period.

Part IV contains the provisions for the transition to incapacity benefit from invalidity benefit. Regulation 17 provides that awards from invalidity benefit shall be treated as awards of long-term incapacity benefit. Regulation 18 provides the rate at which long-term incapacity benefit shall be payable in transitional cases. Regulations 19 and 20 enable an award of incapacity benefit to be paid at the transitional rate on termination of a period of entitlement to disability working allowance or on termination of a period engaged in training for work in certain circumstances. Regulation 21 enables the transitional rate of long-term incapacity benefit to be paid where a person is incapacitated in respect of an industrial injury. Regulation 22 provides for the adjustment of benefit where a guaranteed minimum pension is in payment. Regulation 23 makes transitional provision for an increase of a Category A retirement pension for incapacity. Regulations 24 and 25 provide for the increase in the rate of long-term incapacity benefit in respect of dependants in transitional cases. Regulation 26 makes provision for the treatment of earnings at the changeover period.

Part V contains miscellaneous transitional provisions in respect of the rate of payment of incapacity benefit in the week that the benefit is introduced and for an increase of severe disablement allowance for dependants (regulations 27 and 28).

Part VI contains provisions for the transition to the new tests of incapacity for work. Regulations 29 and 30 provide for the new tests of incapacity for work to apply to existing cases where incapacity is in question. Regulation 31 makes provisions to apply the new tests to existing cases and provides for categories of persons to be exempt from the new all work test. Regulation 32 enables days of incapacity arising before the 13 April 1995 to be taken into account for the purposes of the new medical tests.

These Regulations do not impose a charge on business.
