1995 No. 365

The National Health Service Superannuation
Scheme (Scotland) Regulations 1995

PART H

DEPENDENT CHILD ALLOWANCE

Increase of child allowance when child not dependent on surviving parent or spouse of a parent

H7.—(1) If a member dies leaving a dependent child and there is a surviving parent (or spouse of a parent) and at least one dependent child who is not being maintained by the surviving parent (or spouse of a parent), the Secretary of State may increase the amount of the child allowance that would otherwise be payable under these Regulations.

(2) The allowance may, at the Secretary of State's discretion, be increased up to an amount equal to the amount that would have been payable if there were no surviving parent (or spouse of a parent).
