(7) If an appellant considers that his appeal has not been or is not to be heard within a reasonable period of lodging it, he may request the Committee to hear the appeal within such period as he may specify, being a period not less than 70 days from the date of his request, and if the Committee declines to hear the appeal within such a period—

- (a) it shall state its reasons for so declining; and
- (b) the secretary shall notify both parties accordingly.

(3) The Committee may at its discretion—

(4) The appellant may, within 14 days from notification of a decision to dismiss the appeal under paragraph (3) or such longer period as the Committee may in special circumstances allow, represent in writing to the Committee that there was reasonable excuse for the failure which led to the dismissal and the Committee may, if satisfied that there was such excuse, recall the said decision and appoint a further date, time and place for the hearing of the appeal, of which it shall give the parties not less than 7 days' notice.

(5) Either party to an appeal may, not later than 21 days before the date set for the hearing, furnish to the other party to the appeal a list of any lands and heritages, and hereditaments in England and Wales, on which he proposes to found by way of comparison at the hearing, and may at the same time as he furnishes that list make a written request to the other party to provide him with a list of lands and heritages and hereditaments on which that other party proposes to found by way of comparison at the hearing; and any party so requested shall furnish such a list not later than 14 days before the date fixed for the hearing.

(6) At the hearing, the Committee shall not allow a party to found by way of comparison on lands and heritages or hereditaments not included in a list provided by that party under paragraph (5) without the consent of the other party to the hearing, but may, if the party seeking to found on such lands and heritages or hereditaments shows cause why they were not so included, allow him to found on them, subject to such conditions as the Committee thinks fit.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations govern the procedure to be followed with respect to appeals and complaints made under the Valuation Acts to valuation appeal committees established under section 4 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1975, and include procedures relating to applications for referral of such appeals and complaints by those committees to the Lands Tribunal for Scotland. They also deal with the procedural aspects of appeals against refusals by valuation appeal committees to make such referrals.

The Regulations revoke the Valuation Appeal Committee Procedure (Scotland) Regulations 1984, except insofar as they are to continue to apply to appeals which were lodged before 1st April 1995.
