Making of elections for the issue of contracting-out certificates

2.—(1) Subject to the provisions of regulation 10, an election with a view to the issue of a contracting-out certificate—

(a) may only be made—

- (i) after notices to make such an election have been given by the employer in accordance with regulation 3; and
- (ii) within the period after the expiry of those notices which is specified in regulation 5; and

(b) shall be made in writing to the Secretary of State and shall include the particulars specified in regulation 6.

[^{F21}(2) In making or abstaining from making an election as to the inclusion of an employment in a contracting-out certificate, an employer may discriminate between different earners (otherwise than on the ground of the nature of their employment) in any case where such discrimination would be lawful apart from section 11(3) of the 1993 Act.]

Notices by employers of intended election.

3.—(1) A notice of intention to make an election with a view to the issue of a contracting-out certificate shall be given by the employer, in the manner specified in paragraph (3), to—

- (a) the earners in respect of whose employment the election is proposed to be made, and those (if any) in that employment in relation to whom the employer is not electing that the employment shall be treated as contracted-out;
 - (b) the trustees and administrator of the scheme to which the election is to relate;
 - (c) where there is a policy of insurance or annuity contract as a means of securing ^{F22} ... guaranteed minimum pensions or any benefits arising in respect of section 9(2B) rights to be payable under the scheme, the insurance company or Friendly Society concerned; and
 - (d) all independent trade unions recognised in relation to the earners concerned.
- (2) Notices given under this regulation shall be in writing and shall—
- (a) specify the scheme and the employments concerned and, if the election is not intended to be in relation to all earners in those employments, the categories or descriptions of the earners to be so affected;
 - (b) specify the date from which it is intended that the contracting-out certificate shall have effect;
 - ^{F23}(c)
 - (d) specify the date of expiry of the notice in accordance with paragraphs (4) and (5);
 - (e) specify the name and business address of the person to whom representations may be made with respect to the matters included in the notice;
 - (f) contain a statement that—
 - (i) such representations may also be made to the Secretary of State,
 - (ii) the Secretary of State may defer his determination to enable the election to be further considered in the light of representations made by or on behalf of the persons to whom the notice is given,
 - (iii) the Secretary of State has power to refuse to give effect to the election if he is not satisfied that the employer has undertaken consultations about the matters covered by the notice with all independent trade unions recognised in relation to the earners concerned; and
 - (g) explain (whether or not by reference to another document)—
 - (i) ^{F24} ... how benefits would accrue to a member under the scheme if the employment were contracted-out [^{F25}and] ,
 - (ii) how, if the employment were contracted-out, the additional pensions of State retirement pensions and widows' and widowers' benefits payable to or in respect of the earners in that employment under the Contributions and Benefits Act, and the rates at which contributions payable by those earners under Part I of that Act, would be affected,
 - ^{F26}(iii)
- (3) A notice under this regulation shall be given—
- (a) to any earner concerned by—
 - [^{F27}(i) sending it to the earner in accordance with regulations 26 to 28 of the Occupational and Personal Pension Schemes (Disclosure of Information) Regulations 2013 (giving information and documents),
 - (ia) delivering it to the earner, or]
 - (ii) exhibiting it conspicuously at the place of work or employment so that it may be read conveniently by him and by drawing his attention to it in writing;

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Occupational Pension Schemes (Contracting-out) Regulations 1996. (See end of Document for details)

[^{F28}(b) to any other person, by—

- (i) sending it to that person in accordance with regulations 26 to 28 (giving information and documents) of the Occupational and Personal Pension Schemes (Disclosure of Information) Regulations 2013, or
- (ii) delivering it to that person.]

[^{F29}(4) Unless paragraph (5) applies, a notice under this regulation must specify a date of expiry which is not earlier than the date three months after the date on which the notice is given.

(5) Where—

- (a) there is no independent trade union recognised in relation to the earners concerned, or
- (b) before the notice has been given every such trade union has consented in writing to the notice specifying an earlier date than that which is required under paragraph (4), the notice may specify an earlier date (but not earlier than the date one month after that on which the notice is given).]

Information to be included in an election.

- 6.—(1) An election shall include the following particulars—
- (a) the name and address of the employer;
 - (b) the name by which the scheme to which the election relates is known;
 - (c) a description of the employments to which the contracting-out certificate is intended to relate and, if the certificate is not intended to be in relation to all earners in those employments, the categories or descriptions of the earners intended to be included in the certificate;
 - (d) the date from which it is desired that the certificate shall have effect;
 - (e) the names and addresses of the trustees and administrator of the scheme to which the election relates; and
 - (f) the persons to whom notices were given under regulation 3(1) (b), (c) and (d).
- (2) The employer shall also confirm in writing—
- (a) that he has, in accordance with regulation 3(1), given the earners mentioned in regulation 3(1)(a) notice of the intention to make the election; and
 - (b) how that notice was given and its date of expiry;
 - (c) that the scheme is not one which is excluded from contracting-out under these Regulations;
 - (d) unless the scheme is one to which regulation 27 applies (modification applying to public service pension schemes), that the restrictions imposed under section 40 of the 1995 Act (restrictions on employer-related investments) apply to the scheme and the scheme complies with those restrictions;

Amendment of an election.

7. An employer may amend his election at any time before the issue of a contracting-out certificate if the amendment does not alter the categories or descriptions of the earners to which the election relates [^{F33}or the date from which it is intended that the certificate is to have effect].

Textual Amendments

F33 Words in reg. 7 added (6.4.1997) by The Personal and Occupational Pension Schemes \(Miscellaneous Amendments\) Regulations 1997 \(S.I. 1997/786\), reg. 1, Sch. 1 para. 4(6)

Issue of contracting-out certificates.

8.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this regulation, when the Secretary of State has determined that an employment should be treated, either in relation to all earners in it or in relation to any specified category or description of earners, as contracted-out employment, he shall issue and send to the employer concerned a contracting-out certificate.

(2) The contracting-out certificate shall specify—

- (a) the name and address of the employer;
- (b) the name of the scheme by reference to which that employment is to be so treated;
- (c) the employments to which the certificate relates or, if the contracting-out certificate does not relate to all earners in those employments, the categories or descriptions of the earners to whom it relates; and
- (d) the date from which the certificate is to have effect, which may, where the Secretary of State considers it appropriate, be earlier than the date on which the certificate is issued provided that the scheme satisfied any contracting-out conditions or requirements which apply to the scheme from the date from which the certificate is to have effect.

Making of elections by employers for the variation or surrender of contracting-out certificates.

9.—^{F34}(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (2), (3) and (7) and regulation 10, an election with a view to the variation or surrender of a contracting-out certificate—

- (a) may be made only after notices of intention have been given in accordance with paragraphs (4) and (5); and
- (b) shall be made in writing to the Inland Revenue.]

(2) Where a proposed variation is a change—

- (a) in the name of the employer;
- (b) in the address of the employer; or
- (c) in the name of the scheme,

an election with a view to the variation of a certificate shall be made in writing to the Secretary of State within 3 months of the event to which the election relates or such longer period as the Secretary of State may in his discretion allow and may be made without compliance with paragraphs (1) and (4) to (7).

(3) In addition to the cases described in paragraph (2), in such cases as the Secretary of State may approve, where a proposed variation would not alter—

- (a) the categories or descriptions of the earners affected by the certificate; or
- (b) ^{F35} ... the benefits provided by the scheme; or
- (c) the contributions (if any) payable by those earners to the scheme,

an election with a view to the variation of a certificate shall be made in writing to the Secretary of State within 3 months of the event to which the election relates or such longer period as the Secretary of State may in his discretion allow and may be made without compliance with paragraphs (1) and (4) to (7).

(4) Notices of intention to make an election with a view to the variation or surrender of a contracting-out certificate shall be given within 3 months of the event to which the election relates, or such longer period as the Secretary of State may in his discretion allow, to the persons referred to in regulation 3(1)(a) to (d) in the manner mentioned in regulation 3(3).

(5) Notices given under this regulation shall be given in writing and shall—

- (a) specify the scheme and the employments concerned and, if the election is not intended to be in relation to all earners in those employments, the categories or descriptions of the earners to be so affected;
- (b) specify the date from which it is intended that the variation or surrender is to have effect;
- (c) specify the date of expiry of the notice in accordance with paragraphs (4) and (5) of regulation 3;
- (d) specify the name and business address of the person to whom representations may be made with respect to the matters included in the notice;
- (e) contain a statement that—
 - (i) such representations may also be made to the Secretary of State, ^{F36}and]
 - (ii) the Secretary of State may defer his determination to enable the election to be further considered in the light of representations made by or on behalf of persons to whom the notice is given, ^{F37} ...

^{F38}(ea) ^{F39}where the notice is not about surrendering a contracting-out certificate due to the scheme winding up, contain a statement that] the Secretary of State has power to refuse to give effect to the election if he is not satisfied that the employer has undertaken consultations about the matters covered by the notice with all independent trade unions recognised in relation to the earners concerned;

- (f) explain (whether or not by reference to another document) how, if the proposed variation or surrender took place, the additional pensions of State retirement pensions and widows' benefits payable to or in respect of the earners concerned under the Contributions and Benefits Act, and the rates at which contributions payable by those earners under Part I of that Act, would be affected; and
- (g) describe (whether or not by reference to another document) any changes which would be made to the benefits provided under, and the contributions (if any) payable by the earners concerned to, the scheme if the proposed variation or surrender took place.

(6) An employer who has given ^{F40}a notice under this regulation which is not about surrendering a contracting-out certificate due to the scheme winding up] shall undertake consultations, if he has not already done so, about the matters covered by the notice with all independent trade unions recognised in relation to the earners concerned and any question whether an employer has complied with this requirement may be referred to an industrial tribunal.

(7) An election under this regulation may only be made after the date of the expiry of the notice given in accordance with paragraphs (4) and (5) and within 3 months of that date (or such longer period as the Secretary of State may in his discretion allow), so however that nothing in this paragraph shall prevent an election from being made after the giving of further notices which comply with the requirements of this regulation.

(8) An employer may amend his election under this regulation at any time before the variation or surrender of the certificate if the amendment does not alter the categories or descriptions of the earners affected by the certificate ^{F41} or the date from which it is intended that the variation or surrender is to have effect].

Special provision with regard to elections for the issue, variation or surrender of certificates where the employment remains contracted-out.

10.—(1) Subject to regulation 71 (elections for replacement certificates by salary-related schemes during transitional period) and to the provisions of this regulation, where in the case of an election with a view to the issue, variation or as the case may be, surrender of a contracting-out certificate the Secretary of State is satisfied, that—

- (a) any earner in respect of whose employment the election relates will continue to qualify for pensions which satisfy section 9(2) of the 1993 Act, ^{F42} ... under the scheme when the election takes effect;
- (b) the accrued rights to pensions which satisfy section 9(2) of the 1993 Act ^{F43} ... of that earner under that scheme, will be unaffected; and
- (c) the employment of the earner will continue to be contracted-out employment by reference to that same scheme,

Special circumstances in which the Secretary of State may determine earners to have been in contracted-out employment

11. Where an earner has been employed in an employment during a period in which employment of that description was contracted-out but such employment was not (apart from this regulation) contracted-out in relation to him, and the Secretary of State is satisfied—

- (a) that it was not contracted-out in relation to him solely because he was not during that period a member of the relevant scheme; and
- (b) that he was not during that period a member of that scheme solely because of inadvertence, he may determine that that earner was in contracted-out employment by reference to that scheme during that period.

Special provision for holding companies and subsidiaries

12.—(1) This regulation applies to cases where—

- (a) earners employed in employments under different employers qualify by virtue of their respective service in those employments for the benefits of the same scheme; and
- (b) each of the employers in the scheme is either—
 - (i) one of a group of companies consisting of a holding company and one or more subsidiaries, or
 - ^{F44}(ii)
 - (iii) one of a group of employers who are associated by a common interest.

(2) In this regulation the expression—

- (a) “associated by a common interest” means employers who share either management, shareholders, employees or business operations in common;
- (b) “holding company” means a body corporate which is either—
 - (i) a holding company within the meaning of section 736 of the Companies Act 1985^{M12} , or
 - ^{F45}(ii)
 - (iii) an employer who is the principal employer for the purposes of the scheme in accordance with the scheme rules or the employer who has power to act on behalf of all employers in the scheme in relation to the scheme rules;
- (c) “subsidiary” means [^{F46}a body corporate which is an employer in the scheme and is] either—
 - (i) a subsidiary within the meaning of section 736 of the Companies Act 1985, or
 - ^{F47}(ii)
 - (iii) an employer subject to the rules of the scheme.

(3) In a case to which this regulation applies, any notice which is required or authorised to be given under these Regulations shall, subject to paragraph (4), be treated as properly given if given by the holding company on behalf of any of its subsidiaries, and where this is done the holding company shall, subject to paragraphs (4) and (5), be treated as the employer of the earners for the purposes of sections 7(1)(a), (2) and (7), 11 and 34(1)(a)^{M13}, (2) and (8) of the 1993 Act and of any regulations made thereunder.

(4) The duty of an employer to undertake the consultations mentioned in regulations 3(2)(f)(iii), 4 and [F489(5)(ea)] and (6) shall be carried out by each subsidiary in respect of the earners employed by it, unless all the independent trade unions recognised in relation to those earners have signified in writing to the holding company that they agree that those consultations may be conducted on the subsidiary's behalf by the holding company.

(5) The Secretary of State may refuse to give effect to an election made by a holding company if he is not satisfied either that each subsidiary has undertaken those consultations in respect of the earners employed by it, or that the holding company has undertaken them with the agreement of those trade unions.

Further information and change of circumstances.

15. An employer who makes an election with a view to the issue of a contracting-out certificate or an employer to whom such a certificate has been issued, shall furnish to the Secretary of State such reports, accounts and other documents and information relating to the scheme as the Secretary of State requires, and, in particular, shall notify the Secretary of State of any such change of circumstances affecting the scheme as he may have required the employer to notify as soon as practicable after its occurrence.

Requirement to confirm relevant requirements are satisfied.

16.—(1) An employer to whom a contracting-out certificate has been issued (including any certificate which has been surrendered or cancelled) shall, on such occasions and at such times as the Secretary of State may require, provide [^{F49}such written confirmation and any] other evidence as the Secretary of State may require—

- (a) in the case of a scheme contracted-out under section 9(2) of the 1993 Act (salary-related contracted-out scheme)—
 - (i) that the scheme is not one which is excluded from contracting-out under these Regulations, and
 - (ii) that section 9(2) of the 1993 Act and any regulations which apply to the scheme by reason of it being a scheme to which that provision relates are satisfied;

[^{F58} Payment of a lump sum instead of a pension payable under a relevant scheme

20.—(1) For the purposes of section 12C(1)(c) of the 1993 Act (regulations may prohibit or restrict the payment of a lump sum instead of a pension under a relevant scheme except in prescribed circumstances or on prescribed conditions), a relevant scheme may not provide for the payment of a lump sum instead of a pension unless the payment to be made is authorised under section 164 of the Finance Act 2004 (authorised member payments) and the payment ^{F59} ... —

- (a) [^{F60}is permitted] by the lump sum rule in section 166 of that Act (lump sum rule) and qualifies as—
 - (i) a pension commencement lump sum for the purposes of paragraph 1 of Part 1 of Schedule 29 to that Act;
 - (ii) a serious ill-health lump sum for the purposes of paragraph 4 of that Part;
 - [^{F61}(ia) an uncrystallised funds pension lump sum for the purposes of paragraph 4A of that Part;]
 - (iii) a trivial commutation lump sum for the purposes of paragraph 7 of that Part;

 - (i) a trivial commutation lump sum death benefit for the purposes of paragraph 20 of Part 2 of Schedule 29 to that Act; or
 - (ii) a winding-up lump sum death benefit for the purposes of paragraph 21 of that Part[^{F62}; or
 - (c) is—
 - (i) made by a registered pension scheme (within the meaning given in section 150(2) of the Finance Act 2004 (meaning of “pension scheme”));
 - (ii) a payment that is described in Part 2 of the 2009 Regulations; and
 - (iii) made to or in respect of a member.]
- (2) Where under the scheme—
- (a) an earner qualifies for a lump sum payment on the ground of serious ill-health; and
 - (b) the earner’s widow, widower or surviving civil partner qualifies for a pension (“a survivor’s pension”), the scheme must continue to include provision for a survivor's pension notwithstanding the payment of a lump sum to the earner.]

Circumstances when actuary other than actuary appointed under section 47 of the 1995 Act may certify broad equivalence.

24. For the purposes of section 12A(6) of the 1993 Act (scheme actuary appointed under section 47 of the 1995 Act to certify whether pensions are broadly equivalent to or better than those in a reference scheme except in prescribed circumstances) the prescribed circumstances are where a scheme is not required to appoint an actuary for the scheme under section 47 of the 1995 Act.

Requirements for a reference scheme.

25. A reference scheme is a scheme which, in addition to complying with the requirements of section 12B(3) and (4) of the 1993 Act, complies with the requirements of Chapter II of Part IV of the 1993 Act (revaluation of benefits in the case of scheme members who leave pensionable service before attaining normal pension age) and section 51 of the 1995 Act (indexation of pensions).

Modification applying to public service pension schemes.

27. In the case of schemes which are public service pension schemes, section 9(2B) of the 1993 Act (requirements for salary-related contracted out schemes in relation to service on or after the principal appointed day) is modified by omitting paragraph (b) (a requirement that the restrictions on employer-related investments apply to the scheme and the scheme complies with those restrictions).

Service in a salary-related contracted-out scheme that does not qualify for further benefits

28.—(1) This regulation applies in cases in which any description of benefit under a salary-related contracted-out scheme is subject to a limit (however imposed) operating so as to prevent service beyond a particular length from qualifying for further benefits.

(2) Subject to the following provisions of this regulation, in cases to which this regulation applies the employment of an earner in employed earner's employment shall be treated as contracted-out employment in relation to him, notwithstanding that his further service in the employment does not qualify him for further benefits under the scheme, where the following conditions are satisfied, namely that—

- (a) the earner's service in employed earner's employment has qualified him for benefit up to a limit imposed by the scheme; and
- (b) the annual rate of the benefit by way of pension for which that service has qualified him is not less than half the pensionable earnings on which it is calculated; and
- (c) the total benefits payable under the scheme (other than benefits attributable to voluntary contributions within the meaning of section 111 of the 1993 Act) are the same as or more favourable than the guaranteed minimum pension and any benefits arising in respect of section 9(2B) rights to which the earner would be entitled in respect of service in that employment and any linked qualifying service during which the earner was in contracted-out employment and any periods of service in that employment which would be contracted-out employment by virtue of this regulation.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(c) "total benefits" includes benefits which have accrued to the earner in respect of service in employment whether or not contracted-out employment and whether with the same or another employer, except any part of such benefits which consists of equivalent pension benefits for the purposes of Part III of the National Insurance Act 1965^{M15}.

Manner of calculation or estimation of earnings.

34. Where the Secretary of State cannot readily ascertain the amount of earnings in any tax week or is satisfied that records of earnings in any tax week have not been maintained or retained or are otherwise unobtainable, he may—

- (a) compute, in such manner as he thinks fit, an amount which shall be regarded as the amount of earnings; or
- (b) take their amount to be such as he may specify in the particular case.

Manner of payment of the age-related payment.

35. The Secretary of State shall make the age-related payment—

- (a) by automated credit transfer into a bank or building society account relating to the relevant scheme and which accepts payments made by automated credit transfer; or
- (b) in such other manner as the Secretary of State may in his discretion approve.

Verification of age.

36.—(1) For the purposes of determining the appropriate age-related percentage in respect of an earner for the purposes of section 42A of the 1993 Act ^{M16}, the Secretary of State may require that earner to send documentary evidence of his date of birth.

(2) For the purposes of section 45B of the 1993 Act ^{M17} (information held as to the age to be disclosed by the Secretary of State to trustees or managers of a money purchase scheme and such other persons as may be prescribed) the prescribed person shall be the person who is responsible for administering the scheme.

PART V

FURTHER REQUIREMENTS (ALL SCHEMES) AND OVERSEAS SCHEMES

Provision of information as to resources.

41. The employer in relation to a scheme and the trustees of a scheme must provide the Secretary of State, in such manner and at such times as the Secretary of State may reasonably require, with such reports, accounts, and with such other documents and information relating to the resources of the scheme as the Secretary of State may reasonably require for the purposes of Part III of the 1993 Act and these Regulations.

Alteration of rules of contracted-out schemes.

^{F91}42.—(1) For the purposes of section 37(1) of the 1993 Act (prohibition on alteration of rules of contracted-out scheme unless the alteration is of a prescribed description), the alterations which are prescribed are any alterations which are not prohibited by paragraph (2)^{F92}, (2ZA)^{F93} ... or (2B).

(2) The rules of a salary-related contracted-out scheme cannot be altered in relation to any ^{F94}rights which are to accrue under the scheme in so far as such rights are attributable to an earner’s service in contracted-out employment on or after the date on which the alteration to the rules takes effect (other than rights attributable to the payment of voluntary contributions)] unless—

- (a) the trustees of the scheme have informed the actuary in writing of the proposed alteration,
- (b) the actuary has considered the proposed alteration and has confirmed to the trustees in writing that he is satisfied that the scheme would continue to satisfy the statutory standard in accordance with section 12A of the 1993 Act if the alteration were made, and
- (c) the alteration does not otherwise prevent the scheme from satisfying the conditions of section 9(2B) of that Act.

[^{F95}(2ZA) The rules of a contracted-out salary-related scheme cannot be altered in relation to any section 9(2B) rights under the scheme unless—

- (a) following the alteration, the scheme provides benefits for the member and for that member’s widow, widower or surviving civil partner, in respect of the period of pensionable service to which the alteration relates and in which the member’s employment was contracted-out under section 9(2B) of the 1993 Act (requirements for certification of schemes: general) which are at least equal to the benefits that would be provided by a reference scheme (within the meaning of section 12B(2) of the 1993 Act (reference scheme)),
- (b) the alteration is one to which section 67 of the 1995 Act (the subsisting rights provisions) does not apply,
- (c) the alteration is one which is not a protected modification or a detrimental modification within the meaning given in section 67A of the 1995 Act (the subsisting rights provisions: interpretation), or
- (d) if the alteration is a detrimental modification within the meaning of section 67A of the 1995 Act, the actuarial equivalence requirements provided for in sections 67C and 67D of that Act (the actuarial equivalence requirements and further provisions) are met in relation to the proposed modification of those rights.

(a) (2ZB) (a) This paragraph applies in the case of alterations falling within paragraph (2ZA)(c) or (d), but not falling within (2ZA)(a) or (b).

(b) Subject to sub-paragraph (c), the altered scheme must provide for a pension to be paid to the member’s widow, widower or surviving civil partner in respect of the period in which the member’s employment was contracted-out under section 9(2B) of the 1993 Act (“relevant survivor’s post-1997 pension”) which is at least as generous, either as regards the amount of the pension or as regards the circumstances in which it will be paid, as it would have been before the alteration.

(c) In relation to a member who is an active member of the scheme immediately before the alteration takes effect, the requirement in sub-paragraph (b) shall be deemed to be satisfied if the relevant survivor’s post-1997 pension which the scheme would provide in respect of the member if the member left pensionable service immediately after the alteration is at least as generous as the relevant survivor’s post-1997 pension which the scheme would have provided in respect of the member had the member left service immediately before the alteration.

(d) In sub-paragraph (c), “active member” means a person who is in pensionable service under the scheme].

[^{F96}(2A)

(2B) The rules of a contracted-out scheme cannot be altered in relation to any guaranteed minimum pensions under the scheme if the alteration would—

(a) affect any of the matters dealt with in Part III of that Act or any regulations made under that Part which relate to guaranteed minimum pensions in a manner which would or might adversely affect any entitlement or accrued rights of any member of the scheme acquired before the alteration takes effect,

(b) affect any of the matters dealt with in sections 87 to 92 (protection of increases in guaranteed minimum pensions) and 109 and 110 of that Act (annual increases of guaranteed minimum pensions) or in any regulations made under those provisions which relate to guaranteed minimum pensions, or

(c) [^{F97}otherwise prevent the scheme from satisfying section 9(2) of that Act.]]

(3) Where the provisions of section 37 of the 1993 Act continue to apply after a scheme has ceased to be contracted-out, this regulation shall continue to apply so long as the circumstances provided for in subsections (3) or (4) of that section continue to apply.

Termination of periods of contracted-out employment.

43.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (7), an earner’s employment shall be treated as having ceased to be contracted-out employment when any of the following circumstances applies—

- (a) the earner’s contract of service has expired or been terminated;
- (b) in the absence of a contract of service, the service itself has ended;
- (c) the cancellation or surrender of the contracting-out certificate by virtue of which his employment was contracted-out employment has taken effect, except in a case where, within 6 months of the cancellation or surrender, or such longer period as the Secretary of State may allow in a particular case, he becomes a member in contracted-out employment of another contracted-out scheme under the same employer to which his accrued rights to guaranteed minimum pensions [^{F98}or section 9(2B)] rights, as the case may be, are transferred;
- (d) a variation of the contracting-out certificate by virtue of which his employment was contracted-out employment has taken effect such that the certificate no longer applies to his employment, except in a case where, within 6 months of the variation, or such longer period as the Secretary of State may allow in a particular case, he again comes within the description of earners in relation to which the said contracting-out certificate applies or he becomes a member in contracted-out employment of another contracted-out scheme under the same employer to which his accrued rights to guaranteed minimum pensions [^{F99}or section 9(2B)] rights, as the case may be, are transferred;
- (e) the earner has ceased to be within the description of earners in relation to which the contracting-out certificate applies or has ceased to be a member of the scheme, except in a case where, within 6 months of the ceasing, or such longer period as the Secretary of State may allow in a particular case, he again comes within the description of earners in relation to which the said contracting-out certificate applies or he becomes a member in contracted-out employment of another contracted-out scheme under the same employer to which his accrued rights to guaranteed minimum pensions [^{F100}or section 9(2B)] rights, as the case may be, are transferred; and

- (f) the earner's employer dies or disposes of the whole or part of his business so that the earner ceases to be employed by that employer and the contracted-out employment is not, or cannot be, treated as continuing under the new employer under paragraph (5).

(2) In such cases as are specified in paragraph (3), an earner's employment shall not be treated as having ceased to be contracted-out employment by reason only of the circumstances mentioned in paragraph (1)(a) and (b) where the service in question is one (other than the last) of a series of employments to all of which the same scheme applies.

(3) The cases mentioned in paragraph (2) are—

- (a) where all the employments are with the same employer or where the earner is employed by another employer in employment which is contracted-out by reference to the same scheme as the first employment and, in respect of the employment first mentioned in paragraph (2)

(i) no state scheme premium or contributions equivalent premium has been paid or any that has been paid has been refunded;

(ii) the calculation of the earner's guaranteed minimum pension arising out of his service in that employment is not subject to any provision of the scheme prescribed by regulations made under section 16(3) of the 1993 Act ^{M20} ;

(iii) the earner's accrued rights to guaranteed minimum pensions or to section 9(2B) rights under the scheme arising out of his service in that employment have not been transferred in accordance with the provisions of the scheme under sections 12C(1) ^{M21} or 20(1) of the 1993 Act or regulations made thereunder ^{F101} ...;

(iv) the scheme is one for which there is a common fund, and any interval between one employment and the next is no longer than 6 months or such longer period as the Secretary of State may allow in a particular case; and

- (b) where a woman has a right to return to work under section 39 of the Employment Protection (Consolidation) Act 1978 ^{M22} (right to return to work following pregnancy or confinement) and does in fact return to work pursuant to that right.

(4) The total period of contracted-out employment which consists of a series of employments to which paragraph (2) applies shall not include any intervals between employments.

(5) In cases where an earner's employer dies or otherwise ceases to be the employer in relation to the earner's contracted-out employment and his business is taken over by a new employer, the earner's service in contracted-out employment under the old employer may be treated as continuing under the new employer if—

- (a) the earner's service after the change of employer continues to qualify him for guaranteed minimum pensions [^{F102}or section 9(2B)] rights, as the case may be, under the contracted-out scheme by virtue of which he qualified for such benefits or such rights before the change, or if his service does not so qualify him the earner is nevertheless to be treated as being in contracted-out employment by virtue of the provisions of regulation 28;

(b) the new employer accepts all the responsibilities of the former employer for any contributions to the scheme and any state scheme premiums or contributions equivalent premiums which are outstanding in respect of the scheme at the time of the change; and

(c) the new employer notifies the Secretary of State of the change within one month of its taking place or such longer period as the Secretary of State may consider reasonable in the particular case and provides the Secretary of State with such documents and information as he may reasonably require.

(6) In a case where an earner's service in contracted-out employment is to be treated as continuing by virtue of paragraph (5) the contracting-out certificate issued to the former employer shall be treated as issued to the new employer and the Secretary of State may vary that certificate in such respects as may be necessary in the circumstances.

(7) In cases where an earner is employed concurrently in two or more contracted-out employments by reference to the same scheme and with the same employer his employment in any one of those employments shall not be treated as having terminated by reason only of the circumstances mentioned in paragraph (1)(a) and (b) until all such employments are treated as having so terminated.

(8) Where an earner ceases to be liable for Class 1 contributions under the Contributions and Benefits Act in respect of any contracted-out employment because he is employed outside Great Britain and where, and for so long as, service in the employment outside Great Britain continues to qualify him for benefits under the scheme by reference to which his employment was contracted-out employment, the earner's service in that employment shall be treated as not having terminated.

(9) In this regulation the expression—

“common fund” means a fund into which all contributions, however derived, are paid, and to the whole of which recourse may be had to meet any liabilities of the scheme for the payment of benefit;

“holding company” has the same meaning as in regulation 12(2);

“state scheme premium” means a premium paid or payable under Chapter III of Part III of the 1993 Act before the principal appointed day or under those provisions as continued in force by an order made under section 180 of the 1995 Act.

Approval of arrangements for schemes ceasing to be contracted-out.

45.—(1) Subject to regulation 74 (transitional arrangements relating to schemes ceasing to contract out before the principal appointed day), for the purposes of section 50(1B) of the 1993 Act ^{M23} (prescribed conditions to be met in order for arrangements to be approved on the cessation of contracting-out) arrangements shall not be approved by the Secretary of State unless the conditions specified in paragraphs (2) or (3) are satisfied.

(2) To the extent that the arrangements concern the transfer of rights or the discharge of liabilities they must meet the requirements of (as the case may be) sections 12C of the 1993 Act (transfer or discharge of section 9(2B) rights), section 19 of that Act (discharge of liability for guaranteed minimum pensions secured by insurance policies or annuity contracts), section 20 of that Act (transfer of guaranteed minimum pensions) ^{F106} ... ^{F107} ... and any regulations made under those provisions and the Secretary of State must be satisfied that such arrangements will be completed within two years of the date of cessation or such later date as the Secretary of State may specify in relation to a particular case or class of case.

(3) To the extent that the arrangements concern the preservation of rights within the scheme, the scheme must comply with the requirements of [F108 paragraph (a)]—

- (a) in the case of a scheme where employment was contracted-out under section 9(2) of the 1993 Act (salary-related contracted-out scheme) the scheme must continue to satisfy the requirements of that section and any regulations which would apply to the scheme by reason of it being a scheme to which section 9(2) of that Act relates, other than section 9(2B)(a) of that Act (requirement to comply with section 12A of that Act) and any regulations which relate to compliance with that section, and the scheme must contain [F109 a protection rule;]

[F111(3A) For the purpose of paragraph (3)(a) a protection rule is a rule which provides that the total amount of the benefits under the scheme for each member at normal pension age and the member’s [F112 widow, widower or surviving civil partner] at the day following the date of death of the member will not be less than the aggregate of—

- (a) any such benefits arising in respect of section 9(2B) rights and guaranteed minimum pensions;
- (b) any other such benefits due in respect of rights which have accrued to the member in relation to service in employment which was contracted-out before the principal appointed day under section 9(2) of the 1993 Act; and
- (c) any such benefits due in respect of rights which have accrued to the member in relation to service in employment which was not contracted-out.

(3B) The amount of the benefits mentioned in paragraph (3A)(a) and (b) and, so far as they relate to service on or before the date on which the scheme ceased to be contracted-out, those mentioned in paragraph (3A)(c) shall be calculated on an early leaver basis in accordance with Chapter I of Part IV of the 1993 Act and any regulations made under that Chapter, as if the member had ceased to be in pensionable service under the scheme on that date.]

M24 Section 52(2A) was inserted by paragraph 47 of Schedule 5 to the Pensions Act 1995.

Circumstances in which the Secretary of State may vary or cancel a contracting-out certificate.

47.—(1) Where the Secretary of State has reason to suppose that any employment to which a contracting-out certificate applies should not continue to be contracted-out employment and the employer has not shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State that it should so continue, the Secretary of State may determine that the employment should not continue to be treated as contracted-out employment and where he so determines, he shall cancel or vary the certificate with effect, subject to paragraph (2), from such date as he may specify and he shall notify the employer in writing of his determination, the reasons for it and of his powers to review that determination.

(2) The date from which the cancellation or variation is to have effect may not be earlier than the date of the cancellation or variation, as the case may be, except—

- (a) in a case of a salary-related contracted-out scheme where the Secretary of State considers that the resources of the scheme have not been maintained at a sufficient level for maintaining all claims in respect of guaranteed minimum pensions and section 9(2B) rights so far as falling to be met out of those resources, the date may be the latest date on which in the opinion of the Secretary of State those resources were maintained at such a sufficient level; or
- (b) in a case of a salary-related contracted-out scheme where the earners in employments to which the contracting-out certificate applies have ceased to qualify for guaranteed minimum pensions or benefits arising from section 9(2B) rights under the scheme, the date may be a date not earlier than the date on which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, the said cessation occurred; or
- (c) in a case where the Secretary of State discovers that the scheme did not satisfy the requirements for being a contracted-out scheme at the date the contracting-out certificate was issued, the date may be the date from which the certificate had effect or any later date; or
- (d) in a case where the Secretary of State considers that the scheme has ceased to satisfy the requirements for being a contracted-out scheme, the date may be any date not earlier than when, in the Secretary of State's opinion, the scheme ceased to satisfy those requirements.

(3) In any case where the Secretary of State has cancelled or varied a certificate under the provisions of paragraph (1) above he may require the employer to give notice of the cancellation or variation, in the manner specified in regulation 3(3), to—

- (a) the earners in relation to whom the employment was contracted-out by virtue of the certificate immediately before its cancellation or variation;
- (b) the trustees (if any) and administrator of the scheme by reference to which the employment was contracted-out immediately before the cancellation or variation of the certificate; and
- (c) the persons specified in regulation 3(1)(c) and (d), and he may require any such notice to include such particulars (including particulars of the consequences of the cancellation or variation) as he considers appropriate.

Special provision for overseas schemes.

48.—(1) In the case of an overseas scheme the modifications and, as the case may be, the additional requirements specified in this regulation apply.

(2) A notice of intention to make an election which relates to an overseas scheme shall, in addition to the requirements of paragraph (2) of regulation 3, specify that the scheme is an overseas scheme.

(3) An overseas scheme shall have an administrator [^{F120}who is appointed in accordance with section 270 of the Finance Act 2004 (meaning of “scheme administrator”).]

(4) Any obligation placed on an employer in Part II (Certification of Employments) may be discharged by an administrator for the scheme appointed in accordance with paragraph (3).

(5) In the case of an overseas scheme which is a salary-related scheme—

- (a) the trustees or managers must appoint an actuary to the scheme who satisfies the requirements of regulations made under section 47(5) of the 1995 Act and such an actuary may provide certification to the Secretary of State in accordance with section 12A(6) of the 1993 Act ^{M25} ;
- (b) regulation 18 shall not apply;
- ^{F121}(c) except in cases to which regulation 73 applies, for the purposes of section 9(2B)(c)(i) of the 1993 Act, the requirement as to the amount of the resources of the scheme is that, if the scheme were to be wound up at any time, those resources would be sufficient to meet in full the liabilities mentioned in ^{F122}section 73(4)] of the 1995 Act, calculating, determining and valuing those liabilities and resources in a manner approved by the Secretary of State;
- (ca) the scheme must provide that, if it is wound up, the assets of the scheme must be applied first towards satisfying the amounts of liabilities mentioned ^{F123}in section 73(4)] and, if they are insufficient to satisfy those amounts in full, then—
 - (i) they must be applied first towards satisfying the amounts of the liabilities mentioned in earlier paragraphs ^{F124}of that section] before those mentioned in later paragraphs, and
 - (ii) where the amounts of the liabilities mentioned in one of those paragraphs cannot be satisfied in full, those amounts must be satisfied in the same proportions; and]
- (d) section 9(2B)(b) of the 1993 Act is modified with effect that the Secretary of State must be satisfied that not more than 5 per cent. of the current market value of the scheme’s resources are invested in a person who is an employer, or connected with an employer, in relation to the scheme if such investments are required to meet the liabilities specified in ^{F125}paragraph (c)] and the value of such investments shall be calculated and determined in a manner approved by the Secretary of State.

^{F126}(5A)

^{F127}(6)

(7) An overseas scheme must provide, in respect of ^{F128}rights which have accrued as a result of contracted-out employment in the scheme in Great Britain], for revaluation of accrued rights in accordance with sections 83 to 86 of the 1993 Act ^{M26} and for indexation of pensions in accordance with sections 51 to 54 of the 1995 Act.

PART VI

RESTORATION OF STATE SCHEME RIGHTS

Insolvent schemes.

49.—(1) Where paragraph 5(3B) of Schedule 2 to the 1993 Act^{M27} applies in relation to a member of a contracted-out scheme which is being wound up and the conditions set out in paragraph (3) are satisfied, the member shall be treated as if sections 46 to 48 or, as the case may be, 48A(1) of the 1993 Act^{M28} —

- (a) except as provided in sub-paragraph (b), did not apply; or
- (b) in a case where the cash equivalent of the member's rights is less than the amount required for restoring his state scheme rights, applied only in so far as they extinguish such part of the member's state scheme rights as, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, corresponds to that shortfall.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph 5(3B)(b) of Schedule 2 to the 1993 Act, the debt due from the trustees of the scheme to the Secretary of State shall be only such part of the amount required for restoring the member's state scheme rights as does not exceed the amount which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, is the amount available from the resources of the scheme to meet the liability for the cash equivalent of the member's rights.

(3) The conditions referred to in paragraph (1) are that—

^{F129}(a)

[^{F130}(aa) except where paragraph (3A) applies, the member is not a qualifying member of a qualifying pension scheme for the purposes of the Financial Assistance Scheme Regulations 2005; and]

- (b) no later than 3 months after the date on which the trustees notify the member in accordance with regulation 50, or such further period as the Secretary of State may allow in a particular case, the Secretary of State has received from—
 - (i) the member; or
 - (ii) where the Secretary of State is satisfied that the member cannot be traced, the trustees, a written application for the member's state scheme rights to be restored in accordance with this regulation.

[^{F131}(3A) This paragraph applies where—

- (a) the member has been notified in accordance with regulation 50 before the date on which the Financial Assistance Scheme (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations 2008 came into force; and

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Occupational Pension Schemes (Contracting-out) Regulations 1996. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs receive a written application for the member's state scheme rights to be restored in accordance with this regulation.]
- (4) For the purposes of this regulation and paragraph 5(3A) to (3D) of Schedule 2 to the 1993 Act—
- [^{F132}(a) in the case of a scheme to which Part 3 of the 2004 Act applies (scheme funding), the cash equivalent of a member's rights under the scheme shall be determined as if the requirements of section 222(1) of that Act were satisfied;]
- (b) the extent (if any) to which the resources of the scheme are insufficient to meet that cash equivalent shall be determined—
- (i) on the assumption that those resources include any payment to the trustees under the compensation provisions; and
- (ii) where section 73 of the 1995 Act (preferential liabilities on winding up) applies, in accordance with the requirements of that section;
- (c) the amount required for restoring the member's state scheme rights shall be an amount determined in accordance with regulations made under paragraph 5(3C)(c) of Schedule 2 to the 1993 Act.
- (5) In this regulation "Compensation Board" and "compensation provisions" have the same meaning as in section 124 of the 1995 Act.

Contributions equivalent premiums

51.—[^{F136}(1) For the purposes of section 55(2) of the 1993 Act (which requires the prescribed person to pay a contributions equivalent premium in the case mentioned in section 55(2B) of that Act and otherwise enables him to elect to pay such a premium on termination of contracted-out employment) the prescribed person is the trustees of the scheme.

[^{F137}(1ZA) But where a contributions equivalent premium is payable by the Board of the Pension Protection Fund, the prescribed person for the purposes of section 55(2) of the 1993 Act is the Board of the Pension Protection Fund.

(1ZB) In this Part, where paragraph (1ZA) applies—

- (a) except in regulation 52(1), references to “the trustees of the scheme”, “the trustees” or “the trustees of a scheme” shall be read as references to “the Board of the Pension Protection Fund”; and
- (b) references to “the resources of the scheme” shall be read as references to “the Pension Protection Fund being the Pension Protection Fund specified in section 173(1) of the 2004 Act (Pension Protection Fund)”.]

(1A) Section 55(2B) of the 1993 Act (by virtue of which a contributions equivalent premium must be paid in any case where the earner has no accrued right to benefit under the scheme) does not apply if [^{F138}paragraph (1B), (1C) or (1D)] applies.

(1B) This paragraph applies where—

- (a) the earner's service in the employment ceases on the earner's death; and
- (b) the earner leaves a surviving spouse [^{F139}or civil partner] who is not entitled to any of the following benefits—
 - (i) a widowed mother's allowance under section 37 of the Contributions and Benefits Act,
 - (ii) a widow's pension under section 38 of that Act,

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Occupational Pension Schemes (Contracting-out) Regulations 1996. (See end of Document for details)

- (iii) a widowed parent's allowance under section 39A of that Act, or
- (iv) a bereavement allowance under section 39B of that Act.

(1C) This paragraph applies where the earner is a woman who has made, or is treated as having made, an election under regulations made under section 19(4) of the Contributions and Benefits Act, which has not been revoked, that her liability in respect of primary Class 1 contributions shall be at a reduced rate.]

[^{F140}(1D) This paragraph applies where, on the termination of his pensionable service, the earner elects to acquire a right to a cash transfer sum in accordance with section 101AB(1)(a) of the 1993 Act (right to cash transfer sum and contribution refund).]

(2) The obligation under section 57(2) of the 1993 Act (not to discriminate between different earners when making or abstaining from making elections to pay contributions equivalent premiums) shall not apply to—

- (a) cases where an earner's rights are transferred in accordance with regulations ^{F141} ... under section 12C (transfer, commutation etc.) of the 1993 Act ^{M29} ;
- [^{F142}(b) cases where paragraph (1C) applies;]
- (c) cases where, on the death of an earner, there arises an entitlement to a [^{F143}widow's, widower's or surviving civil partner's] pension which comprises amounts of pension which have accrued by reference to the earner's service in employment which was not contracted-out and to his service in employment which was contracted-out;
- (d) cases where the earner has completed less than two years qualifying service for the purposes of Chapter I of Part IV of the 1993 Act (preservation) but where, nevertheless, he is entitled under the rules of the scheme to elect, and he has elected, that his accrued rights shall be preserved; and
- [^{F144}(e) cases where any liability to provide pensions to an earner has been discharged in accordance with regulations under section 12C of the 1993 Act,] but in respect of any of the classes of case mentioned in this paragraph an employer shall not discriminate between different earners falling within the same class of case.

[^{F145}(2A) Where a contributions equivalent premium is required to be paid in respect of an earner by virtue of section 55(2) of the 1993 Act, the trustees of the scheme must notify the Inland Revenue of that fact in such form as the Inland Revenue may reasonably require for the purpose of identifying the earner.

(2B) Such a notification must be given—

- (a) where the earner has ceased to serve in employment which is contracted-out employment by reference to the scheme because it is wound up, within two years of the cessation of the scheme; and
- (b) where the earner has so ceased for any other reason mentioned in section 55(2A) of the 1993 Act within the period beginning one month before and ending six months after the date on which the person so ceases.

(2C) The Inland Revenue may in any particular case or class of cases extend the period applicable under paragraph (2B) if it appears to them that the notification could not reasonably have been given within that period.]

(3) An election under section 55(2) of the 1993 Act shall be notified to the Secretary of State in writing in such form as he may reasonably require for the purpose of identifying the earner to whom the election relates. Such notification shall be given—

- (a) where the circumstances specified in section 55(2A)(d) of the 1993 Act ^{M30} apply (the scheme is wound up), within two years of the cessation of the scheme; or

(b) where the circumstances specified in section 55(2A)(a) to (c) or (e) apply, within the period beginning one month before, and ending 6 months after, the date on which the person ceases to serve in employment which is contracted-out employment by reference to the scheme.

(4) The Secretary of State may, in any particular case or class of case, extend the periods mentioned in paragraph (3) for the making of an election to pay a contributions equivalent premium if it appears to him that the circumstances are such that an election could not reasonably be made within the specified period.

Payment in lieu of benefit and delay in refund for the purposes of employer's right of recovery.

53.—(1) For the purposes of section 61(10) of the 1993 Act (payments in lieu of benefit) a payment in lieu of benefit shall include a payment made or to be made out of the resources of the scheme towards the provision of deferred benefits for the earner.

(2) Where on the coming to an end of an employed earner's service in contracted-out employment, he (or, by virtue of a connection with him, any other person) is or may be entitled to a refund of any payments made under a contracted-out scheme by or in respect of him towards the provision of benefits under the scheme, the following provisions of this regulation shall apply for the purpose of enabling any right of recovery conferred by section 61 of the 1993 Act^{M31} to be exercised.

(3) Where in such a case a contributions equivalent premium falls to be paid in respect of the earner under the 1993 Act, the person liable for the refund shall not, after he has been given notice in accordance with paragraph (5) ("notice of delay"), make the refund in whole or in part until the expiration of the period of delay specified in paragraph (4), but this paragraph shall not apply to so much, if any, of the refund as exceeds the amount certified by the Secretary of State under section 63(1)(d) of the 1993 Act.

(4) The period of delay referred to in paragraph (3) shall be the period beginning with the notice of delay and ending with the expiration of 4 weeks after the payment of the contributions equivalent premium or any part of it, or 4 weeks after the end of the prescribed period for the payment of that premium, whichever first occurs.

(5) A notice of delay shall be a notice in writing given by the trustees of the scheme concerned relating either to a particular case or class of case and containing the following particulars—

- (a) the name of the earner or such particulars as will sufficiently identify the class of case concerned;
- (b) such particulars as will sufficiently identify the refund or refunds concerned; and
- (c) a memorandum in a form approved by the Secretary of State giving brief particulars of the effect of paragraphs (3) and (4).

(6) Where the trustees of a scheme have given notice of delay they shall from time to time inform any person to whom they have given notice of the ending of the period of delay in relation to any refund affected by the notice.

Refund of a contributions equivalent premium.

54.—(1) The Secretary of State shall refund a contributions equivalent premium if—

- (a) it was paid in error; or
- (b) he is satisfied that the employment to which it relates will be linked with another employment in the circumstances set out in regulation 43(2) and (3); or
- (c) he is satisfied that the earner in respect of whom it was paid has entered into employment which is contracted-out employment by reference to the same contracted-out scheme as that by which the employment to which it relates was contracted-out employment, and that for the purpose of calculating the earner's accrued rights under the scheme the two employments will be linked; or
- (d) he is satisfied that a transfer of the earner's accrued rights will be made in accordance with regulations under section 20 (transfer of accrued rights) or under section 12C (transfer, commutation etc.) of the 1993 Act; or
- (e) the scheme is one under which a member may qualify for benefits by virtue of service either in employed earner's employment or as a self-employed earner (within the meaning of section 2 of the Contributions and Benefits Act) or both and he is satisfied that the earner in respect of whom that premium was paid has completed a period of membership of the scheme as a self-employed earner which, when aggregated with his service in employed earner's employment, amounts to not less than two years, and, where a contributions equivalent premium is refunded under the provisions of this paragraph the earner's accrued rights under the scheme, which were extinguished by payment of the premium, shall be restored.

(2) A refund under paragraph (1) shall only be made if application is made in writing, in such form as the Secretary of State may reasonably require for the purpose.

(3) In paragraph (1)(a) "error" means an error which—

- (a) is made at the time of payment; and
- (b) relates to some present or past matter.

(4) Where—

- (a) an earner has been employed concurrently in two or more contracted-out employments, on the termination of one or more of which, a contributions equivalent premium has been paid; and
- (b) the aggregate amount of any such payments has the effect that the National Insurance Fund has gained, by reference to any employment in respect of which such a payment has been made, a greater amount than it would have gained from Class 1 contributions under the Contributions and Benefits Act if those employments had not been contracted out, there shall be paid out of the National Insurance Fund to the earner (or his estate) an amount which bears the same proportion to the amount of the excess as the reduction under paragraph (a) of subsection (1A) of section 41 of the 1993 Act ^{M32}, in the normal percentage of primary Class 1 contributions bears to the total reduction under that subsection in the total normal percentage of Class 1 contributions.

- (5) The Secretary of State shall refund a contributions equivalent premium if he is satisfied that—
 - (a) where it was paid in the circumstances mentioned in section 55(2A)(a), (b), (d) or (e) of the 1993 Act, the person in respect of whom it was paid has died, without leaving a [^{F149}widow, widower or surviving civil partner], on or before the later of the days first mentioned in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) respectively of regulation 52(1); or
 - (b) where it was paid in the circumstances mentioned in paragraph (2A)(c) of that section, there are no accrued rights to guaranteed minimum pensions or section 9(2B) rights under the scheme in question in respect of the [^{F149}widow, widower or surviving civil partner] in question.

PART VII

GUARANTEED MINIMUM PENSIONS

Scheme rules about guaranteed minimum pensions

55.—(1) For a scheme to be contracted-out in relation to an [^{F150}the employment of any earner who has a guaranteed minimum under section 14 of the 1993 Act in relation to a pension provided by the scheme it must include a rule to the effect that]^{M33}—

- (a) the weekly rate of his pension under the scheme at pensionable age in respect of his service before the principal appointed day shall not be less than that guaranteed minimum;
- (b) the weekly rate of pension payable to any [^{F151}widow of the earner under the scheme in respect of the earner's service before the principal appointed day, in a case where the earner is a man,] shall be not less than half that guaranteed minimum; and
- (c) the weekly rate of pension payable to any [^{F152}widower or surviving civil partner of the earner under the scheme in respect of the earner's service before the principal appointed day, or to any widow of the earner under the scheme in respect of that service in a case where the earner is a woman,] shall be not less than half of that part of the earner's guaranteed minimum which is attributable to earnings factors for the tax year 1988-89 and subsequent tax years up to and including the tax year 1996-97, that rule to be expressed to override all other provisions of the scheme, except any that are in accordance with the provisions of the 1993 Act.

(2) In paragraph (1) "weekly rate" means, in cases where the pension is paid otherwise than at weekly intervals, a rate which is equivalent to the earner's guaranteed minimum having regard to the period in respect of which the pension is paid.

Suspension and forfeiture of guaranteed minimum pensions.

61.—(1) For the purposes of section 21(2) of the 1993 Act (suspension and forfeiture of guaranteed minimum pension) the circumstances in which a scheme may provide for an earner's or an earner's [^{F196}widow's, widower's or surviving civil partner's] guaranteed minimum pension to be suspended are—

- (a) that the pensioner is, in the opinion of the trustees of the scheme, unable to act by reason of mental disorder ^{F197} ... and there is provision in the scheme [^{F198}which requires that, in those circumstances, sums equivalent to the guaranteed minimum pension—
 - (i) must, except in so far as such sums are not, in the opinion of the trustees, required for the maintenance of the pensioner, be paid or applied for his maintenance,
 - (ii) may, in so far as such sums are not, in the opinion of the trustees, required for the maintenance of the pensioner, be paid or applied for the maintenance of any dependants of the pensioner,
 - (iii) must, in so far as such sums are not, in the opinion of the trustees, required for the maintenance of the pensioner or of any dependant of his, be held by the trustees for the pensioner until he is again able to act or, if he should die before that happens, for his estate;]
- (b) that the pensioner is in prison or detained in legal custody, and there is provision in the scheme for sums equivalent to the guaranteed minimum pension to be paid or applied during such circumstances for the maintenance of such one or more of the pensioner's dependants as the trustees of the scheme may in their discretion determine; and
- (c) that the earner is re-employed by the employer who had previously employed him in contracted-out employment in respect of which the guaranteed minimum pension became payable or in any other employment to which the scheme paying the guaranteed minimum pension applies and there is provision in the scheme for the guaranteed minimum pension which becomes payable when the suspension is lifted to be increased in accordance with section 15(1) of the 1993 Act.

(2) For the purposes of section 21(2) of the 1993 Act the circumstances in which a scheme may provide for an earner's or an earner's [^{F199}widow's, widower's or surviving civil partner's] guaranteed minimum pension (whether current or prospective) to be forfeited are—

- (a) that the person entitled to that pension has been convicted of—
 - (i) an offence of treason, or
 - (ii) one or more offences under the Official Secrets Acts 1911 to 1989 ^{M35} for which he has been sentenced on the same occasion to a term of imprisonment of, or to two or more consecutive terms amounting in the aggregate to, at least 10 years;
- (b) in the case of a [^{F199}widow's, widower's or surviving civil partner's] guaranteed minimum pension, that the earner by reference to whose contracted-out employment that pension is payable has been convicted of an offence of treason, or has been convicted of offences and has been sentenced to terms of imprisonment as set out in sub-paragraph (a)(ii);
- (c) in the case of a guaranteed minimum pension payable under a scheme for members of Her Majesty's forces, being a scheme for which the Secretary of State is responsible, that the person entitled to that pension or, as the case may be, the member of the forces whose [^{F200}widow, widower or surviving civil partner] is currently or prospectively entitled to that pension, has in the opinion of the Secretary of State committed an act which is gravely prejudicial to the defence, security or other interests of the State; and

- (d) in the case of any payment of guaranteed minimum pension for which a claim has not been made, that a period of at least 6 years has elapsed from the date on which that payment became due.

Fixed rate revaluation of guaranteed minimum pensions for early leavers.

62.—(1) This regulation applies to a case where a scheme provides, under section 16(2) of the 1993 Act, for the earnings factors of an earner whose service in contracted-out employment by reference to the scheme is terminated before he attains pensionable age to be determined by reference to the last order that comes into force under section 148 of the Administration Act before the end of the tax year in which his service is terminated.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), in a case to which this regulation applies, the prescribed percentage for the purpose of section 16(3) of the 1993 Act (revaluation of earnings factors) is, in relation to each period of service in respect of which accrued rights to guaranteed minimum pension have been acquired under, or transferred to, the scheme—

- (a) where the period of service terminated before 6th April 1988, 8.5 per cent. compound;
- (b) where that period of service terminated on or after 6th April 1988 but before 6th April 1993, 7.5 per cent. compound;

Meaning of expression “connected employer”.

64.—(1) The cases in which employers are to be treated as connected for the purposes of section 35 of the 1993 Act (surrender and cancellation: issue of further certificates) are those specified in paragraph (2).

(2) The cases referred to in paragraph (1) are those where any two employers are or were, at the relevant time—

- (a) a holding company and a subsidiary within the meaning of regulation 12(2);
- (b) subsidiaries of the same holding company within the meaning of that regulation; or
- (c) partnerships each having the same persons as at least half of its partners.

(3) In this regulation an employer is to be regarded as an employer at the relevant time where, as the case may require, he is the employer at the time of the surrender or cancellation of the first certificate or the employer at the time of the making of an election with a view to the issue of a further contracting-out certificate.

Modification of section 16 of the 1993 Act.

65. In such a case as is specified in regulation 66—

- (a) section 16(1) of the 1993 Act shall be modified so as to have effect as if there were added at the end thereof the words “or, in respect of the earner’s earnings factor or the weekly equivalent mentioned in section 14(2) for any relevant year in a period of linked qualifying service, shall be taken to be that factor or weekly equivalent as increased in accordance with the provisions of the scheme under regulations made under section 16(3)”, and
- (b) where earnings factors of an earner whose accrued rights to guaranteed minimum pensions, including such rights derived from linked qualifying service, have been transferred under section 20(1) of the 1993 Act or regulations made thereunder to another contracted-out scheme, section 16(2) and (3) of that Act shall be modified so as to have effect as if it permitted that scheme to provide for those earnings factors to be determined for the purpose of section 14(2) of that Act without reference to any order coming into force under section 148 of the Administration Act—
 - (i) after the relevant year in which his service in the contracted-out employment, by reference to the scheme from which those rights were transferred, was terminated where such earnings factors have previously fallen to be determined by reference to orders under section 148 of the Administration Act, or
 - (ii) in and after the relevant year in which that service was terminated in any other case, and as if section 16(3) of the 1993 Act had effect accordingly, save, in a case to which sub-paragraph (ii) applies, for treating the reference to the amount of the increase in section 16(3) as a reference to the amount by which the earnings factors relevant to the weekly equivalent would be increased.

Circumstances in which the modifications to the 1993 Act set out in regulation 65 apply.

66. The case referred to in regulation 65 is where, following the termination of an earner's service in contracted-out employment by reference to a scheme, the following conditions are satisfied, namely—

- (a) a transfer under section 20(1) of the 1993 Act, or regulations made thereunder, of the earner's accrued rights to guaranteed minimum pensions under that scheme (in this regulation called the "transferring scheme") to another contracted-out scheme (in this regulation called the "receiving scheme") is made, or if already begun is completed, on or after 5th April 1983;
- (b) the earner commences or has commenced employment which is contracted-out by reference to the receiving scheme;
- (c) by virtue of section 14(1) of that Act as modified by regulations made under section 20 of the 1993 Act, the calculation, under the provisions of the receiving scheme, of the earner's guaranteed minimum pension for the purposes of section 14(2) falls to include earnings factors, or the weekly equivalent derived therefrom, arising out of contracted-out employment in any period of linked qualifying service which was contracted-out employment by reference to the transferring scheme; and
- (d) either—
 - (i) the receiving scheme provides for the earnings factors or weekly equivalent derived therefrom to be increased at the rate by which they, or it, fell to be increased under the provisions of the transferring scheme or would have fallen to be increased under the provisions of that scheme relating to an earner whose service in contracted-out employment by reference to the scheme is terminated before he attains pensionable age, or
 - (ii) if the provisions of the transferring scheme provided for those earnings factors to be increased by reference to orders under section 148 of the Administration Act, the receiving scheme provides for those earnings factors or the weekly equivalent derived therefrom to be increased in accordance with the provisions of section 16(2) and (3) of the 1993 Act, or regulations made under section 16(3) of that Act, or
 - (iii) if the transferring scheme provided for those earnings factors or the weekly equivalent derived therefrom to be increased in accordance with the provisions of either section 16(2) and (3) of the 1993 Act or of regulations made under section 16(3) of that Act, the receiving scheme includes provision for those earnings factors to be increased by reference to orders under section 148 of the Administration Act from the date of termination of the earner's service in the period of contracted-out employment from which those earnings factors arose, or
 - (iv) if a transfer of the earner's accrued rights to the receiving scheme is not one to which sub-paragraph (d)(iii) applies and those rights were previously being increased at a rate calculated by reference to orders under section 148 of the Administration Act, the receiving scheme includes provision for those earnings factors or the weekly equivalent derived therefrom to be increased at a rate calculated otherwise than by reference to orders under section 148 of the Administration Act.

Modification of section 51(1) of the 1993 Act in relation to revaluation and schemes which have ceased to be contracted-out.

67. Subject to the provisions of regulation 68, in relation to a scheme which has ceased to be contracted-out and, immediately before it so ceased, contained provision authorised by section 16(2) and (3) of the 1993 Act, section 51(1) to (3) of that Act ^{M36} shall be modified so as to provide that, in the case of an earner whose service in contracted-out employment by reference to the scheme is terminated before he attains pensionable age—

- (a) if it is so terminated before the period of 5 years ending with the tax year in which the scheme ceases to be contracted-out, the provision for taking his earnings factor for any relevant year to be that factor as increased by 12 per cent. for some or all of those tax years shall not apply; and
- (b) if it is so terminated within the period of 5 years, the provision for taking his earnings factor for any relevant year to be that factor as increased by 12 per cent. for some or all of those tax years shall apply, but his weekly equivalent shall not be increased pursuant to any provision required by section 16(2) and (3) of the 1993 Act for the years which that factor is taken to be that factor as increased by 12 per cent.

Additional modifications relating to transfers and increases of earnings factors by 12 per cent..

68.—(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (2) and (3), in any case where an earner's accrued rights to guaranteed minimum pensions are or have been transferred under section 20 of the 1993 Act or regulations made under that section to another contracted-out scheme, or have arisen in such a scheme by reason of a transfer payment giving effect to his protected rights in accordance with regulations made under section 28(2)(b) of the 1993 Act [^{F213}as they had effect prior to the abolition date], references in regulation 67(b) to an increase of 12 per cent. of an earner's earnings factor for any year shall be construed as references only to the increase of earnings factors arising from the earner's service in employment by reference to which the scheme ceasing to contract-out was contracted-out.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), any service of the earner which is linked qualifying service shall be included in that service only where the earnings factors to which it relates are being increased by reference to orders under section 148 of the Administration Act.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (1), where an earner has a guaranteed minimum pension in consequence of a transfer payment made in accordance with regulations made under section 28(2) of the 1993 Act [^{F214}as they had effect prior to the abolition date] —

- (a) that pension shall be treated as if it had arisen as a result of his service in the employment by reference to which the scheme ceasing to be contracted-out was contracted-out; and
- (b) the reference to earnings factors, to the extent that they relate to that pension, shall be construed so as to include only those which do not fall to be revalued in accordance with section 16(2) and (3) of the 1993 Act as modified by those regulations.

[^{F215}Conversion of guaranteed minimum pensions into other benefits: actuarial equivalence

69A.—(1) For the purposes of Condition 1 of section 24B of the 1993 Act (the conversion conditions), actuarial equivalence is to be determined in accordance with this regulation.

(2) The trustees are responsible for determining actuarial equivalence.

(3) In determining actuarial equivalence, the trustees must—

- (a) obtain advice from the actuary about what assumptions are appropriate at the conversion date,
- (b) consider that advice,
- (c) decide what assumptions are appropriate at the conversion date and, if the trustees later think it is necessary, change that decision, and
- (d) arrange for the actuary to calculate the actuarial values of the post-conversion benefits and the pre-conversion benefits in accordance with paragraph (4).

(4) In calculating the actuarial values mentioned in paragraph (3)(d), the actuary must—

- (a) use the assumptions chosen by the trustees under paragraph (3)(c), and
- (b) ignore the value of any—
 - (i) benefits that have been commuted,
 - (ii) amounts that have been paid in respect of any benefits,
 - (iii) amounts in respect of any benefits that, before the conversion date, became due to be paid, and
 - (iv) discretionary benefits that might be awarded in the future.

(5) When the actuarial values mentioned in paragraph (3)(d) have been calculated, the actuary must send the trustees a certificate if the post-conversion benefits are actuarially at least equivalent to the pre-conversion benefits.

(6) The certificate must—

- (a) state that—
 - (i) the calculations have been completed, and
 - (ii) the post-conversion benefits are actuarially at least equivalent to the pre-conversion benefits, and
- (b) be sent to the trustees no later than three months after the calculations have been completed.

PART VIII

TRANSITIONAL ARRANGEMENTS AND SAVINGS

Transitional arrangements for certification of schemes.

70.—(1) In the case of a scheme contracted-out under section 9(2) of the 1993 Act, a contracting-out certificate issued before the principal appointed day shall continue to have effect during the period beginning with that day and ending on either—

- (a) whichever is the earlier of—
 - (i) the day before the effective date of a replacement contracting-out certificate issued by the Secretary of State, or
 - (ii) 31st January 1998, or

(b) such later date as the Secretary of State may in his discretion permit in any particular case, provided that it is not otherwise cancelled or surrendered and the scheme satisfies all contracting-out conditions or requirements which apply to the scheme from the principal appointed day by virtue of it being a scheme to which section 9(2) of that Act applies.

(2) In the case of a scheme contracted-out under section 9(3) of the 1993 Act, a contracting-out certificate issued before the principal appointed day shall continue to have effect on and after that date provided that it is not cancelled or surrendered and the scheme satisfies all contracting-out conditions or requirements which apply to the scheme from the principal appointed day by virtue of it being a scheme to which section 9(3) of that Act applies.

(3) A contracting-out certificate having effect on or after the principal appointed day by virtue of this regulation, shall have effect in relation to any earner’s service on and after that day as if the certificate was issued by the Secretary of State on or after that day.

Elections for replacement certificates by salary-related schemes during transitional period.

71. During the period beginning with the principal appointed day and ending on 31st January 1998 or such later date as the Secretary of State may allow in relation to a particular case or class of case, an election made with a view to the issue of a contracting-out certificate in relation to an employment which is to remain contracted-out under section 9(2) of the 1993 Act on or after the principal appointed day must be made in compliance with regulation 2 and regulation 10 shall not apply.

Transitional requirements as to sufficiency of resources of salary-related schemes.

72.—(1) Except in cases to which regulation 73 applies (schemes which have begun winding up before the principal appointed day) for the purposes of section 9(2B)(c)(i) of the 1993 Act (requirement as to the amount of the resources of the scheme) and section 25(2) of that Act (scheme to comply with prescribed requirements in relation to securing that the resources of the scheme are brought to and maintained at satisfactory level in respect of any earner’s service before the principal appointed day) at any time during the period ^{F221} ... beginning with the principal appointed day [^{F222} and ending with the date of first certification], the amount of resources of the scheme must be sufficient to meet the liabilities specified in paragraph (2).

^{F223}(1A) In paragraph (1) above, the date of first certification means the first occasion on which the actuary to the scheme certifies the rates of contributions shown in a schedule of contributions for the scheme for the purposes of [^{F224}section 227 of the 2004 Act] (schedules of contributions).]

^{F225}(2) The liabilities referred to in paragraph (1) are the liabilities mentioned in [^{F226}section 73(4) of the 1995 Act (liabilities towards which scheme assets must be applied first on winding up).]

(3) ^{F227} ... The liabilities specified in paragraph (2) and the resources required to meet such liabilities shall be calculated, determined and verified in accordance with regulations made under [^{F228}section 222(3) of the 2004 Act (statutory funding objective)] .

^{F229}(4)

^{F229}(5)

(6) This regulation does not apply to a public service pension scheme to which [^{F230}Part 3 of the 2004 Act] does not apply [^{F231}, or to any scheme in respect of which any Minister of the Crown has given a guarantee, or made any other arrangements, for the purposes of securing that the assets of the scheme are sufficient to meet its liabilities.]

[^{F239} SCHEDULE 3

Regulation 23(i)

Further requirements for meeting the statutory standard

Textual Amendments

F239 Sch. 3 added (1.10.2011) by The Occupational Pension Schemes \(Contracting-out\) Amendment Regulations 2011 \(S.I. 2011/1294\), regs. 1(2), 2(3), Schs.

1. The actuary must complete a reference scheme test certificate.
2. The reference scheme test certificate must—
 - (a) certify whether in the actuary’s opinion, the scheme satisfies the statutory standard in relation to the provision of pensions for—
 - (i) earners, and
 - (ii) the widows, widowers or surviving civil partners of earners, and
 - (b) specify the date of the information used by the actuary for the purposes of completing the certificate (referred to in this Schedule as the “effective date”).
3. The actuary must—
 - (a) send the completed reference scheme test certificate to Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs and send a signed copy of that certificate to the employer, or
 - (b) send the completed reference scheme test certificate to the employer and inform the employer that that certificate should be sent to Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Occupational Pension Schemes (Contracting-out) Regulations 1996. (See end of Document for details)

4. Where the actuary is sending the first reference scheme test certificate for a scheme, the actuary must also inform—

- (a) the [^{F240}trustees or managers of the scheme] and the employer that Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs provide guidance on contracting-out, including guidance on what changes need to be notified to Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs,
- (b) the employer that it should provide a copy of the completed certificate to the [^{F240}trustees or managers of the scheme], and
- (c) the employer that it should keep a record of any subsidiary or associated employers.

Textual Amendments

F240 Words in Sch. 3 para. 4(a)(b) substituted (6.4.2012) by The Occupational Pension Schemes \(Contracting-out and Modification of Schemes\) \(Amendment\) Regulations 2012 \(S.I. 2012/542\), regs. 1(2), 2(3)

5.—(1) Where the employer asks the actuary to advise whether the statutory standard is satisfied, the actuary must inform the trustees or managers of the scheme that the employer has asked for that advice.

(2) Sub-paragraph (1) does not apply if the actuary has previously informed the trustees or managers of the scheme that the actuary provides advice to the employer.

6. Where the scheme calculates pensions by different methods for different members, the actuary—

- (a) must decide whether the pensions provided under each method are broadly equivalent to, or better than, the pensions which would be provided under a reference scheme, and
- (b) must not complete a reference scheme test certificate for any members whose pensions are calculated by a method which does not provide pensions that are broadly equivalent to, or better than, the pensions which would be provided under a reference scheme.

7. The actuary must not complete a reference scheme test certificate if the average value of pension provided under the scheme is less than the average value of pension which would be provided under a reference scheme.

8. Where an employer asks for a separate reference scheme test certificate which only includes its employees, the actuary must—

- (a) provide that employer with a separate reference scheme test certificate, and
- (b) consider only the employees of that employer for that certificate.

9. Where—

- (a) an employer has two or more schemes, and
- (b) none of those schemes can be contracted-out by itself under section 9(1) of the 1993 Act (requirements for certification of schemes: general), the actuary may take into account the pensions provided under all those schemes.

10. The actuary must use any information about the earner's remuneration which—

- (a) the actuary considers is relevant for the reference scheme test certificate,
- (b) is the latest available information, and
- (c) subject to paragraph 11, refers to the period of one year.

11. Where—

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Occupational Pension Schemes (Contracting-out) Regulations 1996. (See end of Document for details)

(a) the actuary is satisfied that the information about the earner's remuneration which refers to a period of one year is significantly abnormal, and

(b) the employer writes to the actuary stating that it is also so satisfied, the actuary may use such information for the purposes of paragraph 10(c) which refers to the period of three years ending on the effective date.

12.—(1) This paragraph applies where, on the effective date, the scheme has not been established but is in the process of being established.

(2) For the purposes of carrying out the comparison under regulation 23, the actuary must use estimated membership information.

(3) In this paragraph, "estimated membership information" means any information about the earners who the actuary expects to join the scheme when it is established which—

(a) the actuary considers is necessary for the purposes of the comparison under regulation 23, and

(b) may include information on the age, gender and earnings of those earners.

13.—(1) The pensions provided under the scheme for the purposes of carrying out the comparison under regulation 23 are the pensions referred to in sub-paragraph (2).

(2) The pensions are those which the actuary expects will accrue in the three years after the effective date.

(3) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (2), the actuary must—

(a) assume that the earner leaves pensionable service—

(i) at the end of the three-year period mentioned in sub-paragraph (2), or

(ii) if the earner attains normal pension age before the end of that three-year period, on the date on which the earner attains normal pension age,

(b) assume that pensions are payable from the date on which the earner attains normal pension age,

(c) where the earner has accrued their maximum pension under the scheme during any part of the three-year period mentioned in sub-paragraph (2), assume that that maximum pension accrues at the same rate for each year of the pensionable service which the earner is likely to complete up to a maximum of 40 years, and

(d) take into account the person whom the actuary expects will be entitled to receive the pensions referred to in sub-paragraph (2).

14.—(1) For the purposes of carrying out the comparison under regulation 23, the actuary must use—

(a) where a statement of funding principles has been prepared or revised for the scheme under section 223 of the 2004 Act (statement of funding principles), the actuarial assumptions in the most recent such statement, and

(b) any other actuarial assumptions which the actuary considers necessary.

(2) The actuarial assumptions referred to in sub-paragraph (1) must be used for valuing—

(a) the pensions provided under the scheme, and

(b) the pensions which would be provided under a reference scheme.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Occupational Pension Schemes (Contracting-out) Regulations 1996. (See end of Document for details)

15.—(1) For the purposes of carrying out the comparison under regulation 23, the pensions provided under the scheme for widows, widowers and surviving civil partners are subject to the following requirements of this paragraph.

(2) The actuary must carry out a separate comparison for pensions the actuary expects to accrue during the three-year period referred to in paragraph 13(2) in respect of—

- (a) death in service (see sub-paragraphs (3), (9) and (10) of this paragraph),
- (b) death in deferment (see sub-paragraph (4)), and
- (c) death in retirement (see sub-paragraphs (5) and (11)).

(3) A death in service pension must be valued as if the earner died—

- (a) three years after the effective date, or
- (b) if the earner attains normal pension age before that date, on the day before the date on which the earner attains normal pension age.

(4) A death in deferment pension must be valued as if the earner died more than three years after the effective date.

(5) A death in retirement pension must be valued as if the earner died after the date on which the earner attains normal pension age.

(6) The actuary may not complete the reference scheme test certificate unless each of the pensions referred to in sub-paragraph (2) are broadly equivalent to, or better than, those which would be provided under a reference scheme.

(7) Sub-paragraph (8) applies where—

- (a) a pension which is in payment for a widow, widower or surviving civil partner has been reduced under the scheme because they were at least 10 years younger than the earner, or
- (b) a pension which may become payable in the future for a widow, widower or surviving civil partner would be reduced under the scheme if they were at least 10 years younger than the earner.

(8) Where this sub-paragraph applies, the actuary—

- (a) must estimate, where sub-paragraph (7)(b) applies, the number and amount of future pension reductions which the actuary thinks are likely to occur, and
- (b) may ignore any part of the reductions referred to in sub-paragraph (7) which are or are likely to be—
 - (i) made in respect of each complete year during which the age difference referred to in sub-paragraph (7) was at least 10, and
 - (ii) 2.5% or less for each such year.

(9) Sub-paragraph (10) applies where any death in service pensions—

- (a) have an accrual rate of less than 1/160ths of any qualifying earnings within the meaning of section 12B(5) of the 1993 Act (reference scheme) and are calculated by reference to—
 - (i) the number of years of pensionable service which the earner has completed in the scheme, and
 - (ii) any amount which is additional to the number of years of pensionable service referred to in sub-paragraph (i), or
- (b) are not calculated by reference to the number of years of pensionable service.

(10) Where this sub-paragraph applies, the actuary must compare under sub-paragraph (2)(a) the death in service pension with a reference scheme—

- (a) based on the earner's pensionable service up to the date which applies under sub-paragraph (3), and
- (b) excluding any of the earner's pensionable service which took place before—
 - (i) the date on which a contracting-out certificate was first issued to the scheme, or
 - (ii) in the case of female earners or surviving civil partners, 6th April 1988 where that date is later than the date referred to in sub-paragraph (i).

(11) Where a death in retirement pension can be reduced under the scheme if the earner takes part of their pension as a lump sum on retirement, the actuary must reduce the death in retirement pension by an amount broadly consistent with the average such reductions made by the scheme in relation to other earners.

16.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), this paragraph applies in each of the following circumstances—

- (a) where the actuary has been informed of any changes to—
 - (i) the scheme rules, or
 - (ii) the membership of the scheme (including changes to the remuneration of scheme members),which the actuary thinks might affect the scheme's ability to satisfy the statutory standard;
- (b) where, after estimated membership information has been used in accordance with paragraph 12, actual information becomes available about the members who have joined the scheme;
- (c) unless paragraph (a) or (b) applies, three years after the effective date;
- (d) three years after the date on which this paragraph (that is, paragraph 16 of this Schedule) last applied.

(2) This paragraph does not apply where the scheme is no longer required to satisfy the statutory standard.

(3) The actuary must consider whether there have been any changes which would prevent a reference scheme test certificate from being issued.

(4) If—

- (a) there have been any changes referred to in sub-paragraph (3), and
- (b) no further changes have been made which the actuary considers would enable a reference scheme test certificate to be issued, the actuary must inform in writing the trustees or managers of the scheme, Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs and the employer.

17. In this Schedule—

“accrual rate” means the rate at which, under the scheme rules, rights to the pension accrue over time by reference to periods of service in any description of employment to which the scheme applies;

“death in deferment pension” means a pension payable in respect of an earner who dies—

- (a) otherwise than in pensionable service under the scheme, and
- (b) before their own entitlements to pensions under the scheme have commenced;

“death in retirement pension” means a pension payable in respect of an earner who dies after their own entitlements to pensions under the scheme have commenced;

“death in service pension” means a pension payable in respect of an earner who dies in pensionable service under the scheme;

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Occupational Pension Schemes (Contracting-out) Regulations 1996. (See end of Document for details)

- “earner” means an earner in employed earner’s employment;
- “effective date” has the meaning given in paragraph 2(b);
- “normal pension age” means the earliest age at which an earner may be entitled to payment of an unreduced pension;
- “unreduced pension” means a pension which—
- (a) has not been actuarially reduced as a result of early payment of the pension, and
 - (b) does not include any discretionary benefits.]

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations replace the Occupational Pension Schemes (Contracting-out) Regulations 1984 and other related regulations which are now revoked. The Regulations supplement the changes introduced by the Pensions Act 1995 to Part III of the Pension Schemes Act 1993. They also consolidate and amend those provisions of the 1984 Regulations which remain relevant. The regulations made by virtue of Part III of the Pensions Act 1995 are made within six months of those provisions coming into force and as a consequence there is no requirement to consult. As regards other regulations, the Occupational Pensions Board has agreed that proposals to make regulations need not be referred to it.

Part II of these Regulations provides for the procedure for employers to make elections to contract out employments, for notice and consultation requirements and the issue of contracting-out certificates by the Secretary of State.

Part III concerns the new requirements applying to salary-related contracted-out schemes from 6th April 1997. Provision is made as to the level of resources required (regulation 18), payment of lump sums and commutation of benefits (regulations 19 and 20), the age at which benefits can be paid (regulation 21) and meeting the statutory standard in accordance with section 9(2B)(a) of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 (regulations 22 to 27).

Part IV concerns money purchase contracted-out schemes. Provision is made for further requirements applying to such schemes (regulation 30); the deduction, payment and calculation of minimum payments (regulations 31, 32 and 33); the manner of calculating or estimating earnings (regulation 34); the manner and adjustment of age-related payments and the circumstances in which such payments are not to be made (regulations 35, 37 and 38); verification of age (regulation 36); the circumstances in which a money purchase scheme can change mode of contracting-out (regulation 39) and schemes which may not be contracted-out (regulation 40).

Part V provides for additional requirements applying to all schemes and special requirements applying to overseas schemes. Provision is made for requirements concerning information about resources (regulation 41); alteration of scheme rules (regulation 42); termination of contracted-out employment (regulation 43); notifications to the Secretary of State (regulation 44); approval and supervision of schemes which cease contracting-out (regulations 45 and 46); variation and cancellation of certificates (regulation 47); and overseas schemes (regulation 48).

Part VI concerns the restoration of rights in the State scheme. It provides for cases where a scheme is insolvent (regulations 49 and 50) and carries forward some provisions relating to contributions equivalent premiums (regulations 51 to 54).

Part VII provides for requirements applying to guaranteed minimum pensions which have accrued up until 6th April 1997. It carries forward the requirements applying to guaranteed minimum pensions which were previously contained in the Occupational Pension Schemes (Contracting-out) Regulations 1984.

Part VIII concerns transitional arrangements and savings. Provision is made in relation to the transitional arrangements for certification of schemes (regulation 70); the renewal of certificates by salary-related schemes during a transitional period (regulation 71); transitional requirements as to resources for salary-related schemes (regulation 72); transitional arrangements and savings for salary-related schemes which have commenced winding up before 6th April 1997 (regulation 73); transitional arrangements concerning approval of schemes ceasing to be contracted-out before 6th April 1997 (regulation 74); transitional modifications relating to issue and cancellation of further certificates (regulation 75); the prevention of recovery of Class 1 contributions in certain circumstances (regulation 76). Savings are made in respect of transitional arrangements for state scheme premiums (regulation 77).

Revocations are made in regulation 78 and Schedule 2.

An assessment of the compliance cost for employers of the measures arising from the Pensions Act 1995, including these Regulations, has been placed in the libraries of both Houses of Parliament.
