Meaning of expression “connected employer”.

64.—(1) The cases in which employers are to be treated as connected for the purposes of section 35 of the 1993 Act (surrender and cancellation: issue of further certificates) are those specified in paragraph (2).

(2) The cases referred to in paragraph (1) are those where any two employers are or were, at the relevant time—

- (b) where earnings factors of an earner whose accrued rights to guaranteed minimum pensions, including such rights derived from linked qualifying service, have been transferred under section 20(1) of the 1993 Act or regulations made thereunder to another contracted-out scheme, section 16(2) and (3) of that Act shall be modified so as to have effect as if it permitted that scheme to provide for those earnings factors to be determined for the purpose of section 14(2) of that Act without reference to any order coming into force under section 148 of the Administration Act—
  - (i) after the relevant year in which his service in the contracted-out employment, by reference to the scheme from which those rights were transferred, was terminated where such earnings factors have previously fallen to be determined by reference to orders under section 148 of the Administration Act, or
  - (ii) in and after the relevant year in which that service was terminated in any other case, and as if section 16(3) of the 1993 Act had effect accordingly, save, in a case to which sub-paragraph (ii) applies, for treating the reference to the amount of the increase in section 16(3) as a reference to the amount by which the earnings factors relevant to the weekly equivalent would be increased.]
