1996 No. 1192

The Specified Bovine Material (No. 2) Order 1996

Veterinary or laboratory premises, etc.

20.—(1) No person shall transport specified bovine material to premises specified in article 11 above unless the specified bovine material is in a container marked with—

- (a) the words “specified bovine material”;
- (b) its place of destination; and
- (c) the name of the person to whom it is being sent.

(2) Any person delivering specified bovine material to such premises shall state in writing to the occupier of the premises the place from which the specified bovine material was collected for delivery.

(3) The person to whom the specified bovine material is consigned shall record on arrival of the specified bovine material at the premises—

- (a) the weight of the specified bovine material delivered;
- (b) the date of delivery; and
- (c) the place from which it was consigned, and shall keep such records for two years from the date of arrival.

(4) When the specified bovine material is no longer needed, the person to whom it was consigned shall ensure that any residual specified bovine material is buried or effectively destroyed and shall keep a record for two years of the place and method of burial or destruction.
