

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SCHEDULE 11

Requirements for Type A packages

9. If the containment system forms a separate unit of the package, it shall be capable of being securely closed by a positive fastening device which is independent of any other part of the packaging.