

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SCHEDULE 30

Package inspection requirements before any shipment

3. Each Type B package shall be held until equilibrium conditions have been approached closely enough to demonstrate compliance with the shipment requirements for temperature and pressure unless an exemption from these requirements has received unilateral approval.