(4) Where different information is applicable to different members, prospective members and beneficiaries, nothing in this regulation shall be construed as requiring the trustees to disclose information in relation to a member, prospective member or beneficiary that is not relevant to that person's rights or prospective rights under the scheme, or, where disclosure is made to a trade union, of any matter which is not relevant to the rights or prospective rights of members or prospective members who are of a class of employee in relation to which the trade union is a recognised trade union for the purposes of collective bargaining.

(5) The trustees shall notify all members and beneficiaries (except excluded persons) of any change in relation to the scheme which will result in a material alteration in the information referred to in paragraphs 1 to 25 and 29 of Schedule 1, before that change takes effect, where it is practicable so to do, and in any event not later than 3 months after that change has taken effect.

(6) When any information specified in Schedule 1 is provided, it shall be accompanied by a written statement that further information about the scheme is available, giving the address to which enquiries about it should be sent.

(5) In the case of a scheme which provides money purchase benefits, the information mentioned in paragraphs 5 and 6 of Schedule 2 shall be furnished in relation to those money purchase benefits, as of course, to each member of the scheme eligible for money purchase benefits so far as it relates to such member (except excluded persons), within 9 months of the end of the first scheme year and thereafter at least once in every period of 12 months after the date of his becoming a member of it.

(6) Where a scheme is, or has been, a money purchase scheme, or a scheme which makes provision for the payment of money purchase benefits in relation to one or more members' employments, the information mentioned in paragraph 7 of Schedule 2 shall be sent, as of course, to each such member—

- (a) in a case where the trustees or managers of the scheme know of no reason to suppose that the member will not give effect to his rights on the date on which he attains normal pension age, at least 6 months before he attains that age;
- (b) in any other case—
 - (i) if the date of the agreement in respect of when the member is to give effect to his rights ("the date of agreement") is more than 6 months before the agreed date for giving effect to his rights ("the agreed date"), at least 6 months before the agreed date, and is authorised to act on behalf of the person to whom rights or options under the scheme may be available in consequence of the death, as soon as practicable and, in any event, within 2 months after the request is made.
 - (ii) if the date of agreement is not more than 6 months before the agreed date, within 7 days of the date of agreement and in any event before the agreed date.

(9) The information mentioned in paragraphs 13 and 14 of Schedule 2 shall be furnished on request (not being a request made less than 12 months after the last occasion on which such information was furnished to the same person) to any member or prospective member within 2 months of his request.

(10) Subject to paragraph (11), when the trustees have commenced winding up the scheme, they shall as of course, as soon as practicable, and in any event within 1 month—
