- (dd) where the determination in (i) above relates to the Flexible New Deal, on a previous occasion the jobseeker's allowance was determined not to be payable to him in circumstances falling within section 19(5) or section 20A(2)(a) to (c) that relate to any element of that programme, and]
- (iii) the first date on which the jobseeker's allowance was not payable to him on that previous occasion falls within the period of 12 months preceding the date of the determination mentioned in (b)(i) above;
- (c) 26 weeks in any case [^{F14}(other than a case where a jobseeker's allowance is determined not to be payable in circumstances relating to the employment programme known as "Gateway to Work" specified in regulation 75(1)(a)(i)(bb))] in which—
 - (i) a jobseeker's allowance is determined not to be payable to the claimant in circumstances falling within section 19(5) [^{F7}or section 20A(2)(a) to (c)] and the determination relates to an act or omission arising after this regulation comes into force in respect of one of the New Deal options; and
 - (ii) on two or more previous occasions a jobseeker's allowance has been determined not to be payable to the claimant in circumstances falling within section 19(5) [^{F7}or section 20A(2)(a) to (c)] and each such determination relates to one of the New Deal options; and
 - (iii) no more than 12 months have elapsed between the beginning of the day on which the determination mentioned in (c)(i) above is made and the beginning of the first day on which a jobseeker's allowance was not payable to the claimant as a result of the determination which most recently preceded it whether the preceding determination is either—
 - (aa) a determination falling within sub-paragraph (b)(i) to which the circumstances in sub-paragraph (b)(ii)(bb) apply; or
 - (bb) itself an earlier determination falling within sub-paragraph (c)(i).
- [^{F15}(d) 26 weeks in any case (other than a case where a jobseeker's allowance is determined not to be payable in circumstances relating to the employment programme known as "Gateway to Work" specified in regulation 75(1)(a)(i)(bb)) in which—
 - (i) a jobseeker's allowance is determined not to be payable to the claimant in circumstances falling within section 19(5) or section 20A(2)(a) to (c) and the determination relates to an act or omission arising after this regulation comes into force in respect of the Intensive Activity Period specified in regulation 75(1)(a)(iv); and
 - (ii) on two or more previous occasions a jobseeker's allowance has been determined not to be payable to the claimant in circumstances falling within section 19(5) or section 20A(2)(a) to (c) and each such determination relates to any Intensive Activity Period specified in regulation 75(1)(a)(iv); and
 - (iii) no more than 12 months have elapsed between the beginning of the day on which the determination mentioned in (d)(i) above is made and the beginning of the first day on which a jobseeker's allowance was not payable to the claimant as a result of the determination which most recently preceded it whether the preceding determination is either—
 - (aa) a determination falling within sub-paragraph (b)(i) to which the circumstances in paragraph (b)(ii)(cc) apply; or
 - (bb) itself an earlier determination falling within sub-paragraph (d)(i).]

- [^{F16}(e) 26 weeks in any case (other than a case where a jobseeker's allowance is determined not to be payable in circumstances relating to the employment programme known as "Gateway to Work" specified in regulation 75(1)(a)(i)(bb)) in which—
- (i) a jobseeker's allowance is determined not to be payable to the claimant in circumstances falling within section 19(5) or section 20A(2)(a) to (c) and the determination relates to an act or omission arising after this regulation comes into force in respect of the Flexible New Deal; and
 - (ii) on two or more previous occasions a jobseeker's allowance has been determined not to be payable to the claimant in circumstances falling within section 19(5) or section 20A(2)(a) to (c) and each such determination relates to the Flexible New Deal; and
 - (iii) no more than 12 months have elapsed between the beginning of the day on which the determination mentioned in (e)(i) above is made and the beginning of the first day on which a jobseeker's allowance was not payable to the claimant as a result of the determination which most recently preceded it whether the preceding determination is either—
 - (aa) a determination falling within sub-paragraph (b)(i) to which the circumstances in paragraph (b)(ii)(dd) apply; or
 - (bb) itself an earlier determination falling within sub-paragraph (e)(i);
- (f) one week in a case where a jobseeker's allowance is determined not to be payable in circumstances—
- (i) relating to a Back to Work Session; and
 - (ii) falling within section 19(5)(a) or 20A(2)(a).]

(2) The prescribed period for the purposes of [^{F17}sections 19(2) and 20A(3)] shall begin—

 - (a) where, in accordance with regulation 26A(1) of the Claims and Payments Regulations, a jobseeker's allowance is paid otherwise than fortnightly in arrears, on the day following the end of the last benefit week in respect of which that allowance was paid; and
 - (b) in any other case, on the first day of the benefit week following the date on which a jobseeker's allowance is determined not to be payable.

(3) In a case falling within paragraph [^{F18}(1)(c), (d) or (e)] of this regulation in which—

 - (a) or the first time a determination is made that for a period of 26 weeks a jobseeker's allowance is not payable to the claimant; and
 - (b) no further such determination is made; and
 - (c) the Secretary of State gives notice in writing to the claimant that he is no longer required to participate in any of the New Deal options [^{F19}or the Intensive Activity Period specified in regulation 75(1)(a)(iv)] [^{F20}or the Flexible New Deal], an income-based jobseeker's allowance shall be payable to the claimant during the period specified in paragraph (4) even though section 19 [^{F21}or section 20A] would otherwise prevent the payment of such an allowance.

(4) The period referred to in paragraph (3) shall—

[^{F22}(a) begin on either—

 - (i) the day specified in a notice by the Secretary of State as being the day on which the claimant is or was no longer required to participate in—
 - (aa) any of the New Deal options,
 - (bb) the Intensive Activity Period specified in regulation 75(1)(a)(iv), or

- (cc) the Flexible New Deal, or
- (ii) the day four weeks after the first day on which a jobseeker's allowance was not payable as a result of the first determination mentioned in paragraph (3), whichever is the later;]
- (b) end on the last day when a jobseeker's allowance was not payable as a result of the first determination mentioned in paragraph (3); but
- (c) not include any period during which a jobseeker's allowance is again determined not to be payable to the claimant in circumstances falling within section 19(5) or (6) [^{F23}or section 20A(2)].]

Good Cause for the purposes of section 19(5)(a) and (6)(c) and (d)

72.—(1) This regulation shall have effect for the purposes of section 19 (circumstances in which a jobseeker's allowance is not payable) ^{F31}and section 20A (denial or reduction of joint-claim jobseeker's allowance)].

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), in determining whether a person has good cause for any act or omission for the purposes of section 19(5)(a) and (6)(c) and (d) ^{F32}and section 20A(2)(a), (f) and (g)] the matters which are to be taken into account shall include the following—

- (a) any restrictions on availability which apply in the claimant's case in accordance with regulations 6, 7, 8^{F33}, 13 and 17A] having regard to the extent of any disparity between those restrictions and the requirements of the vacancy in question;
- (b) any condition or personal circumstance of that person which indicates that a particular employment or carrying out the jobseeker's direction would be likely to or did—
 - (i) cause significant harm to his health; or
 - (ii) subject him to excessive physical or mental stress;
- (c) the fact that the failure to undertake a particular employment or to carry out the jobseeker's direction resulted from a religious or conscientious objection sincerely held;
- (d) any caring responsibilities which would, or did, make it unreasonable for the person to undertake a particular employment or carry out the jobseeker's direction;
- (e) the time it took, or would normally take, for the person to travel from his home to the place of the employment or to a place mentioned in the jobseeker's direction and back to his home by a route and means appropriate to his circumstances and to the employment or to the carrying out of the jobseeker's direction;
- (f) the expenses which were, or would be, necessarily and exclusively incurred by the person for the purposes of the employment or of carrying out the jobseeker's direction, together with any expenses of travelling to and from the place of the employment or a place mentioned in the jobseeker's direction by a route and means appropriate to his circumstances, if those expenses did, or would, represent an unreasonably high proportion of—
 - (i) in the case of employment, the remuneration which it is reasonable to expect that he would derive from that employment; or
 - (ii) in any other case, the income which he received, or would receive, while carrying out the jobseeker's direction.

- [^{F34}(g) any child care expenses which were, or would be, necessarily incurred by the person as a result of his being in the employment or of carrying out the jobseeker's direction if those expenses did, or would, represent an unreasonably high proportion of—
- (i) in the case of employment, the remuneration which it is reasonable to expect that he would derive from that employment; or
 - (ii) in any other case, the income which he received, or would receive, while carrying out the jobseeker's direction.]

[^{F35}(2A) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(d), where the person has caring responsibilities in relation to a child, in considering whether those responsibilities would, or did, make it unreasonable for him to undertake a particular employment or carry out the jobseeker's direction, regard shall be had, in particular, to the following matters—

- (a) child care would not be, or was not, reasonably available to him, or
- (b) if it would be, or it was, available, it would be, or was, unsuitable due to his particular needs or those of the child.]

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(f) [^{F36}and (g)], in considering whether expenses did, or would, represent an unreasonably high proportion of remuneration or income, the principle shall apply that the greater the level of remuneration or income the higher the proportion thereof which it is reasonable should be represented by expenses.

[^{F37}(3A) Without prejudice to any other circumstances in which a person may be regarded as having good cause for any act or omission for the purposes of section 19(6)(c) and (d) [^{F38}and section 20A(2)(f) and (g)], a person to whom regulation 17A(2) applies, in respect of whom an employment officer has determined that he may undertake a qualifying course, and who is undertaking such a course as a full-time student, is to be regarded as having good cause for any act or omission for the purposes of section 19(6)(c) and (d) [^{F38}and section 20A(2)(f) and (g)] where—

- (a) the act or omission took place within a period of 4 weeks before the end of his qualifying course or of his examinations; or
- (b) the employment consists of employment for which he is not required to be available in accordance with regulation 17A(3)(c) unless it is permanent full-time employment.

(3B) In paragraph (3A)(b), "full-time employment" means remunerative work as defined in regulation 51(1)(a).]

(4) Where a person has undergone training for a particular kind of employment for a period of not less than 2 months, he is to be regarded for a period of 4 weeks beginning with the day on which the training ends as having good cause for any act or omission for the purposes of section 19(5)(a) and (6)(c) and (d) [^{F39}and section 20A(2)(a), (f) and (g)], for—

- (a) refusing or failing to apply for, or refusing to accept, employment of any other kind when offered to him;
- (b) neglecting to avail himself of a reasonable opportunity of employment of any other kind;
- (c) refusing or failing to carry out a jobseeker's direction given to him with a view to assisting him to find employment of any other kind.

(5) A person is to be regarded as having good cause for any act or omission for the purposes of section 19(5)(a) and (6)(c) and (d) [^{F39}and section 20A(2)(a), (f) and (g)] if, and to the extent that, the reason for that act or omission—

- (a) results from restrictions on availability which apply in the claimant's case for the period permitted in accordance with regulations 16 and 17;
- (b) results from the fact that the claimant is, in accordance with regulation 5(1) to (3) and (5), excepted from any requirement to be able to take up employment immediately, or is,

in accordance with regulation 5(4), excepted from any requirement to be able to take up employment at a time when he is not available;

^{F40}(c)

^{F41}(5A) A person is to be regarded as having good cause for any act or omission for the purposes of section 19(6)(c) and (d) ^{F42}and section 20A(2)(f) and (g)] if—

- (a) in a case where it has been agreed that the claimant may restrict his hours of availability to less than 24 hours a week, the employment in question is for less than 16 hours a week; or
- (b) in a case not falling within sub-paragraph (a), the employment is for less than 24 hours a week.]

(6) Subject to paragraphs (8) and (9), a person is not to be regarded as having good cause for any act or omission for the purposes of section 19(5)(a) and (6)(c) and (d) ^{F39}and section 20A(2)(a), (f) and (g)] if, and to the extent that, the reason for that act or omission relates to—

- (a) subject to paragraph (7), his income or outgoings or the income or outgoings of any other member of his household, or the income or outgoings which he or any other member of his household would have if he were to become employed or to carry out the jobseeker's direction, or did have whilst carrying out the jobseeker's direction, but for the purposes of this sub-paragraph a person's outgoings shall not include any expenses taken into account under paragraph (2)(f) ^{F43}or (g);]
- (b) the time it took, or would normally take, for the person to travel from his home to the place of the employment, or a place mentioned in the jobseeker's direction, and back to his home where that time was or is normally less than^{F44},—
 - (i) during the first 13 weeks of entitlement to a jobseeker's allowance, one hour either way; and
 - (ii) in all other cases, one hour and thirty minutes either way, by a route and means appropriate to his circumstances and to the employment, or to the carrying out of the jobseeker's direction, unless, in view of the health of the person or any caring responsibilities of his, that time was or is unreasonable.]

(7) Paragraph (6)(a) shall not apply—

- (a) where the claimant has agreed a restriction on the level of remuneration he was prepared to accept under regulations 13(3) and 16; or
- (b) the employment is remunerated only by commission.

(8) A person shall be regarded for the purposes of section 19(6)(d) ^{F45}and section 20A(2)(g)] as having good cause for neglecting to avail himself of an opportunity of employment unless the situation is a qualifying former employment of that person.

(9) For the purposes of paragraph (8) a situation is a qualifying former employment of any person if—

- (a) it is employment with an employer for whom he has previously worked or with an employer who has succeeded that employer; and
- (b) not more than 12 months have elapsed between—
 - (i) the date when he last worked for that employer and
 - (ii) the date when the question under section 19(6)(d) ^{F46}or section 20A(2)(g)] arose or, as the case may be, arises, and
- (c) the terms and conditions of employment in the situation are not less favourable than those in the situation which he held when he last worked for that employer.

Good Cause for the purposes of section 19(5)(b)

73.—(1) This regulation shall have effect for the purposes of section 19 (circumstances in which a jobseeker's allowance is not payable) [^{F47}and section 20A (denial or reduction of joint-claim jobseeker's allowance)].

(2) Without prejudice to any other circumstances in which a person may be regarded as having good cause for any act or omission for the purposes of section 19(5)(b) [^{F48}and section 20A(2)(b)], a person is to be regarded as having good cause for any act or omission for those purposes if, and to the extent that, the act or omission is attributable to any of the following circumstances—

- (a) the claimant in question was suffering from some disease or bodily or mental disablement on account of which—
- (i) he was not able to attend the relevant training scheme or employment programme in question;
 - (ii) his attendance would have put at risk his health; or

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to The Jobseeker's Allowance Regulations 1996. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (iii) his attendance would have put at risk the health of other persons;
- (b) the claimant's failure to participate in the training scheme or employment programme resulted from a religious or conscientious objection sincerely held;
- (c) the time it took, or would normally have taken, for the claimant to travel from his home to the training scheme or employment programme and back to his home by a route and means appropriate to his circumstances and to the scheme or programme exceeded, or would normally have exceeded, one hour in either direction or, where no appropriate training scheme or employment programme is available within one hour of his home, such greater time as is necessary in the particular circumstances of the nearest appropriate scheme or programme;
- (d) the claimant had caring responsibilities and—
 - (i) no close relative of the person he cared for and no other member of that person's household was available to care for him; and
 - (ii) in the circumstances of the case it was not practical for the claimant to make other arrangements for the care of that person;
- (e) the claimant was attending court as a party to any proceedings, or as a witness or as a juror;
- (f) the claimant was arranging or attending the funeral of a close relative or close friend;
- (g) the claimant was engaged in—
 - (i) the manning or launching of a lifeboat; or
 - (ii) the performance of duty as a part-time member of a fire brigade;
- (h) the claimant was required to deal with some domestic emergency; or
- (i) the claimant was engaged during an emergency in duties for the benefit of others.
- ^{F49}(j) the claimant gave up a place on a training scheme or an employment programme and if he had continued to participate in it he would have, or would have been likely to have, put his health and safety at risk.]

^{F50}(2A) Without prejudice to any other circumstances in which a person may be regarded as having good cause for any act or omission for the purposes of section 19(5)(b) [^{F48}and section 20A(2)(b)], a person is to be regarded as having good cause for any act or omission for those purposes if—

- (a) the act or omission relates to an employment programme specified in regulation 75(1)(a) (ii) [^{F51}or (iv)] [^{F52}or (v)] or the training scheme specified in regulation 75(1)(b)(ii), and
- (b) he had not, prior to that act or omission, been given or sent a notice in writing by an employment officer referring to the employment programme or training scheme in question ("the specified programme") and advising him that if any of the circumstances mentioned in section 19(5)(b) [^{F53}or section 20A(2)(b)] arise in his case in relation to the specified programme his jobseeker's allowance could cease to be payable or could be payable at a lower rate.]

^{F54}(2B) Without prejudice to any other circumstances in which a person may be regarded as having good cause for any act or omission for the purposes of section 19(5)(b) [^{F48}and section 20A(2)(b)], a person to whom regulation 17A(2) applies, in respect of whom an employment officer has determined that he may undertake a qualifying course, and who is undertaking such a course as a full-time student, is to be regarded as having good cause for any act or omission—

- (a) for the purposes of section 19(5)(b) [^{F48}and section 20A(2)(b)] where the act or omission was in relation to an employment programme and he was, or would have been, required to attend the employment programme at a time which would have prevented him from attending the qualifying course;

- (b) for the purposes of section 19(5)(b)(iii) and (iv) [^{F55}and section 20A(2)(b)(iii) and (iv)] where—
- (i) the act or omission was in relation to a qualifying course undertaken by him and occurred less than 4 weeks after the first day of the period of study;
 - (ii) the act or omission was in relation to a qualifying course undertaken by him and was due to his lack of ability; or
 - (iii) the act or omission was in relation to a qualifying course undertaken by him which was not suitable for him;]
- (3) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(i),
- (a) a person is engaged in duties for the benefit of others while—
 - (i) providing assistance to any person whose life may be endangered or who may be exposed to the risk of serious bodily injury or whose health may be seriously impaired;
 - (ii) protecting property of substantial value from imminent risk of serious damage or destruction; or
 - (iii) assisting in measures being taken to prevent a serious threat to the health of the people;as a member of a group of persons organised wholly or partly for the purpose of providing such assistance or, as the case may be, protection;
 - (b) events which may give rise to an emergency include—
 - (i) a fire, flood or an explosion;
 - (ii) a natural catastrophe;
 - (iii) a railway or other transport accident;
 - (iv) a cave or mountain accident;
 - (v) an accident at sea;
 - (vi) a person being reported missing and the organisation of a search for that person.

[^{F56}(4) For the purposes of paragraph (2B)(b)(iii), a qualifying course is suitable for a person if it is suitable for him in vocationally relevant respects, namely his personal capacity, aptitude, his preference, the level of qualification aimed at, duration of the course and proportion of time, if any, which the person has spent on the training in relation to the length of the course.]

[^{F57}Just cause for the purpose of sections 19(6)(b) and 20A(2)(e)

73A.—(1) This regulation applies for the purposes of section 19 (circumstances in which a jobseeker's allowance is not payable) and section 20A (denial or reduction of joint-claim jobseeker's allowance).

(2) In determining whether a person has just cause for any act or omission for the purposes of section 19(6)(b) and section 20A(2)(e), the matters which are to be taken into account shall include the following—

- (a) any caring responsibilities for a child which made it unreasonable for the person to remain in his employment;
- (b) any child care expenses which were necessarily incurred by the person as a result of his being in the employment if those expenses represented an unreasonably high proportion of the remuneration which he derived from the employment.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(a), in considering whether the caring responsibilities made it unreasonable for the person to remain in his employment, regard shall be had, in particular, to the following matters—

- (a) child care would not be, or was not, reasonably available to him, or
- (b) if it would be, or it was, available, it would be, or was, unsuitable due to his particular needs or those of the child.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(b), in considering whether child care expenses represented an unreasonably high proportion of remuneration, the principle shall apply that the greater the level of remuneration the higher the proportion which it is reasonable should be represented by such expenses.]

Person of prescribed description for the purpose of section 20(3)

74.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), a person shall be of a prescribed description for the purposes of section 20(3) [^{F58}and section 20B(3)] (exemption from non-payment of jobseeker's allowance) and shall not fall within section 19(6)(b) or (d) [^{F59}or section 20A(2)(e) or (g)] if he has neither worked in employed earner's employment, nor has been a self-employed earner, nor been a full-time student nor been in relevant education, during the period of 13 weeks preceding the day of the commencement of the employment.

- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), a person shall not be regarded as having—
- (a) worked in employed earner's employment; or
 - (b) been a self-employed earner; or
 - (c) been a full-time student or been in relevant education;

by reason only of any engagement in an activity referred to in paragraph (3) or by his attendance for a period of up to 14 days at a work camp.

(3) The activities referred to in this paragraph are—

- (a) the manning or launching of a lifeboat; or
- (b) the performance of duty as a part-time member of a fire brigade.

(4) A trial period in section 20(3) [^{F60}and section 20B(3)] means a period of 8 weeks beginning with the commencement of the fifth week of the employment in question and ending at the end of the twelfth week of that employment and for the purposes of this definition in determining the time at which the fifth week of the employment in question commences or at which the twelfth week of that employment ends, any week in which a person has not worked in the employment for at least 16 hours shall be disregarded.
