Laid before Parliament		29th August 1996
Coming into force	- -	26th September 1996

The Secretary of State for Transport, in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 57(1), (2), (6), (7) and (8) of the Goods Vehicles (Licensing of Operators) Act 1995⁽¹⁾ and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, and after consultation with representative organisations in accordance with section 57(12) of that Act, hereby makes the following Regulations:

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Goods Vehicles (Licensing of Operators) (Temporary Use in Great Britain) Regulations 1996 and shall come into force on 26th September 1996.

Commencement Information

I1 Reg. 1 in force at 26.9.1996, see reg. 1

Revocation

2. The Regulations listed in column (1) of Schedule 1 to these Regulations are hereby revoked to the extent specified in column (3) of that Schedule.

Interpretation

3.—(1) In these Regulations—

(1) 1995 c. 23.

Status: Point in time view as at 28/10/2021.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Goods Vehicles (Licensing of Operators) (Temporary Use in Great Britain) Regulations 1996. (See end of Document for details)

“the Act” means the Goods Vehicles (Licensing of Operators) Act 1995;

^{F1}“Euro V standards on emissions” means the emissions limit values set out in row B2 and row C of each of the tables in Section 6.2.1 of Annex I to [Directive 2005/55/EC of the European Parliament and Council of 28 September 2005;]

[^{F1}“Euro VI standards on emissions” means the emissions limit values set out in Annex I to Regulation 595/2009 of the European Parliament and Council of 18 June 2009 as amended;]

F2 ...

F3 ...

“foreign goods vehicle” means a goods vehicle—

- (a) which is operated by a person who is not established in the United Kingdom and has been brought temporarily into Great Britain;
- (b) which is not being used for international carriage by a haulier who is established in a Member State other than the United Kingdom;
- (c) which is engaged in carrying goods by road on a journey some part of which has taken place, or will take place, outside the United Kingdom; and
- (d) which, [^{F4}(except in the case of use in a cabotage operation permitted under Regulation (EC) No. 1072/2009)], is not used at any time during the said journey for the carriage of goods loaded at one place in the United Kingdom and delivered at another place in the United Kingdom;

[^{F5}“international carriage” has the meaning which it bears in Article 2 of Regulation (EC) No. 1072/2009;]

“loading” includes attaching to a drawing vehicle a trailer which has been loaded with goods before it is so attached, and “loaded” shall be construed accordingly;

“Northern Ireland goods vehicles” means a goods vehicle of which the operating centre is in Northern Ireland and—

- (a) which has been brought temporarily into Great Britain;
- (b) which is not being used for international carriage by a haulier who is established in Northern Ireland and is not established in Great Britain;
- (c) which is engaged in carrying goods by road on a journey some part of which has taken place, or will take place, outside Great Britain; and
- (d) which—
 - (i) in the case of a motor vehicle, is registered in Northern Ireland or Great Britain; or
 - (ii) in the case of a trailer, is drawn in Great Britain only by a motor vehicle which is a Northern Ireland goods vehicle; ^{F6}...

[^{F7}“Regulation (EC) No. 1072/2009” means Regulation (EC) No. 1072/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21st October 2009 on common rules for access to the international road haulage market; and]

“relief vehicle” means a vehicle used for transporting goods which is sent to replace a vehicle which has broken down, and which continues the haul under cover of the licence, permit, or other document issued for the vehicle which has broken down.

(2) For the purposes of these Regulations—

- (a) the permissible laden weight and the permissible pay load of a vehicle shall be determined by reference to the law of the country where the vehicle is registered or, in the case of a trailer which is not registered, by reference to the law of the country where the drawing vehicle is registered; and

- (b) a combination of a motor vehicle drawing a trailer shall be treated, for the purpose of determining the permissible laden weight or the permissible pay load, as the case may be, as a single vehicle.

(3) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, a reference to a numbered regulation or Schedule is a reference to the regulation or Schedule bearing that number in these Regulations.

Exemptions for Northern Ireland or foreign goods vehicles used for the carriage of goods between Member States of the European Community

5. Notwithstanding anything in [F9 regulations 8 to 30N], section 2(1) of the Act shall not apply to the use in Great Britain of a Northern Ireland or foreign goods vehicle for the carriage of goods between Member States of the European Community—

- (a) where the vehicle is—
 - (i) loaded or unloaded at a place not more than 25 kilometres from the coast of Great Britain and unloaded or loaded (as the case may be) at a place not more than 25 kilometres from the coast of another Member State, and the distance between the place where the goods are loaded on to the vehicle and the place where they are off-loaded from the vehicle, when measured in a straight line (but disregarding so much of that distance as lies over the sea in a case where the vehicle is carried on sea transport specially constructed and equipped for the carriage of commercial vehicles and operated as a regular service) does not exceed 100 kilometres; or
 - (ii) a motor vehicle, or trailer drawn by a foreign goods vehicle, having a permissible laden weight not exceeding 6 metric tons or a permissible payload not exceeding 3.5 metric tons; or
 - (iii) a relief vehicle; or
- (b) where the goods so carried are those specified in paragraphs 9, 16, 17, 18, 20, 21, 26 or 28 of Schedule 2; or
- (c) where the vehicle is being used on a journey for combined transport as defined in Article 1 of Council Directive (EEC) No. 92/106 on the establishment of common rules for certain types of combined transport of goods between Member States⁽²⁾, and there is carried on the vehicle, or, in the case of a trailer, on the vehicle drawing it, a document which satisfies the requirements of Article 3 of that Directive, or a document issued by the competent authority of the Member State where the vehicle, or, in the case of a trailer, the vehicle drawing it, is registered certifying that the vehicle is being used on such a journey; or
- (d) where the goods are being carried for or in connection with any trade or business carried on by the undertaking carrying them and each of the following conditions are fulfilled:—
 - (i) the goods are the property of the undertaking carrying them or have been sold, bought, let out on hire or hired, produced, extracted, processed or repaired by that undertaking;
 - (ii) the purpose of the journey is to carry the goods to or from the undertaking carrying them or to move them either inside that undertaking, or outside for that undertaking's own requirements;
 - (iii) the vehicle used for such carriage is being driven by an employee of the undertaking;
 - (iv) except in the case of a replacement vehicle during a short breakdown of the vehicle normally used, the vehicle used for carrying the goods is owned by the undertaking carrying them or has been bought by it on deferred terms or hired in accordance with the conditions on the use of vehicles hired without drivers for the carriage of goods by road contained in Council Directive (EEC) No. 84/647⁽³⁾

Exemptions and modification for the Republics of the former Soviet Union goods vehicles

26.—(1) In this regulation “Republic of the former Soviet Union goods vehicle” means a foreign goods vehicle which is not provided for elsewhere in these Regulations—

- (a) which is owned by, or operated on behalf of, a person who is authorised under the law of a Republic of the former Union of Soviet Socialist Republics to use the vehicle in that country for the international carriage of goods; and
- (b) which, in the case of a motor vehicle, is registered in a Republic of the former Union of Soviet Socialist Republics; and
- (c) which, in the case of a trailer, is drawn in Great Britain only by a motor vehicle which is a Republic of the former Soviet Union goods vehicle.

(2) Subject to paragraphs (6) and (7) below, section 2(1) of the Act shall not apply to the use of a Republic of the former Soviet Union goods vehicle for the carriage of any goods specified in paragraph 4, 5 or 8 of Schedule 2.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (6) and (7) below, section 2(1) of the Act shall not apply to the use of a Republic of the former Soviet Union goods vehicle for the carriage of any goods specified in paragraph 21, 22 or 23 of Schedule 2 if the goods are to be, or are being, returned to the country of origin of the vehicle or are to be, or are being, taken to another country.

(4) Subject to paragraphs (6) and (7) below, section 2(1) of the Act shall not apply to the use of a Republic of the former Soviet Union goods vehicle which is a vehicle specified in paragraph 2 or 3 of Schedule 3.

(5) Subject to paragraphs (6) and (7) below, in relation to a Republic of the former Soviet Union goods vehicle being used for the carriage of goods in a case to which none of the preceding exemptions apply, section 2(1) shall have effect as set out in Schedule 5.

Status: Point in time view as at 28/10/2021.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Goods Vehicles (Licensing of Operators) (Temporary Use in Great Britain) Regulations 1996. (See end of Document for details)

(6) The foregoing exemptions and modification shall not apply unless there is carried on the vehicle or, if the vehicle is a trailer, on the motor vehicle by which it is drawn—

- (a) in the case of the carriage of goods under a contract to which the Convention on the Contract for the International Carriage of Goods by Road (as given the force of law in the United Kingdom by section 1 of the Carriage of Goods by Road Act 1965⁽¹⁰⁾) applies, a consignment note made out in accordance with that Convention and containing the particulars specified therein, or
- (b) in the case of the carriage of goods otherwise than under such a contract, a document or documents containing the following particulars:
 - (i) the date of the document and the place at which it is made out;
 - (ii) the name and address of the sender of the goods, if any;
 - (iii) the name and address of the carrier;
 - (iv) the date and place of taking over of the goods, if any, and the place designated for delivery, if any;
- (v) the name and address of the consignee, if any;
 - (vi) the description in common use of the nature of the goods and the method of packing, and, in the case of dangerous goods, their generally recognised description;
 - (vii) the number of packages and their special marks and numbers;
 - (viii) the gross weight of the goods and their quantity otherwise expressed;
 - (ix) charges relating to the carriage (carriage charges, supplementary charges, Customs duties and other charges incurred during the journey); and
- (x) the requisite instructions for Customs and other formalities.

(7) The foregoing exemptions and modification shall not apply to the use of a Republic of the former Soviet Union goods vehicle for the carriage of goods between a place in Great Britain and a place in a country other than Great Britain or a Republic of the former Soviet Union, or vice versa, unless there is carried on the vehicle, or if the vehicle is a trailer, on the motor vehicle by which it is drawn, a permit for the use of the vehicle for that purpose issued with the authority of the Secretary of State.

(3) Section 2(1) of the Act shall not apply to the use in Great Britain of an Icelandic goods vehicle—

- (a) specified in paragraph 1 of Schedule 3; or
- (b) where the goods are being carried for or in connection with any trade or business carried on by the person carrying them and where each of the following conditions are fulfilled—
 - (i) the goods are the property of the person carrying them or have been sold, bought, let out on hire or hired, produced, extracted, processed or repaired by that person;
 - (ii) the purpose of the journey is to carry the goods to or from premises of the person carrying them or to move them, either inside or outside those premises, for that person's own requirements;
 - (iii) the goods vehicle used for such carriage is being driven by an employee of the person;
 - (iv) the goods vehicle used for carrying the goods is owned by the person carrying them or has been bought by that person on deferred terms or has been hired by that person; and
 - (v) the carriage is ancillary to the overall activities of the person.

(4) In relation to an Icelandic goods vehicle being used for the carriage of goods in a case to which none of the preceding exemptions apply, section 2(1) and (3) of the Act shall have effect as set out in Schedule 5A.

PART I

MODIFICATIONS TO THE GOODS VEHICLES (LICENSING OF OPERATORS) ACT 1995 IN RELATION TO FOREIGN GOODS VEHICLES

Commencement Information

I65 Sch. 6 Pt. I in force at 26.9.1996, see reg. 1

The Act shall have effect—

- (a) as if for section 5(1) there were substituted the following—
 - “(1) The vehicles authorised to be used under an operator’s licence are—
 - (a) any motor vehicle in the lawful possession of the licence-holder that is specified in the licence;
 - (b) any trailer in the lawful possession of the licence-holder, and for the purposes of this section different types of trailers may be distinguished in a licence and a maximum number may be specified in the licence for trailers of each type.”;
- (b) as if sections 5(4) to (7), 6(1)(a), (3) and (4), and 7 were omitted;
- (c) as if for section 8(1), there were substituted the following—
 - “(1) A person applying for an operator’s licence with a view to enabling goods vehicles brought temporarily into Great Britain to be used shall apply to such traffic commissioner as the Secretary of State may from time to time direct and shall not at any time hold more than one such licence”;
- (d) as if sections 8(2), (3)(b) and (5) were omitted;
- (e) as if for section 8(4), there were substituted the following—
 - “(4) A person applying for an operator’s licence shall also give to the traffic commissioner details of—
 - (a) the notifiable convictions within the meaning given in paragraph 4 of Schedule 2, and
 - (b) a prohibition under section 69 or 70 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 of the driving of a vehicle of which he was the owner when the prohibition was imposed.”;
- (f) as if in section 9(1), there was inserted at the end of the sub-section “, or a prohibition under section 69 or 70 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 of the driving of a vehicle which he owned”, and section 9(2) was omitted;
- (g) as if sections 10, 11, 12, 13(2) to (11), 14 and 15 were omitted;
- (h) as if for section 13(1) there were substituted the following—
 - “(1) On an application for an operator’s licence the traffic commissioner shall consider whether the applicant satisfies the requirement that he is a fit and proper person to hold an operator’s licence having regard in particular to his previous known conduct in respect of the use and operation of motor vehicles in the United Kingdom.”;
- (i) as if in section 16(1) there were substituted the following—
 - “(1) The operator’s licence shall specify in the licence—
 - (a) the date on which it is to come into force, and

- (b) the date when it will terminate, which date shall not be less than three months after the coming into force of the licence.”;
- (j) as if section 16(2) and (4) and the words “subject to subsection (4)” in section 16(3) were omitted;
- (k) as if in section 17(1) there were substituted the following—
 - “(1) On the application of the holder of an operator’s licence, [^{F30}a traffic commissioner] may vary the licence by directing that any vehicle may cease to be specified in the licence and at the same time direct that another [similar] vehicle shall be specified in the licence as a substitute.”;
- (l) as if sections 17(3) to (5), and 18 to 21 were omitted;
- (m) as if in section 22(1) there were substituted the following—
 - “(1) On issuing an operator’s licence, a traffic commissioner may attach to the licence such conditions as he thinks fit for requiring the holder [^{F31}to inform a traffic commissioner] of any event of a kind specified in the conditions which affect the licence-holder and which is relevant to the exercise of any powers of [^{F31}a traffic commissioner] in relation to the licence.”;
- (n) as if section 22(2) to (6), and 23 to 25 were omitted;
- (o) as if in section 26(1) there were substituted the following—
 - “(1) Subject to the provisions of section 29, [^{F32}a traffic commissioner may direct that an operator’s licence] be revoked, suspended or curtailed on the grounds—
 - (a) that during the five years ending with the date on which the direction is given there has been either a conviction of the licence-holder of a notifiable conviction within the meaning of paragraph 4 of Schedule 2, or a prohibition under section 69 or 70 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 of the driving of a vehicle of which the licence-holder was the owner when the prohibition was imposed, or
 - (b) that since the licence was issued or varied he has learned that a statement of fact was false or statement of expectation has not been fulfilled.”;
- (p) as if sections 26(2) to (10) and (11)(c) and (d), and 27 were omitted;
- (q) as if in section 28(1) there were substituted the following—
 - “(1) Where, under section 26(1) a traffic commissioner directs that an operator’s licence be revoked, the commissioner may order the person who was the holder of the licence to be disqualified (either indefinitely or for such period as the commissioner thinks fit) from holding or obtaining an operator’s licence in Great Britain.”;
- (r) as if section 28(3) were omitted;
- (s) as if sections 30 to 34 and sections 40, 44 and 49 were omitted.

PART II

MODIFICATIONS TO THE GOODS VEHICLES (LICENSING OF OPERATORS) REGULATIONS 1995 IN RELATION TO FOREIGN GOODS VEHICLES

Commencement Information

I66 Sch. 6 Pt. II in force at 26.9.1996, see reg. 1

The Goods Vehicles (Licensing of Operators) Regulations 1995(16) shall have effect:—

- (a) as if regulations 4(c), 7, 9(1) and (3), 10 to 19, 21(1)(a)(i) and (iii), 21(1)(d), 22(1)(b) and (c), 22(2)(b), 22(3), 28(2) and (5), 29(1), (3) to (5), (7), and (12), 31 and 36 were omitted;
- (b) as if in regulation 8(1) for the words “grant of that application would lead to a contravention of section 8(2)” there were substituted “applicant already holds an operator’s licence in Great Britain”;
- (c) as if in regulation 21(1)(b) the words “or section 27” were omitted;
- (d) as if in regulation 23(2) there were substituted the following—
“The disc shall clearly indicate (by colour or other means) that the vehicle is a foreign goods vehicle.”;
- (e) as if in regulation 26(1), for the words “and the licence-holder may do so” to the end there were substituted “at a place specified by the person requiring its production”;
- (f) as if in regulation 33(2) for the words “on a plate affixed to the vehicle by virtue of regulation 66 of those Regulations” there were substituted “in accordance with the legal requirements of the State of establishment of the operator of the foreign goods vehicle”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations consolidate with amendments the Regulations specified in Schedule 1 (see regulation 2). They modify the requirements of The Goods Vehicles (Licensing of Operators) Act 1995 (“the 1995 Act”) as to operators’ licences in relation to certain foreign goods vehicles and Northern Ireland goods vehicles.

In addition to minor and drafting amendments, the principal changes are:—

- (a) the exemption provided for foreign goods vehicles with Community cabotage authorisations (regulation 7(1)) from the requirement in section 2(1) of the 1995 Act to

(16) S.I. 1995/2869.
