The Heads of Sheep and Goats Order 1996

Exceptions from the requirement to stain heads of sheep and goats

7. The requirement in articles 4(2) and 5(1) above to stain the head of a sheep or goat shall not apply if the head is—

- (a) to be sent to a veterinary or medical school, laboratory, hospital or similar institution for instructional, diagnostic or research purposes, provided that it is stored separately from all other animal materials and is clearly identified; or
- (b) intended to be used for non-food or non-feedingstuff purposes and is sent directly to premises referred to in article 9(1)(e) for treatment as if it were specified bovine material.
