1996 No. 347

The Deregulation (Restrictive Trade Practices Act 1976) (Amendment) (Time Limits) Order 1996

5. In Schedule 2 to the Act (furnishing of particulars of agreements) in paragraph 2 (which discharges or modifies the obligation to furnish particulars where an agreement which becomes subject to registration after it is made is determined or varied before particulars are furnished) at the end there shall be inserted—

“(4) Where the time for furnishing particulars of an agreement is determined by entry (f) of the Table in paragraph 5(1) below—

- (a) sub-paragraph (2) above shall not apply where the restrictions made or information provisions accepted under the agreement take effect before the agreement is determined, and
- (b) sub-paragraph (3) above shall only apply to variation of the agreement before the restrictions made or information provisions accepted under it take effect.”
