(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order effects the incorporation of the three communities of Ewenny, St Bride's Major and Wick into the petty sessional division of the Vale of Glamorgan on 1st April 1996. The Order is made in consequence of the provisions of the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 whereby those communities, until then part of the county of Mid Glamorgan, are to form part of the preserved county of South Glamorgan and not the preserved county of Mid Glamorgan, thereby being excluded from the petty sessional division of Newcastle and Ogmore.
