The Beef Bones Regulations 1997

Deboning

6.—(1) No person in the course of a business shall debone any bone-in beef for preparation, preparation for sale or sale for human consumption except at food premises.

(2) The occupier of food premises shall ensure that any deboning of bone-in beef at the premises is carried out in a hygienic manner, in particular so as to avoid the risk of contamination of any food or ingredient.
