

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SCHEDULE 5

EXCEPTIONS TO THE RIGHT TO ACQUIRE

Rural areas

1A. The right to acquire does not arise if the dwelling-house is situated in a rural area designated by order of the Secretary of State under section 17(1)(b) (right to acquire: supplementary provisions) of the Housing Act 1996.