DIPLOMATIC SERVICE

The Consular Fees Order 1998

Made - - - - 11th February 1998

Coming into force - - 26th March 1998

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of February 1998

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 1(1) of the Consular Fees Act 1980(1) is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. This Order may be cited as the Consular Fees Order 1998 and shall come into force on 26th March 1998.

2. In this Order—

- (a) “consular officer” means any person authorised by the Secretary of State to exercise consular functions, or functions in the United Kingdom which correspond with consular functions (including persons who are not, as well as persons who are, consular officers);
- (b) “consular employee” means any person in the administrative or technical service of the consular post or diplomatic mission;
- (c) “consular premises” means the building or parts of buildings used for the purposes of the consular post or diplomatic mission;
- (d) “entry clearance” means a visa, entry certificate, entry permit or other document which, in accordance with the applicable immigration laws or rules, is to be taken as evidence of a person's eligibility for entry into the United Kingdom, a dependency of the United Kingdom, or any other country or territory, as the case may be (but does not include a work permit);
- (e) “replacement passport” means a passport issued in substitution for a valid passport in order to incorporate an addition or amendment thereto.

3. The fees set forth in the table in the Schedule to this Order are prescribed to be levied by consular officers and by marriage officers under the Foreign Marriage Act 1892(2) and the Marriage

(1) 1980 c. 23.

(2) 1892 c. 23.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

with Foreigners Act 1906⁽³⁾ in the execution of their duties, and the said table shall be construed as part of this Order.

4. The Consular Fees Order 1997⁽⁴⁾ is hereby revoked.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order revokes and replaces the Consular Fees Order 1997.

The Order sets out the fees to be charged for consular services. The overall effect is to continue the drive towards full cost recovery for fee-bearing consular services by revising charges for passport services.

Passport fees are raised from £18 to £21 (standard passport), and from £27 to £31 (48 page passport). The fee for amending an existing passport will be increased from £5 to £11. Children's passports valid for five years will be issued at a cost of £11 (just over half the charge for a ten year standard passport), in contrast to the previous practice of charging the full standard fee then renewing the fee after five years.

For all passport fees there will be an extra £10 handling charge for applications made in person in the UK or applications made abroad. This reflects the increased cost of providing such services compared to dealing with postal applications.
